from MESSIAH

By GEORGE FRIDERIC HANDEL
1685–1759

Allegro moderato

The musical score is written for piano and features five systems of music. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato'. The score begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The first system shows a treble staff with a series of chords and a bass staff with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The second system continues this pattern with more complex chordal textures. The third system introduces a more active treble line with eighth-note runs. The fourth system features a prominent treble line with a series of eighth-note chords. The fifth system concludes the excerpt with a final chord in the treble and a sustained bass line.

Handel's Messiah Calvin Stapert, 2010-10-12 Handel's oratorio Messiah is a phenomenon with no parallel in music history. No other work of music has been so popular for so long. Yet familiarity can sometimes breed contempt and also misunderstanding. This book by music expert Calvin Stapert will greatly increase understanding and appreciation of Handel's majestic Messiah, whether readers are old friends of this remarkable work or have only just discovered its magnificence. Stapert provides fascinating historical background, tracing not only Messiah's unlikely inception but also its amazing reception throughout history. The bulk of the book offers scene by scene musical and theological commentary on the whole work, focusing on the way Handel's music beautifully interprets and illuminates the biblical text. For anyone seeking to appreciate Handel's Messiah more, this informed yet accessible guide is the book to have and read. Handel's Messiah: Comfort for God's People is the newest volume in the flourishing Calvin Institute of Christian Worship Liturgical Studies Series, edited by John D. Witvliet.

Handel's Messiah Gregory S. Athnos, 2023-04-06 We think we know Handel's Messiah, having heard it or performed it so many times. But is there another way to look at this masterpiece? Who assembled the texts? Why? How did Handel incorporate his own spiritual understanding of the texts? In this treatise, we view the composition from the same Baroque aesthetic perspective: the composer used the Doctrine of Affections, an approach heretofore unexplored in relationship to Handel's Messiah, which held that every major and minor key prompted a particular, very specific and involuntary emotional and spiritual response in the listener. When facing a choice between following the accepted rules of musical composition or using the Affect best suited to the scriptural text, Handel almost exclusively chose the Affect. In other words, he chose spiritual insight over compositional tradition. Overlaying the various Affects on each movement of Handel's composition, we discover the true heart and spiritual depth of the composer's magnum opus.

The Musical Standard, 1870 Hallelujah Chorus Larry Pugh, 2009-09-01 Choirs who find performing the original version of this all-time favorite chorus too daunting a task will find these editions a welcome addition to the repertoire. Printed in the key of C to create more accessible vocal ranges, they reflect careful consideration of Handel's original intent within the vocal parts, and attention has been paid to the retention of the Baroque style in the accompaniment.
