great English writers of the time are analyzed with the focus on their representation of the city Through the concrete image of London and Paris around the turn of the century as well as through the metaphorical role of the city as a concept this book a new volume in the Philosophiae Doctores series provides differing views about the age as seen by H G Wells George Gissing Joseph Conrad and Henry James The book's analysis arrives at the complex image of civilization at the end of the nineteenth century Literary Criticism, Culture and the Subject of 'English': F.R. Leavis and T.S. Eliot Dandan

Zhang, 2020-09-23 This volume considers the highly convoluted relationship between F R Leavis and T S Eliot comparing their ideas in literary and cultural criticism and connecting it to the broader discourse of English Studies as a university subject that developed in the first half of the twentieth century Comparing and contrasting all the many writings of Leavis on Eliot and the two on Lawrence the study examines how Eliot is formative for the theory and practice of Leavis's literary criticism in both positive and negative ways and investigates Lawrence's significance in relation to Leavis's changing attitude to Eliot It also examines how profound differences in social cultural religious and national thinking strengthened Leavis's alliance with Lawrence to the detriment of his relationship with Eliot These differences between the two writers are presented as dichotomies between nationalism and Europeanism internationalism ruralism organicism and industrialism metropolitanism and relate to the two men's views on literary education the subject of English and the position of the Classics in the curriculum It explores how Leavis's increasingly conflicted feelings about a figure to whom he owed an enormous critical debt and inspiration but whose various beliefs and literary affiliations caused him much misgiving result in a deep sense of division in Leavis himself which he sought to transfer onto Eliot as what he called a pathological case

Worlds Apart Carl Darryl Malmgren, 1991-07-22 Malmgren succeeds in formulating a typology of science fiction that will become a standard reference for some years to come Choice the most intelligently organized and effectively argued general study of SF that I have ever read Rob Latham SFRA Review required reading for its evenhanded overview of so much of the previous critical theoretical material devoted to science fiction American Book Review Worlds Apart provides a comprehensive theoretical model for science fiction by examining the worlds of science fiction and the discourse which inscribes them Malmgren identifies the basic science fiction types including alien encounters alternate societies and worlds and fantasy and examines the role of the reader in concretizing and interpreting these science fiction worlds A History of Literary Criticism Harry Blamires, 1991-08-16 The author traces the course of literary criticism from its foundations in classical and medieval precepts to the theorising of the present day He explores the texts which have been milestones in the history of critical thought placing them firmly in the context of their time Realism, Form, and Representation in the

Edwardian Novel Charlotte Jones, 2021 Charts developments in literary realism between fin de siècle naturalism and early modernism by examining a wide range of realist novels from the Edwardian period focusing in particular on works by Joseph Conrad May Sinclair Arnold Bennett H G Wells and Ford Madox Ford The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 10:

1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before during and after the First World War Chris Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and James Joyce within the rich context of non modernist writings across all major genres allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post Victorian disillusionment Ranging widely across psychological novels war poems detective stories satires and children s books The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time

Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll, 1995 Over the past two decades poststructuralism in its myriad forms has come to dominate literary criticism to the exclusion of virtually any other point of view Few scholars have escaped the coercive authority of its programmatic radicalism In Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll vigorously attacks the foundational principles of poststructuralism and offers in their stead a bold new theory that situates literary criticism within the matrix of evolutionary theory

Suicide and Contemporary Science Fiction Carl Gutiérrez-Jones, 2015-03-16 Suicide and Contemporary Science Fiction examines the fascination with suicidal crises evident in a range of science fiction Specifically this study explores a seemingly counterintuitive proposition in moments of dramatic scientific and technological change the authors of these works frequently cast self destructive episodes as catalysts for beneficial change Carlos Gutierrez Jones argues that this creative self destruction mechanism is invoked by H G Wells as a means of negotiating Victorian anxieties regarding evolutionary theory by Stanislaw Lem as he wrestles with the prospect of nuclear self destruction at the dawn of the space age by William Gibson as he considers the development of artificial intelligence by Christopher Nolan as he explores the cybernetic colonization of the unconscious by Rian Johnson as he links aspects of video gaming to the neoliberal militarization of institutions and by Margaret Atwood as she considers impending ecological disaster and the rise of bioterrorism These authors often depict such scientific and technological changes in a fashion that requires the central characters to transform themselves in hopes of remaining relevant in a radically altered environment

James P. Stobaugh, 2013-08-01 The Teacher Guide for Skills for Literary Analysis Lessons in Assessing Writing Structures

Scale, Crisis, and the Modern Novel Aaron Rosenberg, 2023-11-09 At the turn of the twentieth century novelists faced an unprecedented crisis of scale While exponential increases in industrial production resource extraction and technological complexity accelerated daily life growing concerns about deep time evolution globalization and extinction destabilised scale s value as a measure of reality Here Aaron Rosenberg examines how four novelists moved radically beyond novelistic realism repurposing the genres romance melodrama gothic and epic it had ostensibly superseded He demonstrates how H G Wells Thomas Hardy Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf engaged with climatic and ecological crises that persist today requiring us to navigate multiple temporal and spatial scales simultaneously The volume shows that problems of scale constrain our responses to crisis by shaping the linguistic aesthetic and narrative structures through which we imagine it This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details
