The Jayhawkers' Oath and Other Sketches William Lewis Manly, 2013-09 The Jayhawkers' Oath and Other Sketches William Lewis Manly, 1949 The Jayhawk Rebecca Ozier Schulte, 2023-10-20 The Jayhawk the University of Kansas s legendary and unique mascot has represented the university for more than one hundred years and is recognizable around the world In The Jayhawk Rebecca Ozier Schulte tells the story of the beloved mythical bird s origins and historical significance role as mascot relationship with student life and representation in campus publications popularity in advertising and as merchandise and much more Multiple students and artists drew the Jayhawk in the twentieth century including the long legged Jayhawk drawn by Daniel Henry Hank Maloy in 1912 and the militaristic fighting Jayhawk of 1941 created by Dr Eugene Yogi Williams Six different Jayhawks from 1912 to 1946 have been identified by the university as the most historically significant but there are many many more that have been discovered in hundreds of pieces of ephemera newspaper accounts student scrapbooks and university publications all housed in the University Archives No other source brings the Jayhawk s fascinating history together This stunning book is highlighted by more than 300 photographs most of them in color and many of items rarely seen by the public The Jayhawk is sure to delight fans alumni and anyone who s ever chanted Rock Chalk Jayhawk KU Pony Express Courier ,1949 Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter, 1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history Grit and Gold Jean Johnson, 2018-11-01 No other Western settlement story is more famous than the Donner Party s ill fated journey through the Sierra Nevada Mountains But a few years later and several hundred miles south another group faced a similar situation just as perilous Scrupulously researched and documented Grit and Gold tells the story of the Death Valley Jayhawkers of 1849 and the young men who traveled by wagon and foot from Iowa to the California gold rush The Jayhawkers journey took them through the then uncharted and unnamed hottest driest lowest spot in the continent now aptly known as Death Valley After leaving Salt Lake City to break a road south to the Pacific Coast that would eliminate crossing the snowy Sierra Nevada the party veered off the Old Spanish Trail in southern Utah to follow a mountaineer's map portraying a bogus trail that claimed to cut months and hundreds of miles off their route to the gold country. With winter coming however they found themselves hopelessly lost in the mountains and dry valleys of southern Nevada and California. Abandoning everything but the shirts on their backs and the few oxen that became their pitiful meals they turned their dreams of gold to hopes of survival. Utilizing William Lorton's 1849 diary of the trek from Illinois to southern Utah the reminiscences of the Jayhawkers themselves the keen memory of famed pioneer William Lewis Manly and the almost daily diary of Sheldon Young Johnson paints a lively but accurate portrait of guts grit and determination.

Historical Atlas of the American West Warren A. Beck, 1989. The 78 maps in this atlas add significant information to the study of the development of the American West. Defined for this resource as those 17 continental states west of the Missouri River. The maps range in chronology from explorations in the sixteenth century to the location of World War II prisoner of war and Japanese internment camps. The atlas includes maps of geographic flora and fauna data. Maps are on the left pages and narratives about the maps are on the facing pages. Maps are black and white, clear and easily read. An Appendix shows Spanish Mexican land grants and there is an index. This is an excellent atlas for both middle and high schools. Includes a section on Arkansas aboriginal setting and Native American tribes. Describes European contacts and settlements. Desert

William Lewis Manly was a forty-nine explorer and humanitarian whose story most people have never heard. Born in Vermont, William Lewis Manly was drawn out west by the lure of gold. Previous scholarship claims that the Yankee frontiersman floated only 290 miles down the Green River to the Uinta Basin, but author Michael D. Kane's research of primary source materials led him to the conclusion that Manly actually traveled 415 miles all the way to what is now Green River, Utah. This would make Manly the first to explore much of the Green River by boat twenty years before John Wesley Powell's famous expedition. Determined to prove his theory and establish Manly's legacy as a trailblazer, Kane conducted research and then built his own wooden canoes and made the trip tracing Manly's footsteps and comparing notes with the earlier traveler. Country Never Trod follows Manly's little-known expedition down the Green River and his overland trek through some of the most desolate stretches of Utah interspersed with Kane's journal entries and photographs documenting his own trip Saturday Review ,1950 Death Valley to Deadwood; Kennecott to Cripple Creek United States. National Park Service. Division of National Register Programs,1990

Papers address concerns by contractors and agencies in how to survey and nominate properties to the National Register of Historic Places and how to mitigate adverse actions on significant resources management concerns related to historic mining sites on public lands and interpretation and display of mining sites and materials The focus is on the western United States but other parts of the U S and western Canada are covered Saturday Review of Literature ,1950 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1974 The Kansas Historical Quarterly Kirke Mechem,James Claude Malin,1951 Nevada Historical Society Quarterly ,1971 Adult Catalog: Subjects Los Angeles County Public Library,1970
