All I Want Is Loving You Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In All I Want Is Loving You Popular Female Singers of the 1950s author Steve Bergsman focuses on the white female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s These popular performers many of whom graduated out of the big bands of the 1940s impacted popular music in a huge way As the last bastion of traditional pop and the last sirens of swing they undeniably shined in the spotlight Yet these singers fame dimmed relatively quickly with the advent of rock n roll A fortunate few like Doris Day Patti Page Peggy Lee and Debbie Reynolds experienced some of their biggest hits in the late 1950s and Eydie Gorm broke out in the 1960s The luckiest including Dinah Shore and Rosemary Clooney ventured to television with varying degrees of success Others would become major attractions at nightclubs in Las Vegas or like Teresa Brewer shift into the jazz world Though the moment did not last these performers were best selling singers darlings of the disk jockeys and the frenetic heartbeat of fan clubs during their heyday In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of African American women singers of the same era These Black musicians transitioned more easily as a new form of music rock n roll skyrocketed in popularity In both books Bergsman reintroduces readers to these talented singers offering a thorough look at their work and turning up the volume on their legacy

Torch Singing Stacy Holman Jones,2007-07-08 In this innovative book Stacy Holman Jones presents torch singing as a much more complicated phenomenon than the familiar trope of a woman lamenting her victimhood With an ethnographer s eye she observes the bluesy torch singers asking if they are possibly performing critiques of the very lyrics they sing From this perspective we see the singer giving expression not only to desire but also to an incipient determination to resist and change Holman Jones also reveals points of contact in the opposition between spectators and performers emotion and intellect and love and power Instead of interpreting the expression of love as a woman s violent mistake as willing deception and passive fate Holman Jones allows us to hear an active search for hope

Jews, Race and Popular Music Jon Stratton,2017-07-05 Jon Stratton provides a pioneering work on Jews as a racialized group in the popular music of America Britain and Australia during the twentieth and early twenty first centuries Rather than taking a narrative historical approach the book consists of a number of case studies looking at the American British and Australian music industries Stratton s primary motivation is to uncover how the racialized positioning of Jews which was sometimes similar but often different in each of the societies under consideration affected the kinds of music with which Jews have become involved Stratton explores race as a cultural construction and continues discussions undertaken in Jewish Studies concerning the racialization of the Jews and the stereotyping of Jews in order to present an in depth and critical understanding of Jews race and popular music

A Bad Woman Feeling Good: Blues and the Women Who Sing Them Buzzy Jackson, 2005-02-17 The women who broke the rules creating their own legacy of how to live and sing the blues An exciting lineage of women singers originating with Ma Rainey and her protégée Bessie Smith shaped the blues launching it as a powerful expressive vehicle of emotional liberation Along with their successors Billie Holiday Etta James Aretha Franklin Tina Turner and Janis Joplin they injected a dose of reality into the often trivial world of popular song bringing their message of higher expectations and broader horizons to their audiences These women passed their image their rhythms and their toughness on to the next generation of blues women which has its contemporary incarnation in singers like Bonnie Raitt and Lucinda Williams with whom the author has done an in depth interview Buzzy Jackson combines biography an appreciation of music and a sweeping view of American history to illuminate the pivotal role of blues women in a powerful musical tradition Musician Thomas Dorsey said The blues is a good woman feeling bad But these women show by their style that he had it backward The blues is a bad woman feeling good

Grant for his mixed race group The Equals crossed the racial faultline when it was picked up by the punk rock group The Clash Conversely Johnny Reggae originally a pop ska track written about a skinhead by Jonathan King and performed by a group of studio artists whom King named The Piglets was revisioned by a Jamaican studio group called The Roosevelt Singers After this the character of Johnny Reggae takes on a life of his own and appears in tracks by Jamaican toasters as a Rastafarian Johnny s identity is then totally transformed It is this migration of music that will appeal not only to those studying popular music but
