Jazz Bab:

Classic Jazz Floyd Levin, 2002-04-30 Floyd Levin's half century collection of reportage reviews and recollections are an irreplaceable and totally enjoyable trove of writing about the vibrancy past and still present of traditional American jazz. Charles Champlin, author of Back There Where the Past Was I've known Floyd and his wife Lucille for more than fifty years. Floyd's book is a colorful intimate account of his lifelong love affair with jazz. I'm especially fascinated when he writes about his personal encounters with some of the jazz legends of the Century. This book is essential reading for anyone concerned about jazz, its present, its past, and his evolution. Milt Hinton: Floyd Levin's dedicated and unselfish life-long work for the cause of jazz has illuminated many a corner that would otherwise have remained in the dark. All who care about the music are in his debt. Classic Jazz like Floyd himself is a classic. Dan Morgenstern, Director, Institute of Jazz Studies, Rutgers University. What a rich, passionate, and human book this is. Drawing on fifty years of devotion to classic New Orleans jazz and the artists who performed it, Floyd Levin brilliantly weaves anecdotal material, primary research, intimate personal observations, and analyses to create an historical goldmine of the music's evolution in New Orleans and on the West Coast. In rendering portraits of legendary musicians in such a beautifully moving, honest way, he offers not just standard history but a strong sense of the emotional core of the music as well. Steve Isoardi, co-author of Central Avenue Sounds: The Green Book, Vol. 1. Raymond McNeil, 2024-01-15 About the Book THE GREEN BOOK VOL 1: The Intertwined Musical and Historical Journey by People of Color in America provides a comprehensive exploration of the music that occurred alongside some of American history's biggest events. This impressive and extensive guide spans from 1380 until 1959. This book's purpose is to share, illuminate, and stick to the positive achievements of the people who've helped to spread the message of music. That will include all the musicians, singers, and lyricists who helped the fans to appreciate the various styles of music that we have today. About the Author: Raymond was a native of New York City and a product of schools in Brooklyn. He worked in all three levels of government. He has spent the past fifty-five years gathering and exploring America's musical journey. His primary motivation for writing this book was to seek out and amass a stream of verifiable truths. He is a fan of most styles of music, though he does struggle to find a love for hard rock and bluegrass at times. McNeil's ultimate goal is to share his love of music and history and the ways in which they intertwine together throughout the years. The Unfinished World. Amber Sparks, 2016-01-21 A Washington Post Best Science Fiction/Fantasy of the Year Selection. One of Electric Literature's Best Short Story Collections of the Year. A highly anticipated collection of wildly imaginative short stories from one of contemporary fiction's true mad scientists. Necessary Fiction. In the weird and wonderful tradition of Kelly Link and Karen Russell, Amber Sparks's dazzling new collection bursts forth with stories that render the apocalyptic and otherworldly hauntingly familiar. In The Cemetery for Lost Faces, two orphans translate their grief into taxidermy, artfully arresting the passage of time. The anchoring novella The Unfinished World unfurls a surprising love story between a free and adventurous

young woman and a dashing filmmaker burdened by a mysterious family Sparks's stories populated with sculptors librarians astronauts and warriors form a veritable cabinet of curiosities Mythical bizarre and deeply moving The Unfinished World and Other Stories heralds the arrival of a major writer and illuminates the search for a brief encounter with the extraordinary
