Emmerson, 2013-10-18 From emperors and queens to artists and world travelers from popes and scholars to saints and heretics Key Figures in Medieval Europe brings together in one volume the most important people who lived in medieval Europe between 500 and 1500 Gathered from the biographical entries from the on going series the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages these A Z biographical entries discuss the lives of over 575 individuals who have had a historical impact in such areas as politics religion or the arts Individuals from places such as medieval England France Germany Iberia Italy and Scandinavia are included as well as those from the Jewish and Islamic worlds A thematic outline is included that lists people not only by categories but also by regions For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages website Routledge Revivals: Medieval France (1995) William W. Kibler, Grover A. Zinn, 2017-07-05 First published in 1995 Medieval France An Encyclopedia is the first single volume reference work on the history and culture of medieval France It covers the political intellectual literary and musical history of the country from the early fifth to the late fifteenth century The shorter entries offer succinct summaries of the lives of individuals events works cities monuments and other important subjects followed by essential bibliographies Longer essay length articles provide interpretive comments about significant institutions and important periods or events The Encyclopedia is thoroughly cross referenced and includes a generous selection of illustrations maps charts and genealogies It is especially strong in its coverage of economic issues women music religion and literature This comprehensive work of over 2 400 entries will be of key interest to students and scholars as well as general readers Architect, 1873 Routledge Revivals: Key Figures in Medieval Europe (2006) Richard Emmerson, 2017-07-05 First published in 2006 Key Figures in Medieval Europe brings together in one volume the most important people who lived in medieval Europe between 500 and 1500 Gathered from the biographical entries from the series Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages these A Z biographical entries discuss the lives of over 575 individuals who have had a historical impact in such areas as politics religion and the arts It includes individuals from places such as medieval England France Germany Iberia Italy and Scandinavia as well as those from the Jewish and Islamic worlds In one convenient volume students scholars and interested readers will find the biographies of the people whose actions beliefs creations and writings shaped the Middle Ages one of the most fascinating periods of world history A History of French Painting from Its Earliest to Its Latest Practice Clara Cornelia Harrison Stranahan, 1899 The Architect, 1879 Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists

during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

The Brussels Horloge de Sapience: Iconography and Text of Brussels, Bibliothèque Royale, MS. IV 111 Peter Rolfe Monks, 2023-10-16 The book discusses principally the iconography and text of a mid 15th century copy of the mystical treatise Horloge de Sapience in the most sumptuously illuminated ms known of the text Each of the 36 illuminations is discussed in turn with reference to their pictorial traditions to the French textual matter and to a unique contemporary commentary called the D clARATION des hystoires The D clARATION is one of the earliest essays in the history of art criticism to survive The study is rendered useful for teachers and scholars by an English translation of the text of the D clARATION which enables the reader to see the illustrations through the eyes of a 15th century critic

The Hours of Simon de Varie James H. Marrow, François Avril, 1994 Leading French painters in the late medieval period executed miniatures for lavishly illuminated books of hours In the mid fifteenth century Simon de Varie commissioned such a book Completed in 1455 it included five priceless works by the most eminent French painter of the time Jean Fouquet as well as other striking paintings by two of his contemporaries In the seventeenth century Simon de Varie's book was divided into three sections and sold as separate volumes Two of these volumes are today in the Royal Library in The Hague The third volume thought lost until 1984 when it surfaced in a private collection and was subsequently acquired by the Getty Museum contains the first miniatures by Jean Fouquet to have been discovered in eighty years This beautiful book will reproduce in color all of the miniatures and historiated initials in the original manuscript along with selected text pages with secondary decoration Comparative illustrations also accompany the two essays in the volume Marrow's text addresses the role of books of hours in late medieval culture the contents and form of de Varie's Hours and the relationship of the miniatures by Fouquet to the rest of the artist's oeuvre In a related essay François Avril discusses the position of Simon de Varie and his family in mid fifteenth century France The publication of The Hours of Simon de Varie adds to the Getty's impressive list of publications on illuminated manuscripts begun in 1990 and including the widely acclaimed facsimile Mira calligraphiae monumenta

The Late Medieval Age of Crisis and Renewal, 1300-1500 Clayton J. Drees, 2000-11-30 As part of a unique series covering the grand sweep of Western civilization from ancient to present times this biographical dictionary provides introductory information on 315 leading cultural figures of late medieval and early modern Europe Taking a cultural approach not typically found in general biographical dictionaries the work includes literary philosophical artistic military religious humanistic musical economic and exploratory figures Political figures are included only if they patronized the arts and coverage focuses on their cultural impact Figures from western European countries such as Italy France England Iberia the Low Countries and the Holy Roman Empire predominate but outlying areas such as Scotland Scandinavia and Eastern Europe are also represented Late medieval Europe was an age of crisis With the Papacy removed to Avignon the schism in the Catholic Church shook the very core of medieval belief The Hundred Years War devastated France The Black Death decimated the population Yet out of this crisis grew an age of renewal leading to the Renaissance The great Italian city states developed Humanism reawakened interest in the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome Dante and Boccaccio began writing in their Tuscan vernacular Italian artists became humanists and flourished As the genius of Italy began spreading to northern and western Europe at the end of the 15th century the age of renewal was completed This book provides thorough basic information on the major cultural figures of this tumultuous era of crisis and renewal American Journal of
