Jean Gerson Apostle Of Unity:

Jean Gerson - Apostle of Unity: His Church Politics and Ecclesiology G.H.M. Posthumus Meyjes, 2022-08-22 The first part of this study on the famous chancellor of the Paris University contains a chronological survey of Gerson's position in the development of the church politics of his days. It is shown how he became a convinced adherent of a conciliar solution of the Western schism without betraying the idea of the Church as hierarchical entity. In the second part his ecclesiological ideas are treated more systematically. Gerson's critical attitude towards canon lawyers and papal absolutism is examined followed by an analysis of the background of his ideas about the Church as hierarchy and as mystical body. His conciliar thought, his concept of tradition and his sources. The author tries to make clear that Gerson far from being a radical rather should be considered as a careful and conservative theologian. The book comprises a revised and extended version of an originally in Dutch written thesis for which the author was awarded the Mallinckrodt prize of the University of Groningen.

The Platonic Tradition in the Middle Ages Stephen Gersh, Maarten J.F.M. Hoenen, 2013-02-06 This collection of essays delineates the history of the rather disparate intellectual tradition usually labeled as Platonic or Neoplatonic. In chronological order the book covers the most eminent philosophic schools of thought within that tradition. The most important terms of the Platonic tradition are studied together with a discussion of their semantic implications, the philosophical and theological claims associated with the terms, the sources that furnish the terms and the intellectual traditions aligned with or opposed to them. The contributors thereby provide a vivid intellectual map of the Middle Ages and the Early Modern period. Contributions are written in English or German.

Political Theology the "Modern Way" Shaun Retallick, 2023-12-18 In Political Theology the Modern Way The Case of Jacques Almain d 1515 Shaun Retallick provides the first monograph on this late medieval philosopher, theologian and conciliarist and his thought. He demonstrates that Almain's political theology, of which ecclesiology is a sub-discipline, is strongly impacted by the Via moderna. At the heart of his political theology is the individual and his or her will. Yet the individual is rarely viewed in isolation from others; there is a strong emphasis on community and on the religious and secular bodies through which it is realized. But these bodies, including the Church, are understood in collectivist rather than corporatist terms, which tends to a quite radical form of conciliarism.

Transformations in Medieval and Early-Modern Rights Discourse Virpi Mäkinen, Petter Korkman, 2006-02-27 Rights language is a fundamental feature of the modern world. Virtually all significant social and political struggles are waged and have been waged for over a century now in terms of rights claims. In some ways it is precisely the birth of modern rights language that ushers in modernity in terms of moral and political thought and the struggle for a modern way of life seems for many synonymous with the fight for a universal recognition of equal individual human rights. Where did modern rights language come from? What kinds of rights discourses is it rooted in? What is the specific nature of modern rights discourse when and where were medieval and ancient notions of rights transformed into it? Can one in fact find any single such transformation of medieval into modern rights discourse This book brings together some of the most central scholars in the history of medieval and early modern rights discourse Through the different angles taken by its authors the volume brings to light the multifaceted nature of rights languages in the medieval and early modern world Spiritualia and Pastoralia

Frederick J. McGinness, Alexander Dalzell, 1998 A Companion to the Great Western Schism (1378-1417), 2009-09-30

The division of the Church or Schism that took place between 1378 and 1417 had no precedent in Christianity No conclave since the twelfth century had acted as had those in April and September 1378 electing two concurrent popes This crisis was neither an issue of the authority claimed by the pope and the Holy Roman Emperor nor an issue of authority and liturgy The Great Western Schism was unique because it forced upon Christianity a rethinking of the traditional medieval mental frame It raised question of personality authority human fallibility ecclesiastical jurisdiction and taxation and in the end responsibility in holding power and authority This collection presents the broadest range of experiences center and periphery clerical and lay male and female Christian and Muslim Theology including exegesis of Scripture diplomacy French literature reform art and finance all receive attention Jean Gerson and the Last Medieval Reformation Brian Patrick

McGuire, 2010-11-01 In this biography of the noted French philosopher and theologian Jean Gerson the first since 1929 Brian Patrick McGuire presents a compelling portrait of Gerson as a voice of reason and Christian humanism during a time of great intellectual and social tumult in the late Middle Ages Born to a peasant father and mother in the county of Champagne Gerson 1363 1429 was the first of twelve children He overcame his modest beginnings to become a scholastic and vernacular theologian a university intellectual and a church reformer McGuire shows us the turning points in Gerson's life including his crisis of faith after becoming chancellor of the University of Paris in 1395 Through these key moments we see the deeper undercurrents of his mystical writings With their rich display of spiritual and emotional life these writings were to earn Gerson the appellation doctor christianissimus In turn they would influence many later thinkers including Nicholas of Cusa Ignatius of Loyola Francis de Sales and even Martin Luther Gerson is a man perhaps easier to admire than to love conscientious to a fault at once a pragmatist and an idealist in church politics a university intellectual who both fostered and distrusted the religious aspirations of the laity a powerful prelate who moved among the great yet never forgot his peasant origins a self revealing yet intensely private man who yearned for intimacy almost as much as he feared it McGuire ably situates Gerson in the context of his age an age replete with doctrinal controversies and the politics of papal schism on the eve of the Protestant Reformation Gerson emerges as a proponent of dialogue and discussion committed to reforming the church from within His courageous effort to renew the unity of a unique civilization bears examination in our own time

Luther at Leipzig, 2019-09-16 On the five hundredth anniversary of the 1519 debate between Martin Luther and John Eck at Leipzig Luther at Leipzig offers an extensive treatment of this pivotal Reformation event in its historical and theological context The Leipzig Debate not only revealed growing differences between Luther and his opponents but also resulted in further splintering among the Reformation parties which continues to the present day The essays in this volume provide an essential background to the complex theological political ecclesiastical and intellectual issues precipitating the debate They also sketch out the relevance of the Leipzig Debate for the course of the Reformation the interpretation and development of Luther and the ongoing divisions between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism Medieval Philosophy Peter Adamson, 2019 Adamson offers a lively and accessible tour through 600 years of intellectual history offering a feast of new ideas in every area of philosophy He introduces us to some of the greatest thinkers of the Western tradition including Abelard Anselm Aquinas Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich Councils of the Catholic Reformation Nelson H. Minnich, 2024-10-28 This new collection by Nelson Minnich deals with the general councils of the Catholic Reformation in the late medieval and early modern periods The volume opens with overviews of the various editions of and current scholarship on these general councils Three studies then give special attention to the role of theologians in these councils their changing legal status consultative or deliberative voting rights and their individual roles and those of the various theological schools in drafting the decrees Another article examines the legal status of theologians accused of heresy and schism Two examine the contest between the councils of Pisa Milan Asti Lyon and Lateran V for legitimacy studying in particular the contrasting image of Julius II suspended for contumacy by Pisa but the strong leader of Lateran V and the role ceremonies played in securing legitimacy Last there are three studies devoted to the Council of Trent the status of the Protestants who came to the council its debates on the priesthood of all believers and the influence of Lateran V on its procedures debates and decrees

Allegorical Bodies Daisy Delogu, Desire, Faith, and the Darkness of God Eric Bugyis, David Newheiser, 2015-11-15 In the face of religious and cultural diversity some doubt whether Christian faith remains possible today Critics claim that religion is irrational and violent and the loudest defenders of Christianity are equally strident In response Desire Faith and the Darkness of God Essays in Honor of Denys Turner explores the uncertainty essential to Christian commitment it suggests that faith is moved by a desire for that which cannot be known This approach is inspired by the tradition of Christian apophatic theology which argues that language cannot capture divine transcendence From this perspective contemporary debates over God's existence represent a dead end if God is not simply another object in the world then faith begins not in abstract certainty but in a love that exceeds the limits of knowledge The essays engage classic Christian thought alongside literary and philosophical sources ranging from Pseudo Dionysius and Dante to Karl Marx and Jacques Derrida Building on the work of Denys Turner they indicate that the boundary between atheism and Christian thought is productively blurry Instead of settling the stale dispute over whether religion is rationally justified their work suggests instead that Christian life is an ethical and political practice impassioned by a God who transcends understanding Communicating Papal Authority in the Middle Ages Minoru Ozawa, Thomas W. Smith, Georg Strack, 2023-02-17 This book bridges Japanese and European scholarly approaches to ecclesiastical history to provide new insights into how the papacy conceptualised its authority and attempted to realise and communicate that authority in ecclesiastical and secular spheres across Christendom Adopting a broad yet cohesive temporal and geographical approach that spans the Early to the Late Middle Ages from Europe to Asia the book focuses on the different media used to represent authority the structures through which authority was channelled and the restrictions that popes faced in so doing and the less certain expression of papal authority on the edges of Christendom Through twelve chapters that encompass key topics such as anti popes artistic representations preaching heresy the crusades and mission and the East this interdisciplinary volume brings new perspectives to bear on the medieval papacy The book demonstrates that the communication of papal authority was a two way process effected by the popes and their supporters but also by their enemies who helped to shape concepts of ecclesiastical power Communicating Papal Authority in the Middle Ages will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in the relationships between the papacy and medieval society and the ways in which the papacy negotiated and expressed its authority in Europe and beyond

We Believe in God and in Christ. Not in the Church Marijn de Kroon, 2009-01-01 This English translation from the Dutch volume is a study of a quotation by St Augustine as it was understood in the late medieval period Marijn de Kroon focuses on how this quotation was interpreted by two theologians Wessel Gansfort the Northern humanist and theologian connected to the Devotio moderna and the Brethren of the Common Life and Martin Bucer the Protestant reformer who further developed Gansfort's ideas This study is accompanied by a series of shorter texts all showing the reception of Augustine's phrase in late medieval theology and contrasting it with Gansfort's understanding of it which Bucer was to adopt With his commented edition of source texts de Kroon throws a new light on the links between late medieval and Reformation thought demonstrating how a fully fledged reformer like Bucer used the works of medieval theologians In fact this is the first work to point to a concrete case of Gansfort's influence on the Reformation Parisian Licentiates in Theology, A.D. 1373-1500. A Biographical Register Thomas Sullivan, O.S.B., 2011-03-04 This volume presents a biographical register of 460 members of the secular clergy licensed in theology at the University of Paris between 1373 and 1500 The register is preceded by a discussion of the sources used in its preparation and a list of all the clerics religious as well as secular licensed in Paris between 1373 and 1500 Appended to the register is an index listing all those licensed belonging to the secular clergy arranged according to their first names and an index of those licensed arranged according to college affiliation The register is offered in service to historians of the medieval university as well as those interested in the professoriate of the premier theological faculty of the day Church and Reform Louis Pascoe, 2004-12-01 This work examines Pierre d'Ailly's 1351-1420 views on bishops theologians and canon lawyers not primarily in their conciliar context but within the broader dimensions of their individual status office and authority within the Church These views also unfold in varying degrees within the apocalyptic context of his thought and result in a call for both pastoral and personal reform especially for the episcopacy This call moreover reveals strong apostolic and evangelical influences especially those of the Franciscans and the Brethren of the Common Life and adds a distinctive dimension to the wide variety of late medieval reform ideologies which while having some influence at the Council of Constance contributed heavily to the reform decrees of Trent Management and Resolution of Conflict and Rivalries in Renaissance Europe Jill Kraye, Marc Laureys, David A. Lines, 2023-08-14 This is the third and final volume of essays issuing from the Leverhulme International Network Renaissance Conflict and Rivalries Cultural Polemics in Europe c 1300 c 1650 The overall aim of the network was to examine the various ways in which conflict and rivalries made a positive contribution to cultural production and change during the Renaissance The present volume which contains papers delivered at the third colloquium draws that examination to a close by considering a range of different strategies deployed in the period to manage conflict and rivalries and to bring them to a positive resolution The papers explore these developments in the context of political diplomatic social institutional religious and art history Hugo Grotius as Apologist for the Christian Religion: A Study of His Work De veritate religionis christianae (1640) J.P. Heering, 2004-04-01 This study deals with Hugo Grotius famous apologetic work De veritate religionis christianae the Latin version of a Dutch poem which he wrote in 1620 while imprisoned in Loevestein entitled Bewijs van den waren godsdienst The first part of this book examines the genesis of the work and the development of the text The middle sections give an analysis of the motives that led Grotius to write this work and of the sources he most probably used The final chapters examine the notes that Grotius added to his work in 1640 and the reception of the work in the author's lifetime The book is illustrated with several historical drawings and prints of Grotius and his time Peacemaking and the Canon Law of the Catholic Church Charles Reid, Jr., 2023-12-21 This volume unites three disparate strands of historical and legal experience Nearly from its beginning the Catholic Church has sought to promote peace among warring parties and among private litigants The volume explores three vehicles the Church has used to promote peace papal diplomacy of international disputes both medieval and contemporary the arbitration of disputes among litigants and the use of the tools of reconciliation to bring about rapprochement between ecclesiastical superiors and those subject to their authority The book concludes with an appendix exploring a wide variety of hypothetical yet plausible scenarios in which the Church might use its good offices to repair breaches among persons and nations Generations of Feeling Barbara H. Rosenwein, 2016 An exploration of emotional life in the West considering the varieties transformations and constants of human emotions over eleven centuries
