Jeddah Old And New:

Jeddah Old and New James Buchan, 1991 Jeddah Bride of the Red Sea This is a cosmopolitan city ancient and modern hub unique seat of civilisation and meeting point for millions of pilgrims It is a city without compare At its core lies a network of old merchant houses mosques markets and shaded walkways Its history is etched on every balcony dome and minaret But surrounding the ancient city is a strikingly modern metropolis built with grace and vision This book evokes the dual character of the city capturing in beautiful photographs the essence of its ancient and modern charm Modern Saudi Arabia Valerie Anishchenkova, 2020-06-01 This thematic encyclopedia examines contemporary and historical Saudi Arabia with entries that fall under such themes as geography history government and politics religion and thought food etiquette media and much more The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia known for its petroleum reserves and leadership role in the Middle East is explored in this latest addition to the Understanding Modern Nations series Organized into thematic chapters Modern Saudi Arabia covers both history and contemporary daily life Chapter topics include Geography History Government and Politics Economy Religion and Thought Social Classes and Ethnicity Gender Marriage and Sexuality Education Language Etiquette Literature and Drama Art and Architecture Music and Dance Food Leisure and Sports and Media and Popular Culture Each chapter contains an overview of the topic and alphabetized entries on examples of each theme A detailed historical timeline spans from prehistoric times to the present Special appendices are also included offering profiles of a typical day in the life of representative members of Saudi society a glossary key facts and figures about Saudi Arabia and a holiday chart This volume will be useful for readers looking for specific topical information and for those who want to read entire chapters to gain a deeper perspective on aspects of modern Saudi Arabia Imagine a City Mark Vanhoenacker, 2022-07-05 This love letter to the cities of the world from the airline pilot author of Skyfaring is a journey around both the author's mind and the planet's great cities that leaves us energized open to new experiences and ready to return more hopefully to our lives Alain de Botton author of The Art of Travel In his small New England hometown Mark Vanhoenacker spent his childhood dreaming of elsewhere of the distant real cities he found on the illuminated globe in his bedroom and of one perfect metropolis that existed only in his imagination These cities were the sources of endless comfort and escape and of a lasting fascination Streets unspooled towers shone and anonymous crowds bustled in the places where Mark hoped he could someday be anyone perhaps even himself Now as a commercial airline pilot Mark has spent nearly two decades crossing the skies of our planet and touching down in dozens of the storied cities he imagined as a child He experiences these destinations during brief stays that he repeats month after month and year after year giving him an unconventional and uniquely vivid perspective on the places that form our urban world In this intimate yet expansive work that weaves travelogue with memoir Mark celebrates the cities he has come to know and to love through the lens of the hometown his heart has never quite left As he explores emblematic facets of each city's identity the road signs of Los Angeles the old gates of Jeddah the snowy streets of Sapporo he shows us with warmth and fresh eyes the extraordinary places that billions of us call home Saudi Arabia ,1992 Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt,Kishwar Rizvi,2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices The Report: Saudi Arabia 2018 , Key initiatives include a privatisation programme which would see the divestment of a number of state owned giants such as the partial listing of Aramco the creation of the world s largest sovereign wealth fund and the increased participation of women in the job market The Kingdom has played a key role too on the international stage in 2017 becoming the first country to host President Trump a visit which resulted in renewed trade and investment commitments on both sides Meanwhile the country s importance as a trading hub continues to grow thanks to both the various infrastructural upgrades that are taking place to its ports and airports as well as its geographical advantage as a connector of three continents and its proximity to the Red Sea through which 10% of world trade travels Encyclopedia of Deserts Michael A. Mares,2017-01-19 Encyclopedia of Deserts represents a milestone it is the first comprehensive reference to the first comprehensive reference to deserts and semideserts of the world Approximately seven hundred entries treat subjects ranging from desert survival to the way deserts are formed Topics include biology birds mammals reptiles amphibians fishes invertebrates plants bacteria physiology evolution geography climatology geology hydrology anthropology and history The thirty seven contributors including volume editor Michael A Mares have had extensive careers in deserts research encompassing all of the world s arid and semiarid regions The Encyclopedia opens with a subject list by topic an organizational guide that helps the reader grasp interrelationships and complexities in desert systems Each entry concludes with cross references to other entries in the volume inviting the reader to embark on a personal expedition into fascinating previously unknown terrain In addition a list of important readings facilitates in depth study of each topic An exhaustive index permits quick access to places topics and taxonomic listings of all plants and animals discussed More than one hundred photographs drawings and maps enhance our appreciation of the remarkable life landforms history and challenges of the world s arid land Historical Dictionary of Saudi Arabia J.E. Peterson,2020-03-06 The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia now has been under the spotlight of Western curiosity for more than 80 years More than 15% of the world's total oil reserves lie underneath Saudi Arabia and in the early 1990s the kingdom became the world's largest crude oil producer Not surprisingly a world highly dependent on oil regards the desert kingdom as an area of intense strategic concern as reflected in the coalition of forces assembled on Saudi soil to oust Iraq from Kuwait in 1991 Also it played a major role in the invasion of Saddam Husayn's Iraq in 2003 and shares concern with the West over Iran's nuclear intentions throughout the 21st century This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Saudi Arabia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Saudi Arabia

Crossing the Kingdom Loring M. Danforth, 2016-03-29 For many people the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia evokes images of deserts camels and oil along with rich sheikh in white robes oppressed women in black veils and terrorists But when Loring Danforth traveled through the country in 2012 he found a world much more complex and inspiring than he could have ever imagined With vivid descriptions and moving personal narratives Danforth takes us across the Kingdom from the headquarters of Saudi Aramco the country's national oil company on the Persian Gulf to the centuries old city of Jeddah on the Red Sea coast with its population of undocumented immigrants from all over the Muslim world He presents detailed portraits of a young woman jailed for protesting the ban on women driving a Sufi scholar encouraging Muslims and Christians to struggle together with love to know God and an artist citing the Quran and using metal gears and chains to celebrate the diversity of the pilgrims who come to Mecca Crossing the Kingdom paints a lucid portrait of contemporary Saudi culture and the lives of individuals who like us all grapple with modernity at the dawn of the twenty first century

The Report, 2012 History of Urban Form Before the Industrial Revolution A.E.J. Morris, 2013-12-02 Provides an international history of urban development from its origins to the industrial revolution This well established book maintains the high standard of information found in the previous two editions describing the physical results of some 5000 years of urban activity It explains and develops the concept of unplanned cities that grow organically in contrast with planned cities that were shaped in response to urban form determinants Spread throughout the texts are copious illustrations from a wealth of sources including cartographic urban records aerial and other photographs original drawings and the author's numerous analytical line drawings

Infidel Behind the Paradoxical Veil Jeanette M. English, 2011-02 Most Western non Muslim women couldn't envision surrendering their freedom and being forced to comply with Saudi women's entrapped customs which have existed for the past 1 400 years Did you know that Saudi Arabia's religious police known as the Mutawa can take any woman to jail for not covering her hair or wearing an abaya How would you imagine yourself living a life being compelled to abide by the power and values of men not being able to drive talk with your driver shop alone without a male escort leave the country without a male escort or be seen alone with a non related male INFIDEL BEHIND

THE PARADOXICAL VEIL A Western Woman s Experience in Saudi Arabia is a personal story of startling encounters such as mentioned above while Jeanette English lived in Riyadh the most restrictive city in Saudi Arabia where women who by Shariah law and culture are considered to be the weaker sex Jeanette candidly unmask a unique experience which exposes the enigmatic issues affecting Saudi women Their struggle for equality and freedom of choice is a hot topic with an accelerating interest in the subject of male dominance over them stirring an intrinsic controversy over which many Westerners are confused This is a timely book offering extraordinary insight into the real Saudi woman before during and after the author s year in Riyadh which will turn a few cynical heads toward understanding the issues and challenges in their achieving fair treatment particularly now in the 21st century Forced to wear the hijab Jeanette read the Quran and in learning about Islam and talking with Saudi women was able to look behind the veil which many Westerners can only read about Most authors and journalists who write on this subject have not lived her experience Cities' Identity Through

Architecture and Arts Yasser Mahgoub, Nicola Cavalagli, Antonella Versaci, Hocine Bougdah, Marta Serra-Permanyer, 2020-11-28 This book covers a broad range of topics relating to architecture and urban design such as the conservation of cities culture and identity through design and planning processes various ideologies and approaches to achieving more sustainable cities while retaining their identities and strategies to help cities advertise themselves on the global market Every city has its own unique identity which is revealed through its physical and visual form It is seen through the eyes of its inhabitants and visitors and is where their collective memories are shaped In turn these factors affect tourism education culture economic prosperity in addition to other aspects making a city s identity one of its main assets Cities identities are constructed and developed over time and are constantly evolving physically culturally and sociologically This book explains how architecture and the arts can embody the historical cultural and economic characteristics of the city It also demonstrates how cities memories play a vital role in preserving their physical and nonphysical heritage Furthermore it examines the transformation of cities and urban cultures and investigates the various new approaches developed in contemporary arts and architecture Given its scope the book is a valuable resource for a variety of readers including students educators researchers and practitioners in the fields of city planning urban design architecture and the arts Islamic

Heritage Architecture and Art II G Passerini, 2018-07-18 Papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Islamic Heritage Architecture and Art are contained in this volume The conference attracted important research highlighting the significance of Islamic heritage architecture and art to the world and its influence across different regions The papers deal with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausolea citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society Traditional architecture and urban environment in most Islamic countries is now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning As a consequence many regions are losing their identity The included studies review these developments in the light of what classical Islamic urban design and architecture has to offer modern society Research contained in this book provides an analysis of the materials employed and the types of structural elements used particularly those unique to Islamic architecture Associated topics covered include music textiles and ceramics which are essential parts of the architectural fabric Also looked at are construction materials including not only stone and brick but also more perishable materials like adobe wood and reeds The preservation of heritage features also requires the development of appropriate conservation techniques in response to the different materials used and the ways structural forms work including under extreme conditions such as earthquakes Academics researchers practitioners and government employees actively involved in the topic of Islamic heritage architecture and art will find this publication of interest The Islamic Utopia Andrew Hammond, 2012-10-05 Will Saudi Arabia join the democratic wave in the Middle East The uprisings and revolutions of the twenty first century have not yet affected the stability of the House of Saud which remains secretive highly repressive and propped up by the West The Islamic Utopia uses a range of sources including first hand reporting and recently released WikiLeaks documents to examine Saudi Arabia in the decade after the 9 11 attacks when King Abdullah s reform agenda took centre stage in public debate It considers Saudi claims of exemption from the democratic demands of the Arab Spring Andrew Hammond argues that for too long Western media and governments have accepted Saudi leaders claims to be a buttress against jihadist Islam and that a new policy is needed towards the House of Saud Passive and Low Energy Architecture Simos Yannas, Arthur Bowen, 2013-10-22 Passive and Low Energy Architecture contains the proceedings of the Second International PLEA Conference held in Crete Greece on June 28 to July 1 1983 The book is organized into four parts as the topics of the conference The first part brings together papers dealing with case studies of individual buildings or groups of buildings completed or to be built and of community planning The case studies cover examples from 13 countries in Europe North and Latin America North Africa the Middle East and Asia The second part contains papers on experimental work and technical developments with passive and low energy systems and components The third section focuses on the ill defined but crucial to designers area of design aids The fourth section centers on implementation and management of these energy systems including topics of international programs education and training of design professionals The book will be useful to energy conscious designers architects engineers and planners in this field of interest The Regional Travel Guide for Mecca Region (Makkah) (Saudi Arabia) YouGuide Ltd, Urban Transport XVI Antonio Pratelli, C.
