Maverick godfather a former killer who dared to do things differently But by taking on Mafia rules and fighting the FBI at the same time it was a battle he could never win It is picking in the FBI building at police headquarters it was kind of stupid You know you re not exactly dealing with the faculty at Harvard Perhaps his biggest mistake was to find the world of civil activism more intoxicating than running a crime family For a while he got away with it He was using civil rights as a shield In my opinion he was the fool Fame would offer Joe Colombo no protection from a failure to obey the most fundamental Mafia principles If he had followed the rules of the mob particularly the mob bosses and stay out of the limelight If he just operated business and bring money he would never had a problem The Mafia Al Cimino,Jo Durden Smith,M.
