John Hamilton Of Donegal 1800-1884:

John Hamilton of Donegal, 1800-1884 Dermot James, 1998 Only a minority of 19th century Irish landlords were benevolent and few treated their tenants with such consideration as did John Hamilton of Donegal who almost bankrupted himself in the process His tenants had good reason to value this humane and progressive proprietor who was well traveled and spoke six languages He kept a journal upon which this book is based recording events on his estate and during his travels around Ireland and on the continent

The Farrells of Donegal Sam Hanna, 2018-12-06 O Farrells Ferrells and others worldwide often ponder their Irish roots This is currently the most comprehensive attempt to explore the origins of one of the largest branches of the Farrells Ferrells It includes 1 400 years of Celtic roots in northwest Ireland Gaelic ancestry linked to St Colum Cille St Columba from c AD 655 400 year old associations with the Ulster Plantation and worldwide migration Those wishing to explore their own Irish family history and genealogy may use the methodology adopted by the author as a template for their own research Almost 1 000 references are detailed representing an invaluable resource to all those researching their Irish and Ulster roots The benefits of DNA testing in family history and genealogy are outlined and the results of the Donegal Farrell Ferrell DNA research are analysed Extensive genealogies of Ulster Farrells Ferrells and associated families from the sixteenth to twenty first centuries have been compiled and this database will assist others research their roots in Donegal Ulster and Ireland

Families of Co. Donegal Ireland Michael C. O'Laughlin, 2001 This work represents the largest compilation of Irish family names and Irish coats of arms ever bound together under one cover Jacket

Technology and the Big House in Ireland, C. 1800-c. 1930 Charles John Thomas Carson, 2009 By the beginning of the nineteenth century over ninety five percent of all the productive land in Ireland was in the hands of Anglo Irish landowners They lived in the big houses some of which still exist today resplendent within their walled estates Many others are now only gaunt ruins silhouetted against somber Irish skies victims of the troubles in the 1920s There is a continuing fascination with the history of the big house in Ireland Much of this interest stems from the Anglo Irish living in places apart in their estates often in remote areas of an undeveloped and hostile land Part of the appeal is in the characters neither wholly English nor Irish who made up this landowning class in Ireland However another part largely ignored until this study is how many of these landowners not only met these challenges but achieved remarkable levels of self sufficiency It was their exploitation of technology that hugely bolstered their status and independence and enabled them to lead an exotic lifestyle in Ireland Although much has been written regarding the social and political history of the Anglo Irish in Ireland little research has been conducted into the practical problems of living there At a time when there were few roads no railways and sailing ships were the unreliable connection with England existence might have been very basic indeed Charles Carson uncovers and explains in simple terms the technologies employed to not only make life bearable but in some case to become a triumph over seemingly impossible odds An appreciation of this background helps to explain the sense of status and independence that emanates from the big house in Ireland until their demise in the late twentieth century

Interdisciplinary investigative methods were used in this work These included extensive archival research of estate papers throughout Ireland fieldwork involving examination and photography of still extant big house technology and the use of published fictional and biographical big house material Much additional insight and suggestions for further research resulted from visits to various big house locations Owners often descendants of the original families or managers and ground staff provided important local knowledge Climbing amongst stored artefacts in cellars barns and subterranean tunnels helped to bring the past alive Something of the ambiance of these explorations informs this book thus helping towards an understanding of the fundamental importance of technology in underpinning the status and independence of the big house in Ireland By examining the range costs and changing nature of the technologies employed this book makes an important contribution to a deeper understanding of life in the big house in Ireland circa 1800 to circa 1930 Brief descriptions accompanied by drawings or photographs are employed to explain the operation limitations and improvements of many of the installations and techniques These include water closets pumps cisterns boilers and firefighting equipment open fires hot air stoves and central heating walled gardens hot walls and beds warm air steam and hot water heating of glasshouses the construction location stocking and use of ice houses and ice daylight enhancement candle oil gas and electric lighting an optical telegraph a church spire engine driven equipment on the estate farm as well as mapping of bogs and their reclamation by wooden railways Technology and the Big House in Ireland c 1800 c 1930 is an important reference source for Irish study groups worldwide

Peasant Petitions R. Houston, 2014-07-02 This book examines the structures and texture of rural social relationships using one type of document found in abundance over all the four component parts of Britain and Ireland petitions from tenants to their landlords The book offers unexpected angles on many aspects of society and economy on estates in the 17th and 18th centuries

Palgrave Advances in Irish History M. McAuliffe, K. O'Donnell, L. Lane, 2009-04-27 This book provides a much needed historiographical overview of modern Irish History which is often written mainly from a socio political perspective This guide offers a comprehensive account of Irish History in its manifold aspects such as family famine labour institutional women cultural art identity and migration histories

The End of Outrage Breandán Mac Suibhne, 2017 Tells the absorbing story of post famine Donegal the Molly Maguires a secret society who had set themselves up against the exploitation of the rural poor and Patrick McGlynn an avaricious schoolmaster who turned informer on them availing of hunger disease debt hardship and death to expand his holding at the expense of his neighbours

Ireland of the Welcomes, 1998 The Church of Ireland in Victorian Dublin John Crawford, 2005 The Church of Ireland has received a considerable amount of attention recently from nineteenth century historians but few have looked at it from the perspective of the local community as has been the case with recent work by historians in Britain This study of the church in Victorian Dublin begins with a survey of the development of the parishes and the building of churches It examines the devotional life and pastoral concerns of the laity and the clergy and their changing roles An analysis of churchgoing trends is included and comparison is made with trends in England and Scotland The study includes developments in church architecture the layout of church buildings and the content of church services This is set in the context of the demographic changes and the overall decline in the church's population in Dublin While the study addresses the religious rivalry which existed between Catholics and Protestants it also includes consideration of the laity's role in the management of the day to day life of the local church community The social and educational backgrounds of the clergy are discussed and an account is given of their training and the changing process by which they were appointed to parishes The study suggests that trends in the Church of Ireland in Dublin at the time were not dissimilar to the Church of England and both churches experienced a religious boom in the period However disestablishment in 1870 and the church's minority status gave the Church of Ireland a distinctive social and religious flavour

The Municipal Revolution in Ireland Matthew Potter, 2011 However after Independence the progress of the municipal revolution was stifled by the establishment of an over centralised administrative machine that belittled the role of cities and towns in Irish life in favour of the rural and agricultural

The Derry Anthology Seán McMahon, 2002 This anthology presents a collection of writing about Derry City from earliest times to the 21st century and includes extracts from fiction history poetry letters and travel writing The writers include John Wesley William Thackeray Ben Kiely Seamus Heaney Michael Foley and others

Irish Economic and Social History, 1999

The Kirwans of Castlehacket, Co. Galway Ronan Lynch, 2006 This book is a revealing study of the cultural boundaries between the Kirwan family of Castlehacket Co Galway and their tenants The Kirwans the only family among the merchant tribes of Galway to lay claim to Irish ancestry were atypical landlords whose generosity and sense of justice was recorded in song and story This study drawing on local history folklore and literature charts the rise of the family from their 16th century merchant origins through the religious conflicts of the 19th century to their eventual demise after the Civil War and examines how the family wove themselves into the mythology of Knockma the fairy hill at the centre of their north Galway estate through their horseracing exploits The study pays close attention to religious identity drawing on local folklore to show that the bonds between landlord and tenant unravelled as the family grew close to Protestant evangelists in the 19th century

St. Anne's Joan Ussher Sharkey, 2002

Charles Dickens's Ireland Charles Dickens, Jim Cooke (M. Litt.), 1999

Red-headed Rebel Hilary Pyle, 1998 Poet and mystic of the Irish cultural renaissance of the early 20th century Susan Mitchell was a friend of Lily Yeats Constance Markiewicz and Seamas O Sullivan Her name was linked in Dublin with that of painter and mystic AE Raised by her unionist aunts in Dublin she rebelled against the privileged Protestant society in which she was reared to become a journalist on Plunkett's far sighted publications The Irish Homestead and The Irish Statesman at a time when Home Rule was imminent Objective despite her Republican views she lampooned contemporary politics and the literary world alike Her satirical commentary provides essential reading for a background to the present situation in Northern Ireland W & R Jacob Séamas Ó Maitiú, 2001 Synonymous with Dublin biscuit making is the name of W R Jacob This the first history of the enterprise traces the origin of the Jacob family in Ireland the foundation and development of the firm and its expansion overseas The Dublin factory s dramatic involvement in the 1913 lock out is recounted as is its pivotal role in the 1916 Rising in material never before published Jacob s impact on the social and economical life of Dublin and indeed further afield is highlighted as its famous biscuits were and still are found in shops and on tea tables in every corner of Ireland and abroad Royal Roots, Republican Inheritance Susan Hood, 2002 This is the absorbing story of the Office of Arms Ireland s heraldic authority and the oldest Office of State Founded in 1552 and derived from an earlier medieval heraldry based on the traditions of sovereigns and members of the nobility today the Office has a much wider relevance providing heraldic services for Irish people and institutions throughout the world This book is the history of its remarkable survival during the last 150 years when it bridged the transition from Crown Government to Republican State The Politics and Relationships of

Kathleen Lynn Marie Mulholland, 2002 Biography of a social activist suffragist and militant Irish Republican Landlords, Tenants, Famine Desmond Norton, 2006 Desmond Norton s fascinating study of the relationships between landlords and tenants in Ireland during the Great Famine period of the 1840s is principally based on a large uncatalogued archive in private ownership of the Stewart and Kincaid land agents Much of the information from this unique resource is being published for the first time Norton challenges existing assumptions about landlord tenant relations emigration and land improvement during the famine decade Messrs Stewart and Kincaid was a firm of land agents based in Dublin and most of the correspondence was addressed to its office there The letters in the archive relate mainly to the estates managed by the firm during the 1840s and give a rounded picture of life in the Irish countryside during the period They provide evidence of some humane and caring landlords the activities of middlemen suffering tenants and emigration in a large number of locations including Sligo and Roscommon Clare and Limerick Kilkenny Carlow and Westmeath Many famous families appear such as the Pakenhams and Ponsonbys well known historical figures such as Lord Palmerston who was foreign secretary and prime minister as well as being a landlord in Sligo and Dublin The evidence of the Stewart and Kincaid archives is complemented by research into other family archives and from the author s meetings with descendants of many of the families discussed Landlords Tenants Famine is an immensely important contribution to scholarship on the Great Famine and to nineteenth century Irish economic history
