Unsung Legacies of Educators and Events in African American Education Andrea D. Lewis, Nicole A. Taylor, 2019-01-07
This book describes the contributions of twenty two educators and events that have shaped the field of education often receiving little to no public recognition including Edmonia Goddell Highgate Nannie Helen Burroughs Selena Sloan Butler Alonzo Aristotle Crim Sabbath Schools and African American Boarding Schools These individuals and events have established and sustained education in communities across the United States This book will help foster a renewed sense of importance both for those considering teaching and for teachers in classrooms across the country Afrocentricity and the Academy James L. Conyers, Jr., 2015-09-01 Afrocentricity is a philosophical and theoretical perspective that emphasizes the study of Africans as subjects not as objects and is opposed to perspectives that attempt to marginalize African thought and experience Afrocentricity became popular in the 1980s as scores of African American and African scholars adopted an Afrocentric orientation to information The editor of this collection argues that as scholars embark upon the 21st century they can no longer be myopic in their perceptions and analyses of race The seventeen essays examine a wide range of variations on the Afrocentric paradigm in the areas of history literature political science philosophy economics women's studies cultural studies ethnic studies and social policy The essays written by professors librarians students and others in higher education who have embraced the Afrocentric perspective are divided into four sections Pedagogy and Implementation Theoretical Assessment Critical Analysis and Pan Africanist Thought John Henrik Clarke and the Power of Africana History Ahati N. N. Toure, 2009 In the late 1960s through the late 1980s the late John Henrik Clarke 1915-1998 was one of the foremost architects of the emerging discipline of Africana Studies Africology as Professor of African World History in the Department of Black and Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College of the City University of New York and as the Carter G Woodson Distinguished Visiting Professor of African History at Cornell University's Africana Studies and Research Center The study explores Clarke's development and conceptualization of African World History by examining his intellectual influences and training his approach to teaching African World History his notions regarding Publisher's website Bilad Al-Sudan: Islam, Africa and Afrocentricity Wesley Muhammad, 2016-12-30 Bilad al Sudan is a companion volume to Black Arabia and the African Origin of Islam A collection of distinct essays written since the publication of Black Arabia Bilad al Sudan offers Further evidence that the Arabs of the first Muslim community of 7th century Arabia were an Africoid people A correction to the mistaken belief that the pre Islamic Arabs were white and racist as seen by their alleged treatment of Bilal Companion of the Prophet Muhammad A refutation of recent Muslim attempts to defend the White Supremacist paradigm in Islam A critical analysis of Afrocentric discourse on Islam An introduction to a new paradigm Ma atic Islam Dr Wesley Muhammad is an internationally recognized scholar of Islam and author of several books He holds a Bachelors Degree in Religious Studies from Morehouse College as well as a Masters Degree and PhD in Islamic Studies from the University of Michigan Dr Muhammad is currently a scholarly aide to The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present: O-T Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from O to T that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century

100 Greatest African Americans Molefi Kete Asante, 2010-06-28 Since 1619 when Africans first came ashore in the swampy Chesapeake region of Virginia there have been many individuals whose achievements or strength of character in the face of monumental hardships have called attention to the genius of the African American people This book attempts to distill from many wonderful possibilities the 100 most outstanding examples of greatness Pioneering scholar of African American Studies Molefi Kete Asante has used four criteria in his selection the individual s significance in the general progress of African Americans toward full equality in the American social and political system self sacrifice and the demonstration of risk for the collective good unusual will and determination in the face of the greatest danger or against the most stubborn odds and personal achievement that reveals the best qualities of the African American people In adopting these criteria Professor Asante has sought to steer away from the usual standards of popular culture which often elevates the most popular the wealthiest or the most photogenic to the cult of celebrity The individuals in this book examples of lasting greatness as opposed to the ephemeral glare of celebrity fame come from four centuries of African American history Each entry includes brief biographical information relevant dates an assessment of the individual s place in African American history with particular reference to a historical timeline and a discussion of his or her unique impact on American society Numerous pictures and illustrations will accompany the articles This superb reference work will complement any library and be of special interest to students and scholars of American and African American history

Harlem Renaissance Lives from the African American National Biography Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2009 The Harlem Renaissance is the best known and most widely studied cultural movement in African American history Now in Harlem Renaissance Lives esteemed scholars Henry Louis Gates Jr and Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham have selected 300 key biographical entries culled from the eight volume African American National Biography providing an authoritative who s who of this seminal period Here readers will find engagingly written and authoritative articles on notable African Americans who made significant contributions to literature drama music visual art or dance including such central figures as poet Langston Hughes novelist Zora Neale Hurston aviator Bessie Coleman blues singer Ma Rainey artist Romare Bearden dancer Josephine Baker jazzman Louis Armstrong and the intellectual giant W E B Du Bois Also included are biographies of people like the Scottsboro Boys who were not active within the movement but who nonetheless profoundly affected the artistic and political statements that came from Harlem Renaissance figures The volume will also feature a preface by the editors an introductory essay by historian Cary D Wintz and 75 illustrations Dr. John Henrik Clarke Anna Swanston,2003 An important work for helping young Indigenous African Descendants and the world at large with understanding the importance of knowing your history taking pride in your personal worth and abilities and persevering toward your desired aims in life in spite of the obstacles

Transcendence and the Africana Literary Enterprise Christel N. Temple,2017-11-22 Africana literary critic and cultural theory scholar Christel N Temple whose groundbreaking books Literary Pan Africanism History Contexts and Criticism 2005 and Literary Spaces Introduction to Comparative Black Literature 2007 have been some of the most influential models of contemporary Africana Studies based literary criticism responds to the demand for a core disciplinary source that comprehensively defines and models literary praxis from the vantage point of Africana Studies This highly anticipated seminal study finally institutionalizes the discipline s literary enterprise Framing the concept of transcendence she covers over a dozen traditional African American works in an original and thought provoking analysis that places canonical approaches in enlightened discourse with Africana studies reader response priorities This study makes traditional literature come alive in conversation with topics of masculinity womanism Black Lives Matter humor Pan Africanism transnationalism worldview the subject place of Africa cultural mythology hero dynamics Black psychology demographics history Black liberation theology eulogy cultural memory Afro futurism the Kemetic principle of Maat social justice rap and hip hop Diaspora and performance Scholars now have a focused Africana Studies text for both introductory and advanced literature courses to capture the power of the African American literary canon while modeling the most dynamic practical applications of humanities to social science practices Encyclopedia of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante,Ama Mazama,2005 In the
