Conceptualist Landscapes Paul Cooper,2014-07-07 Conceptual gardens depend on inspiration which is the result of an exhaustive intellectual process The starting point is an IDEA or stimulus that pushes the design along rather than observing more conventional styles whether classical of modernist into which idea or relationships are fitted Horticultural considerations architectural or aesthetic doctrines and practically based problem solving are either abandoned or regarded as a means to an end rather than the end in itself Idea driven design therefore cannot be taught by a rule of thumb methodology So the way to design a conceptualist garden is not the theme of this book nor does it contain of the peg solutions for garden and landscape designers Rather it encourages student and professional designers to think further towards their designed solutions

Quiet Gardens Susan Bowden-Pickstock,2009-06-11 Quiet Gardens is an exploration of horticulture as a medium for meaning and for spirituality In an increasingly secular age when absolute values are taboo political correctness reigns supreme and our lives orbit Planet Consumer we need experiences to balance the emphasis on material acquisitions Internationally tensions are running high in the global village and environmental issues are at the top of the agenda The shadow of terrorism emphasises ideological differences but it also draws together those living underneath it inter faith and ecological conversations have become necessities rather than luxuries In this climate with the yearning for experience and our new understanding of collective responsibility the spiritual dimension can flourish but the desire to pursue the spiritual manifests itself not in traditional or institutionalised religion but in new ways This book describes a journey that seeks to re investigate mankind s relationship with nature and through this an understanding of what is spiritual The Bible begins with the story of creation and of God walking with the man and the woman in the garden in the cool of the day For many enjoying and or making a garden is both a connection with the wider environment and a link to that which is beyond ourselves and the book includes a section on the Christian charity the Quet Garden Trust featuring some of its unusual and remarkable gardens From conversations with three leading garden thinkers and creators Charles Jencks Beth Chatto and Sir Roy Strong the journey takes us on a path of exploration and discovery via Buddhist Ba hai and Islamic gardens to the making of an inter faith garden which won a medal at the Chelsea Flower Show It shows us that the relationship between meaning spirituality and horticulture transcends cultural and religious differences and offers hope for the future Garden and Landscape Anthony Du Gard Pasley,2013-11-15 Garden and landscape is written for students and serious gardeners in a personal characteristically forthright style It contains the distilled experience of a lifetime working in landscape and particularly in gardens The book emphasizes the need of clients and the solution for many problems faced by garden owners and by the designers contracted to find the remedies Principles and comments are amplified with the author s own line drawings and layouts further enhanced with many photographs Foreword by John Brookes Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Professional and Practical Considerations for Landscape Design Steven L. Cantor,2020 Drawing on decades of professional practice and teaching experience Steven L Cantor s Professional and Practical Considerations for Landscape Design explains the field of landscape architecture outlining with authority how to turn drawings of designs into creative purposeful and striking landscapes and landforms in today s world This comprehensive guide consists of everything a young professional might encounter from conception through final project archiving ensuring readers have both the tools necessary to keep up with advancements in the field and the practical business knowledge to build life long partnerships Each of the book s concise chapters emphasize a specific aspect of landscape architecture practice from the administration of designs for contracts areas of practice human resources marketing construction materials sustainability and ethics Each chapter is written in a style that best suits the material Alongside detailed definitions and practical do s and don ts are 30 complex sample problems ranging in difficulty for both individuals and groups An array of original photographs and clear examples in both black and white and color articulate standards and inspire future possibilities featuring the work of Vicky Chan founder of Avoid Obvious Architects and Richard Alomar Associate Professor of Landscape Architecture at Rutgers and co founder of New York Urban Sketchers By combining the author s unique depth of knowledge with real world case studies from America Asia and Europe Professional and Practical Considerations for Landscape Design is an up to date resource for every level of reader from students in landscape architecture programs to professionals working in public or private practice engineering consulting or contracting The Writers Directory ,2004 100 20th-Century Gardens and Landscapes Twentieth Century Society,2020-04-01 A showcase of Britain s most extraordinary gardens and landscapes from the twentieth century to present day 100 20th Century Gardens and Landscapes highlights the evolution of gardens and landscapes over the past century tracing how these distinctive creations complemented buildings of their period Entries in this book are grouped in chronological periods documenting changing styles and techniques in a visual timeline The examples chosen take the story from the Arts and Crafts garden and the garden city through the landscapes created for mid century housing and the new towns to the low maintenance gardens of the 1980s and contemporary trends for community and wildlife gardens Designed landscapes were often integral to the conception of twentieth century developments the inclusion of a handful of particularly successful landscapes for memorial gardens offices industry transport and parks demonstrate a changing attitude to public green space during the century and its increasing importance as private gardens have become ever smaller Designers and architects such as Piet Oudolf Charles Jencks Frederick Gibberd Geoffrey Jellicoe Vita Sackville West and Gertrude Jekyll are all featured alongside more detailed essays on the history of gardens planting styles the importance of modern landscapes and the career of Geoffrey Jellicoe The text is written by architectural landscape and garden historians including Elain Harwood Barbara Simms and Alan Powers Beautifully illustrated throughout with photography illustrations and garden plans this book is ideal for gardeners and landscape lovers alike
