John McCormick, Landscapes John McCormick, 2001 Landscape Painting Mitchell Albala, 2011-11-15 Because nature is so expansive and complex so varied in its range of light landscape painters often have to look further and more deeply to find form and structure value patterns and an organized arrangement of shapes In Landscape Painting Mitchell Albala shares his concepts and practices for translating nature's grandeur complexity and color dynamics into convincing representations of space and light Concise practical and inspirational Landscape Painting focuses on the greatest challenges for the landscape artist such as Simplification and Massing Learn to reduce nature's complexity by looking beneath the surface of a subject to discover the form's basic masses and shapes Color and Light Explore color theory as it specifically applies to the landscape and learn the various strategies painters use to capture the illusion of natural light Selection and Composition Learn to select wisely from nature's vast panorama Albala shows you the essential cues to look for and how to find the most promising subject from a world of possibilities The lessons in Landscape Painting based on observation rather than imitation and applicable to both plein air and studio practice are accompanied by painting examples demonstrations photographs and diagrams Illustrations draw from the work of more than 40 contemporary artists and such masters of landscape painting as John Constable Sanford Gifford and Claude Monet Based on Albala's 25 years of experience and the proven methods taught at his successful plein air workshops this in depth guide to all aspects of landscape painting is a must have for anyone getting started in the genre as well as more experienced practitioners who want to hone their skills or learn new perspectives The New Communications Landscape Anura Goonasekera, Jan Servaes, Georgette Wang, 2003-09-02 New Communications Landscape explores the theories of media globalization with emphasis on the areas of cultural and local television markets It focuses on the industry content and strategy audience policy and future research The People's Own Landscape Scott Moranda, 2014-01-21 East Germany's Socialist Unity Party aimed to placate a public well aware of the higher standards of living enjoyed elsewhere by encouraging them to participate in outdoor activities and take vacations in the countryside Scott Moranda considers East Germany's rural landscapes from the perspective of both technical experts landscape architects biologists and physicians who hoped to dictate how vacationers interacted with nature and the vacationers themselves whose outdoor experience shaped their understanding of environmental change As authorities eliminated traditional tourist and nature conservation organizations dissident conservationists demanded better protection of natural spaces At the same time many East Germans shared their government's expectations for economic development that had real consequences for the land By the 1980s environmentalists saw themselves as outsiders struggling against the state and a public that had embraced mainstream ideas about limitless economic growth and material pleasures The Protected Landscape Approach Jessica Brown, Nora J. Criticism of Society in the English Novel Between the Wars Hena Maes-Jelinek, 2013-05-22 The main concern of this study is the artist's vision of society its major theme is the relation between the individual and society resulting from the impact of social and political upheavals on individual life By criticism of society I mean the novelist's awareness of the social reality and of the individual's response to it the writers I deal with all proved alive to the changes that were taking place in English society between the two World Wars Though the social attitudes of the inter war years as well as the writers response to them were shaped by lasting and complex influences such as trends in philosophy and science the two Wars stand out as determining factors in the development of the novel the consequences of the First were explored by most writers in the Twenties whereas in the following decade the novelists felt compelled to voice the anxiety aroused by the threat of another conflict and to warn against its possible effects After the First World War many writers felt keenly the social disruption the old standards which were thought to have made this suicidal War possible were distrusted the code of behaviour and the moral values of the older generation were openly criticized for having led to bankruptcy Disparagement of authority increased the individual's sense of isolation his insecurity his disgust or fear Even the search for pleasure so widely satirized in the Twenties was the expression of a cynicism born of despair The ensuing disengagement of the individual from his environment became a major theme in the novel his isolation was at once a cause for resentment and the source of his fierce individualism
