Bloodroot Robert F. Jones, 2015-07-21 From the acclaimed author of Blood Sport and Blood Tide comes another impressing original work of twisted fiction In the beginning was the Oak its hungry roots reaching deep into the earth its gnarled limbs searching the distant heavens Two hundred years ago Obediah Magrute worshipped the Oak and died violently beneath it feeding it with his blood and bone shouting his chilling curse to the skies Now Laura and Mark Avery have come to the bustling little Vermont village They have given up their frenetic city life to settle in the old Eldridge Place and to start their family Quiet and quaint the village is nestled among the rolling green hills of Hubley's Gore For centuries the inhabitants of the little farming village had tilled the soil eking out a living from the harsh land bound together by time by ties of kinship by their battle against the savage elements and by the dark secret in their midst Silent supreme it held sway over them Buried deep in the soil in the heart of the dense forest in the soul of the living wood it commanded the very elements It demanded obedience and unholy worship and sacrifice Laura and Mark are not superstitious though They find the local legends charming But as the seasons turn and the full moon rises people die in Hubley's Gore in thrall to an ancient terrible power Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and
