Fistful Of Colours:

Reading the Malay World Rick Hosking, 2010 This collection of essays is the culmination of a symposium on the representation of Malays and Malay culture in Singaporean and Malaysian literature in English held in Universiti Putra Malaysia UPM The symposium with the theme Reading the Malay World through Singaporean and Malaysian Texts in English brought together experts from the fields of literature language and linguistics to spotlight the ways in which Malays and Malay culture are captured in the literary imagination of Singaporean and Malaysian writers writing in English The symposium highlighted how Malays and Malay culture are imagined and promoted through literature and also explored Malayness from linguistic and cultural perspectives Issues of concern addressed here include the construction of the Malays in Singaporean and Malaysian literature in English within orientalist or colonialist discourses of the East the influence of English on the ways that Malays and Malay culture are represented how Malay identity is defined and the positioning of the Malays in literary imaginations and social realities Fistful of Colours Suchen Christine Lim, 2017 Transitive Cultures

Christopher B. Patterson, 2018-04-02 Texts written by Southeast Asian migrants have often been read taught and studied under the label of multicultural literature But what if the ideology of multiculturalism with its emphasis on authenticity and identifiable cultural difference is precisely what this literature resists Transitive Cultures offers a new perspective on transpacific Anglophone literature revealing how these chameleonic writers enact a variety of hybrid transnational identities and intimacies Examining literature from Malaysia Singapore and the Philippines as well as from Southeast Asian migrants in Canada Hawaii and the U S mainland this book considers how these authors use English strategically as a means for building interethnic alliances and critiquing ruling power structures in both Southeast Asia and North America Uncovering a wealth of texts from queer migrants those who resist ethnic stereotypes and those who feel few ties to their ostensible homelands Transitive Cultures challenges conventional expectations regarding diaspora and minority writers Virtual Lotus Teri Shaffer Yamada, 2002 This winning collection of short stories poignantly illustrates contemporary life in Southeast Asia

Writing Singapore Shirley Geok-lin Lim, Philip Holden, Angelia Poon, 2009-01-01 A comprehensive historical anthology of English language literary works from Singapore It attempts to place the texts that have imagined the territory and the people who are now recognizably Singaporean in a historical narrative to be read studied critiqued and treasured Writing the South Seas Brian C. Bernards, 2016-01-01 Postcolonial literature about the South Seas or Nanyang examines the history of Chinese migration localization and interethnic exchange in Southeast Asia where Sinophone settler cultures evolved independently by adapting to their New World and mingling with native cultures Writing the South Seas explains why Nanyang encounters neglected by most literary histories should be considered crucial to the national literatures of China and Southeast Asia Post-Colonial and African American Women's Writing Gina Wisker, 2017-03-04 This accessible and unusually wide ranging book is essential reading for anyone interested in postcolonial and African American women's writing

It provides a valuable gender and culture inflected critical introduction to well established women writers Toni Morrison Alice Walker Margaret Atwood Suniti Namjoshi Bessie Head and others from the U S A India Africa Britain Australia New Zealand and introduces emergent writers from South East Asia Cyprus and Oceania Engaging with and clarifying contested critical areas of feminism and the postcolonial exploring historical background and cultural context economic political and psychoanalytic influences on gendered experience it provides a cohesive discussion of key issues such as cultural and gendered identity motherhood mothertongue language relationships women s economic constraints and sexual politics

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home and belonging Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined including Swettenham Bird Maugham Burgess and Thumboo This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore born authors based outside their countries of origin The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social political and cultural meanings As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history

Alterities in Asia Leong Yew, 2010-11-18 This book investigates the politics of identity in Asia and explores how different groups of people inside and outside Asia have attempted to relate to the alterity of the places and cultures in the region through various modes literary and filmic representation scholarly knowledge and so on and at different points in time Although coming from different perspectives like literary criticism film studies geography cultural history and political science the contributors collectively argue that Asian otherness is more than the dialectical interplay between the Western self and one of its many others and more than just the Orientalist discourse writ large Rather they demonstrate the existence of multiple levels of inter Asian and intercultural contact and consciousness that both subvert as much as they consolidate the dominant Western Core Asian periphery framework that structures what the mainstream assumes to be knowledge of Asia With chapters covering a wealth of topics from Korea and its Cold War history to Australia s Asian identity crisis this book will be of huge interest to anyone interested in critical Asian studies Asian ethnicity postcolonialism and Asia cultural studies Leong Yew is an Assistant

Professor in the University Scholars Programme National University of Singapore He is the author of The Disjunctive Empire of International Relations 2003 Chapters on Asia: Selected papers from the Lee Kong Chian Research Fellowship (2019) Emma Harper, Tam Ong Y-Lynn, Marc Sebastian Rerceretrnam, Yosuke Watanabe, 2020-03-31 Chapters on Asia features selected papers written by scholars who have been awarded the National Library's Lee Kong Chian Research Fellowship These works examine the history and heritage of Singapore and the region and contain fresh research based on materials and resources from the collections of the National Library and National Archives of Singapore Race and Multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore Daniel P.S. Goh, Matilda Gabrielpillai, Philip Holden, Gaik Cheng Khoo, 2009-06-12 This book explores race and multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore from a range of different disciplinary perspectives showing how race and multiculturalism are represented how multiculturalism works out in practice and how attitudes towards race and multiculturalism and multicultural practices have developed over time Going beyond existing studies which concentrate on the politics and public aspects of multiculturalism this book burrows deeper into the cultural underpinnings of multicultural politics relating the subject to the theoretical angles of cultural studies and post colonial theory and discussing a range of empirical examples drawn from extensive original research covering diverse practices such as films weblogs music subcultures art policy discourse textbooks novels poetry which demonstrate overall how the identity politics of race and intercultural interaction are being shaped today It concentrates on two key Asian countries particularly noted for their relatively successful record in managing ethnic differences at a time when many fast developing Asian countries increasingly have to come to terms with cultural pluralism and migrant diversity The Siege Of Venus M. Aishvarya, 2014-01-13 Venus is the goddess of love Love when it strikes it does not make sound but make the person mad Naba was out celebrating on the festival of Holi until he was hit by a coloured balloon thrown by a girl This hit turned his life The Gifted words Manish Kumar, 2020-12-01 Sneha's father a librarian returns to his friend in Mumbai to live What was left of his life A disease was soon to take him away from his family But his bigger concern was sneha's suffering His last wish had been to see her healthy and his family secure Prince and Sneha met each other by chance and venture into an unexpected journey But before the beginning of their life They have to face death Under the circumstances will their love be ever accepted A father wishes nothing but for his daughter to find a man who will take care of her just as he did Will prince prove to be that man Writing Asia Li Sui Gwee, 2009 Tenggara, 2002 Cincinnati Magazine, 1984-08 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Puppetry in Dementia Care Karrie Marshall, 2013-07-15 This book demonstrates how puppetry and associated art forms such as singing and story telling can be used to nurture and support connections with people with dementia Strategies for using puppetry in daily care are suggested and step by step instructions for making the puppets are included The Nonstop Color Garden Nellie Neal, 2014-12-30 Your garden can
