Five Stories Of Ferrara:

Five Stories of Ferrara Giorgio Bassani, 1971 The main theme of Giorgio Bassani's novels and short stories which have earned him wide acclaim outside Italy has been the advent of anti-Semitism in the provincial Italian city of Ferrara during World War II Earlier he had a successful career as an editor with a major publishing house being credited with helping to bring to public notice The Leopard by Tomasi Lampedusa Bassani edited a literary magazine and was director of the Italian radio television network His first collection of short pieces was A City on the Plain written under the pseudonym Giacomo Marchi His volumes of poems were finally collected and published in 1963 The stories and novels that were to make him famous abroad began to appear in the 1950s They include A Prospect of Ferrara 1960 and The Gold Rimmed Spectacles 1960 A film version of The Garden of the Finzi Continis 1962 by Vittorio De Sica has become a public television classic The Novel of Ferrara Giorgio Bassani, 2018-10-16 Bassani's six classic books collected for the first time in English as the epic masterwork they were intended to be Set in the northern Italian town of Ferrara before during and after the Second World War The Novel of Ferrara brings together Bassani's six classic books fully revised as a single volume by the author at the end of his life Within the Walls The Gold Rimmed Spectacles The Garden of the Finzi Continis Behind the Door The Heron and The Smell of Hay These interlocking stories present a fully rounded world of unforgettable characters memorializing not only the Ferrarese people but the city itself which assumes a character and a voice deeply inflected by the Jewish community to which the narrator belongs Exquisite from his boyhood Ferrara and the families he knew Bassani has carved out a corner of Italy that rises above regionalism with fiction that can stand alongside the most lingering written in Europe to day The New York Times Five Stories of Ferrara. Translated from the Italian by William Weaver Giorgio Bassani, 1971

Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 Daniel R. Schwarz, 2018-04-30 An exploration of the modern European novel from a renowned English literature scholar Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 is an engaging in depth examination of the evolution of the modern European novel Written in Daniel R Schwarz's precise and highly readable style this critical study offers compelling discussions on a wide range of major works since 1900 and examines recurring themes within the context of significant historical events including both World Wars and the Holocaust The author cites important developments in the evolution of the modern novel and explores how these paradigmatic works of fiction reflect intellectual and cultural history including developments in painting and cinema Schwarz focuses on narrative complexity thematic subtlety and formal originality as well as how novels render historical events and cultural developments Discussing major works by Proust Camus Mann Kafka Grass di Lampedusa Bassani Kertesz Pamuk Kundera Saramago Muller and Ferrante Schwarz explores how these often experimental masterworks pay homage to the their major predecessors discussed in Schwarz s ground breaking Reading the European Novel to 1900 even while proposing radical departures from realism in their approach to time and space their testing the limits of language and their innovative ways of rendering the human psyche Written for teachers and students by a highly acclaimed scholar and including valuable study questions Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 offers a guide for a deeper understanding of how these original modern masters respond to both the past and present

The Document Within the Walls Guia Risari,1999 Giorgio Bassani is an Italian Jewish writer from Ferrara famous largely for The Garden of the Finzi Contini The Golden Rimmed Eye Glasses and other novels brought together in Il Romanzo di Ferrara 1980 In this monumental work Bassani describes the life of the Italian Jews under Fascism Bassani may be seen as not just a fictional writer but as a witness of persecution of Jews under Fascism his Romance is not so much a novel but a multifaceted document on Jewish life in the peninsular This volume takes into account a close reading of Bassani literary theories on witnessing the Shoa and the historical debate on Italian discriminatory politics The book is thus both literary criticism and an analysis of anti Semitism and Jewish assimilation in Italy The Exile Into Eternity Douglas Radcliff-Umstead,1987 This book examines the literary world created by Giorgio Bassani in the collected volume of his narrative works Il romanzo de Ferrara The Romance of Ferrara 1974 The first to follow Bassani s intellectual development from the time of his youth this critical study also offers a close look at the individual works including his masterpiece Il giardino dei Finzi Contini The Garden of the Finzi Continis Prisoners of Hope Henry Stuart Hughes,1996-02 The eminent cultural historian H Stuart Hughes examines the works of Italo Svevo Alberto Moravia Carlo Levi Primo Levi Natalia Ginzburg and Giorgio Bassani six Italian prose writers of Jewish or part Jewish origin and gracefully shows how these writers combine in various measures their ancestral Jewish heritage with recent experiences of antisemitic persecution The Fire Within Elena Borelli,2014-04-11 Desire for love desire for knowledge desire to possess desire to desire and to be desired our life is shaped by what we want and by our efforts to achieve it Hailed by philosophers and psychoanalysts as the core of human identity desire informs not only our actions but also our dreams and hopes and their sublimation into art and literature This collection of essays explores how desire is portrayed in modern and contemporary Italian literature by analysing some of the most interesting literary figures of the last two centuries The authors of this collection approach desire from various perspectives psychoanalytical sociological political and semiotic in order to show that desire albeit at times not explicitly mentioned pervades the literary works of modern and contemporary Italy either as a central theme or as the secret motor of the narrative Through the fil rouge of desire the essays of this collection highlight the international dimension of Italian literature establishing a connection between Italian authors and the major theoretical works of the last two centuries As the notion of desire as represented in literary texts is informed by psychoanalytical and philosophical concepts that operate across the boundaries of nationality and language modernists and scholars of Comparative Literature will find the papers in this book of considerable interest

Vengeance of the Victim Marilyn Schneider, 1986 Vengeance of the Victim was first published in 1986 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions More profoundly than any documentary record the collected fiction of Giorgio Bassani Il Romanzo di Ferrara captures a very particular and powerful historical reality Italian Jewish life under Fascism especially between the passage of the so called racial laws in 1938 and the end of World War II Set primarily in the provincial city of Ferrara Bassani's narratives interweave themes of death victimization betrayal survival and artistic production His best known novel The Garden of the Finzi Continis and other works that concentrate on the crucial years of 1938-1945 stand at the center of the Romanzo They are preceded by texts that look back on Jewish life in the liberal era of the Risorgimento and followed by texts set in the liberated democratic society of the postwar years These framing narratives provide a space for remembrance and reflection Marilyn Schneider's aim in Vengeance of the Victim is to uncover the symbolic layers historical spatial topographical mythopoeic allegorical and sexual that five Bassani's texts their richness and ambiguity and in so doing to achieve a full understanding of his work and its representation of the Italian Jewish experience Death and victimization which pervade these texts set in motion a process of artistic renewal that is most fully embodied in the vibrant young Micol Finzi Contini Bassani's textual icon and a victim of the Holocaust Schneider also finds that the narratives especially the late ones pay self reflexive attention to the creation of the text constructing an authorial persona engaged in an existential moral and artistic journey from symbolic death to rebirth It is the writing subject's successful completion of the journey that constitutes the vengeance of the victim

Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

The Schocken Book of Modern Sephardic Literature Ilan Stavans, 2010-02-10 The expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 gave rise to a series of rich diverse diasporas that were interconnected through a common vision and joie de vivre The exodus took these Sephardim to other European countries to North Africa Asia Minor and South America and eventually to the American colonies In each community new literary and artistic forms grew out of the melding of their Judeo Spanish legacy with the cultures of their host countries and that process has continued to the present day This multilingual tradition brought with it both opportunities and challenges that will resonate within any contemporary culture the status of minorities within the larger society the tension between a civil democratic tradition and the anti-Semitism ready to undermine it and the opposing forces of religion and secularism Ilan

Stavans has been described by The Washington Post as Latin America's liveliest and boldest critic and most innovative cultural enthusiast And the Forward calls him a maverick intellectual whose canonical work has already produced a whole array of marvels that are redefining Jewishness This new anthology contains fiction memoirs essays and poetry from twenty eight writers who span more than 150 years Included are Emma Lazarus's legendary poem The New Colossus inscribed on the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty the hypnotizing prose of Greece born Switzerland based Albert Cohen Nobel Prize winner Elias Canetti's ruminations on Europe before World War II Albert Memmi's identity quest as an Arab Jew in France Primo Levi's testimony on the Holocaust and A B Yehoshua's epic stories set in Israel today When read together these explorations offer an astonishingly incisive collective portrait of the other Jews Sephardim who long for la Espa a perdida their lost ancestral home even as they create a vibrant multifaceted literary tradition in exile
