This book, the first single author survey of Zinnemann's career, draws on the author's personal interviews with Zinnemann and reveals the coherence and subtlety of the director's work. The first part of the book deals with Zinnemann's struggle to make films of his own choosing in his own way up to his breakthrough with The Search. The remainder of the text discusses Zinnemann's post-Search films according to major themes including the ravages of war, the sovereignty of selfhood, character as destiny, the outsider in society and politics, and the liberal conscience. A list of Zinnemann's awards is provided. Hampton on Hampton Christopher Hampton, Alistair Owen, 2017-10-19. A lot of my plays begin as comedies and mutate in the course of the evening because my instinct is that you have to welcome the audience in and make sure they're sitting comfortably before you can give them an adequate punch on the jaw. Since the acclaimed London premiere of his first play in 1966, Christopher Hampton has established himself as one of Britain's most prominent and least predictable dramatists. From his best-known play Les Liaisons Dangereuses and its Oscar-winning film version Dangerous Liaisons to personal and critical favourites like Total Eclipse and Tales from Hollywood from his films as writer-director Carrington, Imagining Argentina to his work as screenwriter for hire Mary Reilly, The Quiet American from translations Art to musicals Sunset Boulevard, Hampton eloquently and entertainingly explores his varied career with interviewer Alistair Owen and discusses its recurring theme: the clash of liberal and radical thought exemplified by his most recent play The Talking Cure about the fathers of psychoanalysis Jung and Freud. New York Magazine, 1983-10-31. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010. Thomson's independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal, opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema. Thirty-five years and several editions later, that description still holds true of this expanded work. The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects' lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers' work. In ambition, it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell's various editions of Halliwell's Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell's Who's Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms, categories not included in Thomson's but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief. Additionally, Francophile Richard Roud's edited Cinema: A Critical Dictionary: The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson's but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud. Finally, the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T. Pendergast and S. Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N. Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C. Lyon v
