Oroonoko Susan B. Iwanisziw, 2017-11-30 With the aim of examining the postcolonial applications of Aphra Behn's re entry into the literary canon the editor presents this edition as a collection representing the nexus of very specific articulations of literary cultural and political tropes produced by various writers and adapters from 1695 through 1999 The volume begins with a general introduction It then presents seven 18th century versions of the play and one poem ending with Biyi Bandele's late 20th century drama All texts are supplemented by original paratextual commentary if that is known and prefaced by a brief editorial commentary setting out pertinent biographical bibliographical theatrical and historical context not covered in the general introduction The tradition of stage adaptations of Oroonoko most of them keyed to Southerne's drama rather than to Behn's initial novella clearly shows the responsiveness of this series to studies of authorship gender genre and theatricality class race and especially the British response to the Atlantic slave trade and thus to the enduring relevance of these plays in modern literary and historical scholarship
