nineteenth century German dogmatic theologian Matthias Scheeben the divinely instituted liturgical cult of the Old Testament is replete with soteriological import figuratively signifying not only Christ's saving work and the sacramental worship of the New Testament but also the transformation and elevation of the rational creature by divine grace Scheeben's distinctive use of sacrificial concepts is rooted in his underlying view of sacrifice as primarily perfective directed to the glorification of God and constituted by the conversion of the offering into a pleasing and acceptable aroma via ritual burning with God given fire In Christ and the Altar Fire David Augustine offers an in depth study of Scheeben's soteriology of sacrifice providing a comprehensive analysis of his theology of sacrifice as well as a detailed examination of his sacrificial construal of Christ's person his saving work and its application to others At the heart of this account is Scheeben's understanding of Christ's sacrifice as encompassing his entire paschal mystery passion death resurrection and ascension itself a passage of glorification that serves as the site and source of deifying and latreutic nuptial union As he shows Scheeben employs the altar fire typology to establish a unity of cross and glory that fully maintains the atoning and meritorious significance of Christ's saving death Displaying careful attentiveness to Scheeben's historical context and to the contours of his substantial corpus Augustine also brings Scheeben's biblically inflected dogmatic theology into dialogue with contemporary biblical and theological scholarship showcasing the enduring relevance of his thought

Queer God de Amor Miguel H. Díaz, 2022-09-13 Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan's mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God's erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John's own words as un no sé qu'án I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re-sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel Díaz continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente
