Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley, 2012 Through studying Lawrence Alloway's writings we can trace some of the major shifts in art and cultural values in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s

Art Beyond Representation Barbara Bolt, 2010-10-07 Refuting the assumption that art is a representational practice this book engages with the work of Heidegger Deleuze and Guattari C S Pierce and Judith Butler It argues for a performative relationship between art and artist Drawing on themes as diverse as the work of Cezanne and Francis Bacon the transubstantiation of the Catholic sacrament and Wilde's novel The Picture of Dorian Gray she challenges the metaphor of light as entertainment She suggests that too much light may in fact reveal nothing Finally she asks how does an embodied practice fare within the culture of conceptual art

Sigmar Polke Anne MacPhee, Sigmar Polke, 1996-01-01 Sigmar Polke is a highly exemplary Postmodernist and perhaps one the most indicative of a truly European avant garde culture This book presents a number of critiques which shed light on Polke's otherwise bewildering display of stylistic references apparent changes of allegiance and often unorthodox techniques of production

Your Everyday Art World Lane Relyea, 2013-08-30 A critic takes issue with the art world's romanticizing of networks and participatory projects linking them to the values of a globalized neoliberal economy Over the past twenty years the network has come to dominate the art world affecting not just interaction among art professionals but the very makeup of the art object itself The hierarchical and restrictive structure of the museum has been replaced by temporary projects scattered across the globe staffed by free agents hired on short term contracts viewed by spectators defined by their predisposition to participate and make connections In this book Lane Relyea tries to make sense of these changes describing a general organizational shift in the art world that affects not only material infrastructures but also conceptual categories and the construction of meaning Examining art practice exhibition strategies art criticism and graduate education Relyea aligns the transformation of the art world with the advent of globalization and the neoliberal economy He analyzes the new networked participatory art world hailed by some as inherently democratic in terms of the pressures of part time temp work in a service economy the calculated stockpiling of business contacts and the anxious duty of being a team player at work Relyea calls attention to certain networked forms of art including relational aesthetics multiple or fictive artist identities and bricolaged objects that can be seen to oppose the values of neoliberalism rather than romanticizing and idealizing them Relyea offers a powerful answer to the claim that the interlocking functions of the network each act of communicating or practice are without political content Art, Time and Technology Charlie Gere, 2006-07-09 Breaking the time barrier Morse's inventions The writing of Van Gogh Taking off John Cage's early warning system Art in real time Is it happening Short films about flying Bibliography Index Deleuze and Contemporary Art Stephen Zepke, 2010-05-27 What is the importance of deconstruction and the writing of Jacques Derrida in particular for literary criticism today Derek Attridge argues that the challenge of Derrida's work for our understanding of literature and its value has still not been fully met and in this book which traces a close engagement with Derrida's writing over two decades and reflects an interest in that work going back a further two decades shows how that work can illuminate a variety of topics Chapters include an overview of deconstruction as a critical practice today discussions of the secret postcolonialism ethics literary criticism jargon fiction and photography and responses to the theoretical writing of Emmanuel Levinas Roland Barthes and J Hillis Miller Also included is a discussion of the recent reading of Derrida's philosophy as radical atheism and the book ends with a conversation on deconstruction and place with the theorist and critic Jean Michel Rabate Running throughout is a concern with the question of responsibility as exemplified in Derrida's own readings of literary and philosophical texts responsibility to the work being read responsibility to the protocols of rational argument and responsibility to the reader Flash Art Giancarlo Politi, Helena Kontova, 1989 Over two decades of contemporary art as seen through the pages of Flash Art the controversial contradictory art magazine which has influenced both cultural taste and artistic development in recent years Flash art set the standard for art magazines world wide and has been continually imitated for its concept and style From Arte Povera Process Art Conceptual Art Performance and Post Conceptualism to Pictures the Transavantgarde the East Village and Neo Conceptualism Flash Art has functioned as both forum and catalyst for current art trends A leading American magazine has recently called Flash Art a reliable barometer of the zeitgeist This anthology presents the most memorable articles and issues from Flash Art's 21 years documenting the magazine's policy and trajectory throughout the course of contemporary culture This policy has been consistently concerned with capturing the new and the radical thus transforming them inevitably into the event Provided by publisher Encyclopedia of Contemporary Italian Culture Gino Moliterno, 2023-06-14 This rigorously compiled A-Z volume offers rich readable coverage of the diverse forms of post 1945 Italian culture With over 900 entries by international contributors this volume is genuinely interdisciplinary in character treating traditional political economic and legal concerns with a particular emphasis on neglected areas of popular culture Entries range from short definitions histories or biographies to longer overviews covering themes movements institutions and personalities from advertising to fascism and Pirelli to Zeffirelli The Encyclopedia aims to inform and inspire both teachers and students in the following fields Italian language and literature Arts Humanities and Social Sciences European Studies Media and Cultural Studies Business and Management Art and Design It is extensively cross referenced has a thematic contents list and suggestions for further reading Gendered Tal Dekel, 2014-08-11

Feminist art and theoretical aspects of feminism are linked via a unique and reciprocal bond whose influence extends far beyond their own bounds into the social cultural political and economic realms as well as into the personal lives of women and men alike This linkage was forged in different places around the world in the 1960s and 1970s It was especially influential in the United States during a decade which witnessed the emergence and growth of the Women s Liberation Civil Rights LGBT and hippie movements and the protest against the Vietnam War In response to these events large numbers of women artists joined the ranks of contemporary political feminist activists their art directly reflecting the concerns of feminist theory and practice This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach through which it compares American feminist art and artists with their European counterparts In order to elucidate the geographical divide this book takes as a test case the work of Mary Kelly who while born in the USA produced much of her work while living in Britain and under the influence of European thought Challenging traditional disciplinary boundaries it moves beyond an art history survey to discuss the artistic field in relation to feminist theory and politics revealing the continuing relevance of both areas for the contemporary reader While concentrating upon the second wave of feminism in Europe and the USA it also addresses aspects of the third wave and the current state of the feminist movement particularly in respect to the Israeli art scene

Fetting Rainer Fetting, Jan Hoet, Arie Hartog, 2009 Rainer Fetting became known together with a circle of artist colleagues who founded the artists gallery am Moritzplatz in 1977 and which soon became known as the Moritz boys Fetting became their star With his swift radiant style of painting he was counted among the group of Jungen Wilden who caused a stir in Germany and around the world In the early nineteen eighties his paintings were shown at such important exhibitions as A New Spirit in Painting in the London Royal Academy in London or Zeitgeist in the Martin Gropius Bau in Berlin Fetting moved to New York in 1983 He produced his first material pictures sculptures and photographs there in which he continued to make use of urban motifs and male nudes He returned to Berlin after the fall of the Wall In 1996 he designed a 3.7 metre tall statue of Willy Brandt for the headquarters of the Social Democratic Party in Berlin which caused a sensation as well as a bust of Helmut Schmidt ten years later This is the first comprehensive monograph on Fetting s work English and German text

Literature and Race in Los Angeles Julian Murphet, 2001-03-19 Los Angeles is both the most fragmented and the most minoritized metropolis in America and its most luridly abstract and aestheticized city With more than eighty five languages being spoken in its classrooms and one homogeneous visual language emanating from its entertainment industry LA radically challenges the prospects of that archaic representational medium literature In its investigation of the work of Bret Easton Ellis James Ellroy Anna Deveare Smith and others Literature and Race in Los Angeles articulates their aesthetic preoccupations with the structures of social space in the city Harnessing some of the theoretical insights of Henri Lefebvre and the LA school of geographers Murphet demonstrates the versatility of literary production in LA and speculates about the fortunes of literature in a predominantly visual culture
