Days are where We Live and Other Poems, 1981 A collection of brief poems about shoes fences eggs whistling baths books and other childhood delights      Twenty Poems That Could Save America and Other Essays Tony Hoagland, 2014-11-04 A fearless wide ranging book on the state of poetry and American literary culture by Tony Hoagland the author of What Narcissism Means to Me Live American poetry is absent from our public schools The teaching of poetry languishes and that region of youthful neurological terrain capable of being ignited only by poetry is largely dark unpopulated and silent like a classroom whose shades are drawn This is more than a shame for poetry is our common treasure house and we need its vitality its respect for the subconscious its willingness to entertain ambiguity its plaintive truth telling and its imaginative exhibitions of linguistic freedom which confront the general culture's more grotesque manipulations We need the emotional training sessions poetry conducts us through We need its previews of coming attractions heartbreak survival failure endurance understanding more heartbreak from Twenty Poems That Could Save America Twenty Poems That Could Save

America presents insightful essays on the craft of poetry and a bold conversation about the role of poetry in contemporary culture Essays on the vertigo effects of new poetry give way to appraisals of Robert Bly Sharon Olds and Dean Young At the heart of this book is an honesty and curiosity about the ways poetry can influence America at both the private and public levels Tony Hoagland is already one of this country's most provocative poets and this book confirms his role as a restless and perceptive literary and cultural critic Flying Fish and Other Poems Gary Michael Dault,1996 Fanfare ,1993

Poetry People Sylvia M. Vardell,2007-06-30 Dr Sylvia Vardell's new children's poetry reference book provides a comprehensive introduction to more than 60 contemporary young people's poets Focusing primarily on those who are still actively writing today the author includes poets appropriate for young children through young adults Each entry features brief biographical information highlights selected poetry books authored showcases awards won notes related Web sites and provides suggestions for making connections programming ideas related books and activities The book is ideal for librarians who serve children and young adults as well as for teachers and others who work with children and young adults Beginning with Arnold Adoff the list of poets is both impressive and informative A sample Francisco Alarcon Aileen Fisher Douglas Florian Nikki Giovanni Kristine O'Connell George Jane Yolen Eloise Greenfield John Ciardi and many more Poems Seven Alan Dugan,2002-09-03 Poems Seven New and Complete Poetry the winner of the National Book Award presents the life work of a giant of American letters tracks a forty year career of honest tough artistry and shows a man at nearly 80 years of age and still at the height of his poetic power Dugan's new poems continue his career long concerns with renewed vigor the poet's insistence that art is a grounded practice threatened by pretension the wry wit the jibes at the academic and sententious and the arresting observations on the quotidian battles of life All the while he peppers his poems with humorous images of the grim and daunting topics of existential emptiness International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Robert Penn Warren after Audubon Joseph R. Millichap,2012-05-01 Despite nearly universal critical acclaim for Robert Penn Warren's later poetry much about this large body of work remains unexplored especially the psychological sources of these poems remarkable energy In this groundbreaking work Warren scholar Joseph R Millichap takes advantage of current research on developmental psychology gerontology and end of life studies to offer provocative new readings of Warren's later poems which he defines as those published after Audubon A Vision 1969 In these often intricate poems Millichap sees something like an autobiographical epic focused on the process of aging the inevitability of death and the possibility of transcendence Thus Warren's later poetry reviews an individual life seen whole contemplates mortality and dissolution and aspires to the literary sublime Millichap locates the beginning of Warren's late period in the extraordinary collection Or Else Poems 1968 1974 basing his contention on the book's complex indeed obsessive sequencing of new previously published and previously collected poems unified by themes of time memory age and death Millichap offers innovative readings of Or Else and Warren's five other late gatherings of poems Can I See Arcturus from Where I Stand Poems 1975 Now and Then Poems 1976 1978 winner of the Pulitzer Prize Being Here Poetry 1977 1980 Rumor Verified Poems 1979 1980 and Altitudes and Extensions 1980 1984 Among the autobiographical elements Millichap brings into his careful readings are Warren's loneliness in these later years especially after the deaths of family members and friends his alternating feelings of personal satisfaction and emptiness toward his literary achievements and his sense of the power and at times the impotence of memory Millichap's analysis explores how Warren often returned to images and themes of his earlier poems especially those involving youth and midlife with the new perspective given by advancing age and time's passage Millichap also relates Warren's work to that of other poets who have dealt profoundly with memory and age including Robert Frost T S Eliot Thomas Hardy and at times John Milton William Wordsworth and the whole English and American nineteenth century Romantic tradition An epilogue traces Warren's changing reputation as a poet from the publication of his last volume in 1985 through his death in 1989 and the centennial of his birth in 2005 concluding persuasively that the finest of all of Warren's literary efforts can be found in his later poetry concerned as it is with the work of aging and the quest for transcendence
