Flawed Judgment:

Human Judgment and Social Policy Kenneth R. Hammond, 2000 With numerous examples from law medicine engineering and economics the author presents a comprehensive examination of the underlying dynamics of judgment dramatizing its important role in the formation of social policies which affect us all Blackwell Handbook of Judgment and Decision Making Derek J. Koehler, Nigel Harvey, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Handbook of Judgment and Decision Making is a state of the art overview of current topics and research in the study of how people make evaluations draw inferences and make decisions under conditions of uncertainty and conflict Contains contributions by experts from various disciplines that reflect current trends and controversies on judgment and decision making Provides a glimpse at the many approaches that have been taken in the study of judgment and decision making and portrays the major findings in the field Presents examinations of the broader roles of social emotional and cultural influences on decision making Explores applications of judgment and decision making research to important problems in a variety of professional contexts including finance accounting medicine public policy and the law The Psychological Assessment of Presidential Candidates Stanley A. Renshon, 2013-10-14 Looking back over the past 25 years Stanley Renshon explores how the issue of character has come to dominate presidential campaigns Drawing on his clinical and political science training Renshon has devised a theory which allows the public to evaluate the qualities of presidential candidates A Dangerous Master Wendell Wallach, 2015-06-02 The co author of Moral Machines explores accountability challenges related to a world shaped by such technological innovations as combat drones 3 D printers and synthetic organisms to consider how people of the near future can be protected Novelist The Rational Animal Douglas T Kenrick, Vidas Griskevicius, 2013-09-10 Why do three out of four professional football players go bankrupt How can illiterate jungle dwellers pass a test that tricks Harvard philosophers And why do billionaires work so hard only to give their hard earned money away When it comes to making decisions the classic view is that humans are eminently rational But growing evidence suggests instead that our choices are often irrational biased and occasionally even moronic Which view is right or is there another possibility In this animated tour of the inner workings of the mind psychologist Douglas T Kenrick and business professor Vidas Griskevicius challenge the prevailing views of decision making and present a new alternative grounded in evolutionary science By connecting our modern behaviors to their ancestral roots they reveal that underneath our seemingly foolish tendencies is an exceptionally wise system of decision making From investing money to choosing a job from buying a car to choosing a romantic partner our choices are driven by deep seated evolutionary goals Because each of us has multiple evolutionary goals though new research reveals something radical there s more than one you making decisions Although it feels as if there is just one single self inside your head your mind actually contains several different subselves each one steering you in a different direction when it takes its turn at the controls The Rational Animal will transform the way you think about decision making And along the way you ll discover the intimate connections between ovulating strippers Wall Street financiers testosterone crazed skateboarders Steve Jobs Elvis Presley and you Clearinghouse Review ,2005 Caring for Souls Harry Shields,Gary Bredfeldt,2001-01-01 Caring for Souls is a helpful primer on the intersection of psychology and Scripture How psychology fits into Christianity is a thorny and often confusing subject for many There is a great deal of disagreement even among experts In Caring for Souls Gary Bredfeldt and Harry Shields address the intersection of Scripture and psychology in Christian counseling The authors address different approaches and analyze them against Scripture and then provide readers with practical teaching on implementing biblical counseling What Gen Z Really Wants to Know About God Tanita Tualla Maddox,2025-09-16

Human Factors in the Training of Pilots Jefferson M. Koonce,2002-05-23 In this educational yet entertaining text Jeff Koonce draws on his 44 years of pilot experience and 31 years as a professor of psychology and human factors engineering in addressing the questions of how to apply sound human factors principles to the training of pilots and to one s personal flying The author discusses principles of human factors and how they can be utilized in pilot training and evaluation With a conversational tone he also relates anecdotes jokes and truisms collected during his time as a flight instructor He takes a positive approach to the subject focusing on safety and good practice rather than on accidents While problem areas are acknowledged and the book points out how certain problems may result in mishaps the author avoids focusing on individual accidents Human Factors in the Training of Pilots is a must for pilots wanting to make a systematic study of the human factors issues behind safe flying and for instructors or serious students needing an authoritative text Ask Magazine ,2008

Bennis, 2007-11-08 With good judgment little else matters Without it nothing else matters Whether we re talking about United States presidents CEOs Major League coaches or wartime generals leaders are remembered for their best and worst judgment calls In the face of ambiguity uncertainty and conflicting demands the quality of a leader s judgment determines the fate of the entire organization That s why judgment is the essence of leadership Yet despite its importance judgment has always been a fairly murky concept The leadership literature has been conspicuously quiet on what exactly defines it Does judgment differ from common sense or gut instinct Is it a product of luck Of smarts Or is there a process for making consistently good calls Noel Tichy and Warren Bennis have each spent decades studying and teaching leadership and advising top CEOs such as Jack Welch and Howard Schultz Now in their first collaboration they offer a powerful framework for making tough calls when the stakes are high and the right path is far from obvious They show how to recognize the critical moment before a judgment call when swift and decisive action is essential and also how to execute a decision after the call Tichy and Bennis bring their three dimensional model to life with interviews with world class leaders who have thrived or suffered because of their judgment calls These stories include Jeff Immelt CEO of General Electric whose judgment to grow through research and development transformed GE into the world s premier technology growth company Joel Klein chancellor of the New York City Department of Education who made tough calls about teachers students and parents while turning around a troubled school system Jim McNerney CEO of Boeing whose strategic judgment helped him reinvigorate his company and restore a culture of trust and respect The late general Wayne Downing who found an unexpected opportunity in the midst of crisis when he led the Special Operations raid to capture Manuel Noriega A G Lafley CEO of Procter Gamble who bet 57 billion to purchase Gillette and reinvent his company Brad Anderson CEO of Best Buy who made the call to commit totally to a customer centric strategy and led his people to execute it Whether you re running a small department or a global corporation Judgment will give you a framework for evaluating any situation making the call and correcting if necessary during the execution phase It will show you how to handle the overlapping domains of people strategy and crisis management And it will help you teach your entire team to make the right call more often No organization can afford to neglect this crucial discipline and no previous book has ever brought it into such clear focus California.
