The Apology of Justin Martyr David E. Nyström, 2018-05-03 In his Apology Justin Martyr uses some major apologetic strategies to defend Christianity These are the logos doctrine the theft theory the proof from prophecy and the arguments from demons David E Nyström analyses them in order to create a picture of how they work together rhetorically and literarily in Justin's grand argument

Helping Jesus Fulfill Prophecy Robert J Miller, 2017-01-26 It's obvious that Jesus fulfilled prophecies about the promised Messiah or so the gospels make it seem But the real story is more complex and more compelling In hindsight we can see that Jesus had help fulfilling prophecy The gospel writers skillfully manipulated prophecies carefully lifting them out of context creatively reinterpreting them even rewriting them to match what Jesus would do in fulfilling them The evangelists also used the prophecies themselves to shape the very stories that show their fulfillment This book describes in detail how Christian authors helped Jesus fulfill prophecy Studies of Greek oracles the Dead Sea Scrolls translations of the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek and Aramaic and the writings of Josephus explore the interpretive techniques that paved the way for the New Testament's manipulation of prophecy This book analyzes how the belief that Jesus fulfilled prophecy became an argument to justify a new notion the view that Christians had replaced Jews as God's chosen people An aggressive anti Judaism is analyzed in chapters on patristic theologians such as Justin Martyr and Augustine who embedded it into the argument from prophecy The book concludes with an ethical argument for why Christians should retire the argument from prophecy

Justin, Philosopher and Martyr Denis Minns, Paul Parvis, 2009-08-13 Justin Martyr c 100 165 was one of the key apologists of the Early Church Oxford Early Christian Texts presents a new critical edition of the Greek text of the Apologies with introduction English translation and textual commentary Editors Denis Minns and Paul Parvis take a searching look at the text transmitted by the single fourteenth century manuscript containing the works of Justin They attempt to see behind the work of the Byzantine editor and his predecessors who sought to make sense of the badly damaged text before them The commentary is designed not merely to annotate the text but to identify and draw out Justin's train of thought and the structure of his argument It explains the readings adopted in the text by setting Justin's Greek within his Christian Hellenistic and philosophical contexts The introduction traces the complex history of the text in manuscript and print and discusses the puzzling relationship of the Second Apology to the First and suggests a new solution Justin is located against the background of the diversity of Christianity in the second century A new understanding of Justin emerges from this work His thought is often sharper and his language more pointed than has been recognised and the difficulty of the task he set himself of bridging the enormous gap between two cultures is clearly shown

Revelation, Truth, Canon and Interpretation Craig D. Allert, 2015-12-22 This volume treats the concepts of revelation truth canon and interpretation as four pillars of early Christian theology Using Justin Martyr as a case study his Dialogue with Trypho is examined with a view toward discerning how a second century Christian father understands and develops these concepts Justin s intellectual background is discussed within the nuanced context of Middle Platonism Particular attention is paid to his use of biblical sources which is grounded in the foundational chapter on revelation in Justin Justin is placed within the wider context of theological developments in pre Nicene Christianity and includes a warning against judging Justin by anachronistic post Nicene developments

The Doubt of the Apostles and the Resurrection Faith of the Early Church J. D. Atkins, 2019-08-02 Why do the Gospels depict the risen Jesus as touchable and able to eat J D Atkins challenges the common view that Luke 24 and John 20 are apologetic responses to docetism by re examining the redaction of the appearance stories in light of their reception among early docetists and church fathers Page 4 of cover

Torah Revealed, Torah Fulfilled Jacob Neusner, Bruce D. Chilton, Baruch A. Levine, 2011-11-03 The authors seek to identify the recurrent tensions the blatant points of emphasis the recurring indications of conflict and polemic Framing the issue of the disposition of the Scriptural heritage in broad terms they describe what characterizes the Gospels and the Mishnah the letters of Paul and the Tosefta In other words if they take whole and complete the writings of first and second century people claiming to form the contemporary embodiment of Scripture s Israel and ask what they all stress as a single point of insistence the answer is self evident Nearly every Christianity and nearly all known Judaism s appeal for validation to the Scriptures of ancient Israel their laws and narratives their prophecies and visions To Scripture all parties appeal but not to the same verses of Scripture In Scripture all participants to the common Israelite culture propose to find validation but not to a common theological program subject to diverse interpretation From Scripture every community of Judaism and Christianity takes away what it will but not with the assent of all the others

The Holy Spirit and Christian Origins Graham Stanton, Bruce W. Longenecker, Stephen C. Barton, 2004-11-04 Anyone who is interested in the rigorous study of early Christianity and who has not engaged with the works of James D G Dunn is not really interested in the rigorous study of early Christianity No one would dispute that Professor Dunn is one of the most prolific New Testament scholars of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries And while a handful of scholars might have a list of publications to rival his own extensive publications list none of them could claim to have set the agenda of scholarly study to the extent that Jimmy Dunn has done for a sustained period of time since the 1970s The Holy Spirit and Christian Origins comprises a selection of original essays that explore a topic that has held a prominent and distinctive place in the majority of Professor Dunn s publications Written by twenty seven leading scholars this singular volume probes deep into the nascent Christian communities and their writings and investigates the early Christians convictions concerning the Holy Spirit Ranging widely through Scripture and across early church history many of these essays introduce groundbreaking research in biblical studies and some engage directly with Dunn s work in the field Presenting some of the best new work in New Testament studies as well as celebrating a respected career The Holy Spirit and Christian Origins will help to stimulate further discussion and reflection in the theological academy and in the Christian church two sectors that Jimmy Dunn has consistently and passionately sought to straddle nurture and refresh Contributors Robert Banks John M G Barclay Richard Bauckham Peder Borgen David Catchpole Gordon D Fee Victor Paul Furnish Beverly Roberts Gaventa Joel B Green Morna D Hooker Robert Jewett Hermann Lichtenberger Bruce W Longenecker Ulrich Luz I Howard Marshall Scot McKnight R W L Moberly Robert Morgan J Lionel North Graham N Stanton Loren T Stuckenbruck Peter Stuhlmacher Anthony C Thiselton Marianne Meye Thompson Paul Trebilco Max Turner Alexander J M Wedderburn

The First Apocalypse of James Mikael Haxby,2023-08-03 In this study Mikael Haxby offers a new analysis of a little studied early Christian text He uses recently discovered manuscript evidence to place the First Apocalypse of James in ancient debates about political violence and sexual difference

Justin Martyr Eric Francis Osborn,1973

Literature and Culture in the Roman Empire, 96-235 Alice König,Rebecca Langlands,James Uden,2020-04-30 This book explores new ways of analysing interactions between different linguistic cultural and religious communities across the Roman Empire from the reign of Nerva to the Severans 96 235 CE Bringing together leading scholars in classics with experts in the history of Judaism Christianity and the Near East it looks beyond the Greco Roman binary that has dominated many studies of the period and moves beyond traditional approaches to intertextuality in its study of the circulation of knowledge across languages and cultures Its sixteen chapters explore shared ideas about aspects of imperial experience law patronage architecture the army as well as the movement of ideas about history exempla documents and marvels As the second volume in the Literary Interactions series it offers a new and expansive vision of cross cultural interaction in the Roman world shedding light on connections that have gone previously unnoticed among the subcultures of a vast and evolving Empire

Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson,2021-01-01 By the mid second century Christian writers were engaging in debates with educated audiences from non Jewish Graeco Roman cultural backgrounds A remarkable feature of some of these texts is how extensively they refer to the Jewish scriptures even though those scriptures were unfamiliar to non Jewish Graeco Romans In Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson explores for the first time why this should have been so As the basis for his argument Hudson examines three works by Christian converts originally educated in Graeco Roman traditions Justin Martyr s First Apology Tatian s Oratio and Theophilus of Antioch s Ad Autolycum He considers their literary strategies their use of quotations and allusions and how they present the Jewish scriptures all against the background of the Graeco Roman literary culture familiar to both authors and audiences The scriptures are presented as a critically defining feature of Christianity instrumental in shaping the way the new religion presented itself as it strove to engage with and challenge the cultural traditions of the Graeco Roman world This book will engage scholars interested in the very earliest centuries of Christianity and in the central role the Jewish scriptures played in the new religion s self presentation The History of Apologetics Zondervan,2020-06-16 ECPA Christian Book Award 2021 Finalist Biography Memoir Explore Apologetics through the Lives of History s Great Apologists The History of Apologetics follows the great apologists in the history of the church to understand how they approached the task of apologetics in their own cultural and theological context Each chapter looks at the life of a well known apologist from history unpacks their methodology and details how they approached the task of defending the faith By better understanding how apologetics has been done readers will be better able to grasp the contextualized nature of apologetics and apply those insights to today s context The History of Apologetics covers forty four apologists including Part One Patristic Apologists Part Two Medieval Apologists Part Three Early Modern Apologists Part Four 19th C Apologists Part Five 20th C American Apologists Part Six 20th C European Apologists Part Seven Contemporary Apologists Building on the Ruins of the Temple Adam Gregerman,2016-06-28 In the immediate centuries after the Romans destruction of Jerusalem and its Temple in 70 CE Jews and Christians offered contrasting religious explanations for the razing of the locus of God s presence on earth Adam Gregerman analyzes the views found in three early Christian texts Justin s Dialogue with Trypho Origen s Contra Celsum and Eusebius Proof of the Gospel and one rabbinic text the Midrash on Lamentations all of which emerged in the same place the land of Israel and around the same time the first few centuries after 70 The author explores the ways they interpret the destruction in order to prove in the case of Christians or make it impossible to disprove in the case of the Jews that their community is the people of God He demonstrates the apologetic and polemical functions of selected explanations for claims to the covenant made by one community excluded those made by the other Christ Mark DelCogliano,2022 The Cambridge Edition of Early Christian Writings provides the definitive anthology of early Christian texts from ca 100 CE to ca 650 CE Its volumes reflect the cultural intellectual and linguistic diversity of early Christianity and are organized thematically on the topics of God Practice Christ Community Reading and Creation The series expands the pool of source material to include not only Greek and Latin writings but also Syriac and Coptic texts Additionally the series rejects a theologically normative view by juxtaposing texts that were important in antiquity but later deemed heretical with orthodox texts The translations are accompanied by introductions notes suggestions for further reading and scriptural indices The third volume focuses on early Christian reflection on Christ as God incarnate from the first century to ca 450 CE It will be an invaluable resource for students and academic researchers in early Christian studies history of Christianity theology and religious studies and late antique Roman history The Cambridge Edition of Early Christian Writings: Volume 3, Christ: Through the Nestorian Controversy Mark DelCogliano,2022-02-10 The Cambridge Edition of Early Christian Writings provides the
