The Light and the Darkness R. W. Dekar,2020-06-29 Darien and the others have returned continuing their adventures across Gaianterra the war torn land filled with wonder and magic What new perils await our characters heroes and villains alike What memories of the past have been long forgotten by the people of the world And what possible dangers could those memories of yore have upon the world of today The Imperial War is heating up and forces from all sides are more active now than ever before Who will strike next and where will their swords clash Can the emperor of Lumin Valeria be stopped before he attacks and crushes the other nations of the world Darien and his companions are headed for the Temple Shendau which is high up on Mount Gai Den Once there will they find the answers about the mysterious dark sword that Darien now carries A powerful sword that gives the wielder magic but at a horrible cost They search for answers with a sense of urgency knowing that something dangerous is behind the black sword Yet as they search for answers the Bladeknights elite commandos of Lumin Valeria are searching for them Lord Dragos the one who s seemingly pulling all the strings is searching for something but what and why This superpowered warrior mage has the might of the Empire at his beck and call what else does such a man desire Sampson Rockfell is still in pursuit of traitors and villains from the Empire Can he finally put a stop to their dark

2050 A brief history of the future Royal Museums of Fine Arts of Belgium,2015-10-09 What if we could foretell the future through art More than any other activity art will help to convince us of the urgency This is its greatness and will be its responsibility as art lies at the forefront of boldness Jacques Attali The meeting of an essay A Brief History of the Future by Jacques Attali and the world of contemporary art on the occasion of the exhibition organized by the Royal Museums of Fine Arts of Belgium 11 09 2015 24 01 2016 This book explores the major social issues studied by Jacques Attali and points out how visual artists go beyond simple observation to take an active part in the debate and develop projects fired by a form of utopian creativity Making museums the mirror of a world in change EXCERPT The first wave is the decline of the American empire which is no longer omnipotent It represents a declining share of global GDP and will even be overtaken by China Europe and others even if it long remains the world's leading military power This decline will also correspond to a lack of the cutting edge collaborative technologies that lead to new discoveries in particular the information technologies biotechnologies and so on which will change a lot of things There will be changes in customs but these will probably contribute to the permanent triumph of the United States ideology as the dominant one in the world The second wave is produced by the US gradually sharing its dominance with other powers This process has already begun through the establishment of the G20 The joint government of the world is a response to the fragmentation that is taking place No doubt we shall see conflicts between China and Japan tension between Europe and the United States times when the whole lot will be at loggerheads We may well be experiencing the last period in history in which conflicts between great nations still take place ABOUT JACQUES ATTALI Economist writer member of the Council of State special adviser to François Mitterrand from 1981 to 1991 Jacques Attali was born in 1943 in Alger Over his career he has published more than 50 books and written many articles on current events He is also the editorial writer of L'Express

Desiring the Good Katja Maria Vogt, 2017-08-01 Desiring the Good defends a novel and distinctive approach in ethics that is inspired by ancient philosophy Ethics according to this approach starts from one question and its most immediate answer what is the good for human beings a well going human life Ethics thus conceived is broader than moral philosophy It includes a range of topics in psychology and metaphysics Plato's Philebus is the ancestor of this approach Its first premise defended in Book I of Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics is that the final agential good is the good human life Though Aristotle introduces this premise while analyzing human activities it is absent from approaches in the theory of action that self identify as Aristotelian This absence Vogt argues is a deep and far reaching mistake one that can be traced back to Elizabeth Anscombe's influential proposals And yet the book is Anscombian in spirit It engages with ancient texts in order to contribute to philosophy today and it takes questions about the human mind to be prior to and relevant to substantive normative matters In this spirit Desiring the Good puts forward a new version of the Guise of the Good namely that desire to have one's life go well shapes and sustains mid and small scale motivations A theory of good human lives it is argued must make room for a plurality of good lives Along these lines the book lays out a non relativist version of Protagoras's Measure Doctrine and defends a new kind of realism about good human lives
