Kandila Samo Ceremonialism And Interpersonal Relationships:

Kandila Robert Daniel Shaw,1993 Living in the Family of Jesus William Longgar,2016 With its myriad people groups Melanesia has much to teach the rest of the world about what happens when Christ encounters local culture This collection begins with a look at specific case studies of the Gospel s encounter with local culture in Melanesia itself before turning to broader themes particularly raised by the Melanesian context Case studies from Asia and the wider Pacific then throw further light on the incarnational process of encounter demonstrating that there is much for the rest of the world to learn from the Melanesian experience The book concludes with some penetrating analyses of the dynamics at work when the Gospel encounters human cultures for the first time The process of critical contextualization of the Gospel is never complete and is inevitably the product of conversation and experimentation As such it is a communal process This set of essays models one such conversation while at the same time enabling the rest of the church to listen in on important insights Religion and Retributive Logic Carole M. Cusack,Christopher Hartney,2010 Garry Winston Trompf b 1940 in his outstanding academic career has inspired scholars in the fields of Studies in Religion and the History of Ideals In this volume his colleagues and students critique and expand upon the world of this outstanding academic The book is divided into four parts Melanesia Ancient World Studies Philosophical and Methodological Considerations and Historiography Authors address Trompf s research in works such as The Idea of Historical Recurrence in Western Thought Early Christian Historiography and themes of Melanesian religion that Trompf address in Payback No study in the religions of Oceania or ideals of millennialism should ignore this critical assessment of Garry Trompf s work Understanding Folk Religion: 25th Anniversary Edition Paul G. Hiebert,R. Daniel Shaw,Tite Tienou,2024-04-24 This book has served the missiological community for twenty five years as a resource for understanding human spirituality in any context Thousands of students have incorporated the principles of this book into ministry around the globe This twenty fifth anniversary edition seeks to enable those who now bring their passion for mission to contemporary contexts affected by globalization climate change and political perspectives unimagined when this book originally appeared Every community wherever it is on earth has its share of beliefs and values that manifest themselves in practices that reflect spiritual engagement Those engaged in mission need to appreciate how underlying beliefs and values are reflected in handling spiritual power worship and blessing and interaction with others Gospel communicators must account for these elements as they seek to make God s intentions known to people who are searching for God The models presented early in the book are essential for establishing what people consider spiritually critical Applying these models in any religious environment will enable message bearers to engage with beliefs and practices that promote a gospel presentation that makes sense To that end we commend this book for effective missional engagement Home in the Islands Jan Rensel,Margaret Rodman Critchlow,1997-09-01 Ordinary houses have extraordinary stories to tell For more than a century anthropologists have been recording these sagas in an attempt to uncover humanity's relationship with the common dwelling Fundamental to the interaction of humans and housing is the way people shape their living spaces even redefining their purposes and meanings their houses in turn influence how people live their lives and perpetuate the cultural structures that produced a given form of shelter The stories draw attention to colonial and missionary agendas local and global economies environmental disasters cultural identities social connections and family continuity as well as personal choices And as the chapter on homeless Hawaiians shows even those without houses have stories to tell Anthropologists architects environmental designers geographers and historians will welcome this diverse volume on a neglected yet important aspect of change in the lives of Pacific Islanders Traditional Ritual as Christian

Worship Burrows, William R., Shaw, R. Daniel, 2018-03-27 A necessary task of missionaries in recent decades has been to help local Christians inculturate or contextualize their faith although the criteria for doing so often came from outside the context in which new believers developed their understanding of Christianity Highlighting the voices of non Western scholars this work recognizes the importance of ritual and ceremony in the life of communities that seek to worship God in ways that reflect culturally appropriate responses to Scripture The contributors some of missiology's leading lights discuss rituals beliefs and practices of diverse peoples supporting the conclusion that orthodox Christianity is hybrid Christianity

Kandila Robert Daniel Shaw, 1990 The first major study of the Samo of Papua New Guinea Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message

Introduction to Missiological Research Design Edgar J. Elliston, 2011-06-27 Edgar Elliston's Introduction to Missiological Research Design outlines the basic issues of research design for missiological and church related research This book describes the logic of the research process for a wide range of missiological research Whether this research is from a single academic discipline or a multidisciplinary approach this text will provide relevant guidelines for the design Elliston provides instruction examples and exercises for inexperienced but serious researchers as they seek to design research that will serve the Church in mission Elliston also provides experienced researchers with checklists and easy to review tables to further aid in research design This text raises some of the key issues to designing research in a multicultural or cross cultural context and guides researchers toward ethical and effective study Guiding Light Kevin George Hovey, 2019-04-18 Rev Dr Alan Tippett was arguably one of the leading missiologists of the twentieth century Through his prolific pen poignant observations and powerful insights he significantly influenced mission research and activity in the period of the 1960s to 1980s This was particularly facilitated through his research writing and teaching at the Institute of Church Growth Fuller Theological Seminary School of World Mission and his inaugural editorship of the American Society of Missiology's journal Missiology: An International Review Yet for those who did not know Tippett's material well the very specific nature of his research and writing limited the influence of his insights For example without already knowing the pertinent content why would a missionary to Thailand think of reading Tippett's Solomon Islands Christianity However according to Doug Priest editor of a number of Tippett's posthumous publications this volume has done what even Tippett himself did not do and that is to capture the key features of his missiology in one volume So Guiding Light functions as an in-depth overview of The Essential Alan Tippett I can attest that the nature of Tippett's material continued to inform and inspire me throughout the eleven years of the research and writing of this study Constructing Inequality Raymond Case Kelly, 1993 Challenges prevailing theories about social inequality The Sorrow of the Lonely and the Burning of the Dancers E. Schieffelin, 2005-01-14 This classic ethnography now in its second edition describes the traditional way of life of the Kaluli a tropical forest people of Papua New Guinea The book takes as its focus the nostalgic and violent Gisalo ceremony one of the most remarkable performances in the anthropological literature Tracking the major symbolic and emotional themes of the ceremony to their sources in everyday Kaluli life Schieffelin shows how the central values and passions of Kaluli experience are governed by the basic forms of social reciprocity However Gisalo reveals that social reciprocity is not limited to the dynamics of transaction obligation and alliance It emerges rather as a mode of symbolic action and performative form embodying a cultural scenario which shapes Kaluli emotional experience and moral sensibility and permeates their understanding of the human condition Gender in Amazonia and Melanesia Thomas Gregor, Donald Tuzin, 2001-11 Amazonia and Melanesia are half a world in distance yet their cultures bear similarities in the areas of sex and gender This work looks at ways in which sex and gender are elaborated obsessed over and internalized Gender, Song, and Sensibility Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-08-30 The authors present a historical picture of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by exploring domains of imagination as revealed in courting songs ballads and folktales from across the Highlands but with particular reference to field areas in the western Highlands Texts and/or translations are from a rich corpus of materials previously unpublished in English The examples draw the reader into the imaginative world of the people while the analytical framework sets the discussion firmly into debates within interpretive anthropology The aim is to re-examine the images of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by revealing the sensuous and emotional modalities of expressive folk genres and their aesthetic qualities Ideas and practices centered on female spirit entities are shown to be important and pervasive in cult contexts and these spirits were felt to have a significant influence on relations of courtship marriage and reproduction Both women and men are also shown to have complex expressions of emotional dispositions in the spheres of courting and the choice of marital partners By entering into these domains the book modifies earlier analyses that have concentrated on antagonism behavioral taboos separation and domination as themes in gender relations in Highland societies

SWM/SIS at Forty H. Kraft, 2005-06-01 Seldom are we able to listen to the story of a school that has so greatly impacted world mission As we contemplated how to record the first forty years of the School of World Mission now School of Intercultural Studies it was obvious that the best way was to capture the memory of one who lived it While many of our faculty can claim deep root in the school no one compares to Chuck Kraft who apart from the first four years has been a vital part of every development C Douglas McConnell Dean School of Intercultural Studies

Sound and Sentiment Steven Feld, 2012-10-02 A new thirtieth anniversary edition of the landmark ethnography that introduced the anthropology or the cultural study of sound

Navigating the Future Monica Minnegal, Peter D. Dwyer, 2017-06-08 Navigating the Future draws on long term ethnographic fieldwork with Kubo people and their neighbours in a remote area of Papua New Guinea to explore how worlds are reconfigured as people become increasingly conscious of and seek to draw into their own lives wealth and power that had previously lain beyond their horizons In the context of a major resource extraction project the Papua New Guinea Liquefied Natural Gas PNG LNG Project taking shape in the mountains to the north the people in this area are actively reimagining their social world This book describes changes in practice that result tracing shifts in the ways people relate to the land to each other and to outsiders and the histories of engagement that frame those changes Inequalities are emerging between individuals in access to paid work between groups in potential for claiming future royalties and between generations in access to information As people at the village of Suabi strive to make themselves visible to the state and to petroleum companies as legal entities entitled to receive benefits from the PNG LNG Project they are drawing new boundaries around sets of people and around land and declaring hierarchical relationships between groups that did not exist before They are struggling to make sense of a bureaucracy that is foreign to them in a place where the state currently has minimal presence A primary concern of Navigating the Future is with the processes through which these changes have emerged as people seek to imagine and work to bring about a radically different future for themselves while simultaneously reimagining their own past in ways that validate those endeavours

Payback G. W. Trompf, 1994-07-14 In this ambitious study the first monograph on religion and the logic of retribution Professor Trompf shows how various aspects of payback both negative and positive provide the best indices to an understanding of Melanesian views of life The book explores the reasons why people pay back and opens up a whole new dimension in the cross cultural study of human consciousness The author conducts his readers through the most complex anthropological pageant on earth illustrating his arguments from western New Guinea to Fiji

our understanding of the interrelationship between nature and culture What can anthropology contribute to practical debates which depend on particular definitions of nature such as that concerning sustainable development Humankind has evolved over several million years by living in and utilizing nature and by assimilating it into culture Indeed the technological and cultural advancement of the species has been widely acknowledged to rest upon human domination and control of nature Yet by the 1960s the idea of culture in confrontation with nature was being challenged by science philosophy and the environmental movement Anthropology is increasingly concerned with such issues as they become more urgent for humankind as a whole This important book reviews the current state of the concepts of nature we use both as scientific devices and ideological constructs and is organised around three themes nature as a cultural construction the cultural management of the environment and relations between plants animals and humans

Qualitative Research and Transformative Results Jessy Jaison, 2018-04-19 An immensely valuable resource for those who seek to do qualitative research in theological education Jessy Jaison's Qualitative Research and Transformative Results calls for the holistic transformation of the church and society by helping researchers and their mentors develop capacities that will be up to the task This masterful work informs and inspires researchers to explore the qualitative domain in theological research as a vital link between the academy and the world Bringing a fresh perspective to theological study in human socio cultural environments through eight comprehensive chapters it offers theoretical and practical guidance on every aspect of qualitative inquiry
