Kangaroo Notebook Kobo Abe, 1997-04-01 A vision of contemporary Japanese society that manages to be simultaneously fearful and jarringly funny At the center of the story is a gentle self-effacing man who contracts a disorder that makes him a vegetable and he becomes the victim of forces that alternately torture him fuss over him and neglect him This last novel written before its author's death in 1993 marries magic realism to social satire and ends up with unexpected meaning

Indigo: A Novel Clemens J. Setz, 2014-11-03 Shortlisted for the German Book Prize An eerie and uncanny mystery reminiscent of early Pynchon and the American debut of one of the most acclaimed young European novelists In the Austrian state of Styria lies the Helianau Institute a boarding school for children born with a mysterious condition known as Indigo syndrome Anyone who comes near them immediately suffers from nausea and vertigo Clemens Setz a fictionalized doppelgänger of the author is a young math teacher who loses his job at the school after attempting to investigate the mysterious relocations of several children Fourteen years later Robert a former student discovers a newspaper article about Setz's acquittal for the murder of an animal abuser Could there be a connection between this story which continues to haunt Robert and the puzzling events of the past DeLilloesque in its exploration of alienation and anxiety Indigo weaves together bizarre historical anecdotes such as Edison's electrocution of an elephant with pop cultural marginalia and pseudoscience to create a literary work that makes its own laws rich in dialogue and variety amusing and anecdotal but also brutal and unfathomable Der Spiegel

The Russian Kurosawa Olga V. Solovieva, 2023-04-03 The Russian Kurosawa offers a new historical perspective on the work of the renowned Japanese film director Akira Kurosawa It uncovers Kurosawa's debt to the intellectual tradition of Japanese Russian democratic dissent reflected in the affinity for

Kurosawa's worldview expressed by such Russian directors as Grigory Kozintsev and Andrei Tarkovsky Through a detailed discussion of the Russian subtext of Kurosawa's cinema most clearly manifested in the director's films based on Dostoevsky Tolstoy Gorky and Arseniev the book shows that Kurosawa used Russian intertexts to deal with the most politically sensitive topics of postwar Japan Locating the director in the cultural tradition of Russian inflected Japanese anarchism the book challenges prevalent views of Akira Kurosawa as an apolitical art house director or a conformist studio filmmaker of muddled ideological alliances by offering a philosophically consistent picture of the director's participation in postwar debates on cultural and political reconstruction

The Box Man Kobo Abe, 2011-12-14 Kobo Abe the internationally acclaimed author of Woman in the Dunes combines wildly imaginative fantasies and naturalistic prose to create narratives reminiscent of the work of Kafka and Beckett In this eerie and evocative masterpiece the nameless protagonist gives up his identity and the trappings of a normal life to live in a large cardboard box he wears over his head Wandering the streets of Tokyo and scribbling madly on the interior walls of his box he describes the world outside as he sees or perhaps imagines it a tenuous reality that seems to include a mysterious rifleman determined to shoot him a seductive young nurse and a doctor who wants to become a box man himself The Box Man is a marvel of sheer originality and a bizarrely fascinating fable about the very nature of identity Translated from the Japanese by E Dale Saunders

Imperial Beast Fables Kaori Nagai, 2020-07-28 This book coins the term imperial beast fable to explore modern forms of human animal relationships and their origins in the British Empire Taking as a starting point the long nineteenth century fascination with non European beast fables it examines literary reworkings of these fables such as Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Books in relation to the global politics of race language and species The imperial beast fable figures variably as a key site where the nature and origins of mankind are hotly debated an emerging space of conservation in which humans enclose animals to manage and control them a cage in which an animal narrator talks to change its human jailors and a vision of animal cosmopolitanism in which a close kinship between humans and other animals is dreamt of Written at the intersection of animal studies and postcolonial studies this book proposes that the beast fable embodies the ideologies and values of the British Empire while also covertly critiquing them It therefore finds in the beast fable the possibility that the multitudinous animals it gives voice to might challenge the imperial networks which threaten their existence both in the nineteenth century and today

Secret Rendezvous Kobo Abe, 2002-07-09 From the acclaimed author of Woman in the Dunes comes Secret Rendezvous the bizarrely erotic and comic adventures of a man searching for his missing wife in a mysteriously vast underground hospital From the moment that an ambulance appears in the middle of the night to take his wife who protests that she is perfectly healthy her bewildered husband realizes that things are not as they should be His covert explorations reveal that the enormous hospital she was taken to is home to a network of constant surveillance outlandish sex experiments and an array of very odd and even violent characters Within a few days though no closer to finding his wife the unnamed narrator finds himself appointed the hospital's chief of security reporting to a man who thinks he's a horse With its nightmarish vision of modern medicine and modern life Secret Rendezvous is another masterpiece from Japan's most gifted and original writer of serious fiction

The Ark Sakura Kobo Abe, 2009-02-10 A classic from the renowned Japanese novelist about isolation and the threat of a nuclear holocaust The Ark Sakura is as timely today as it was at its original publication In this Kafkaesque allegorical fantasy Mole has converted a huge underground quarry into an ark capable of surviving the coming nuclear holocaust and is now in search of his crew He falls victim however to the wiles of a con man cum insect dealer In the surreal drama that ensues the ark is invaded by a gang of youths and a sinister group of elderly people called the Broom Brigade led by Mole's odious father while Mole becomes trapped in the ark's central piece of equipment a giant toilet powerful enough to flush almost anything including chopped up humans out to sea

Sublime Voices Christopher Bolton, 2020-03-17 Since the 1950s Abe K b 1924 1993 has achieved an international reputation for his surreal or grotesque brand of avant garde literature From his early forays into science fiction to his more mature psychological novels and films and finally the complicated experimental works produced near the end of his career Abe weaves together a range of voices the styles of science and the language of literary forms In Abe s oeuvre this stylistic interplay links questions of language and subjectivity with issues of national identity and technological development in a way that ultimately aspires to become the catalyst for an artistic revolution While recognizing the disruptions such a revolution might entail Abe s texts embrace these disjunctions as a way of realizing radical new possibilities beyond everyday experience and everyday values By arguing that the crisis of identity and postwar anomie in Abe s works is inseparable from the need to marshal these different scientific and literary voices Christopher Bolton explores how this reconciliation of ideas and dialects is for Abe part of the process whereby texts and individuals form themselves a search for identity that must take place at the level of the self and society at large
