and there were many more papers we wanted to accept than we could. The review process was therefore very arduous but the selection was very delicate and challenging. I am grateful for the dedication, thoroughness, and expertise of the Program Committee. Observing the way the members of the committee operated makes me as confident as possible of the outcome of our selection process.

Geriatric Rehabilitation Jennifer Bottomley, 2024-06-01 As the aging population continues to increase, so does the need for a text specific to the specialized care of the elderly patient as it applies to the physical therapist assistant student, faculty, and clinician. Geriatric Rehabilitation: A Textbook for the Physical Therapist Assistant recognizes the growing role of the PTA in a variety of health care settings, from acute to home to long-term care settings, to name a few. Inside Geriatric Rehabilitation, Dr. Jennifer Bottomley, along with her contributors, focuses on the clinically relevant assessment, treatment, and management of the geriatric population. Pathological manifestations commonly seen in the elderly patient are addressed from a systems perspective as well as a focus on what is seen clinically and how it affects function. Each pathological area covered includes Screening, assessment, and evaluation; Treatment prescription; Goal setting; Modification of treatment; Anticipated outcomes; Psychosocial, pharmacological, and nutritional elements. The organization and presentation of the practical, hands-on components of interventions, assessments, and decision-making skills make this a go-to text for the PTA to administer comprehensive geriatric care at each point along the continuum of care. Some of the features inside include Emphasis on treatment interventions, techniques, tips, and options; Focus on how assessment tools and treatments are applied and modified to benefit the geriatric population and what the expected outcomes are; Clear and outlined chapter objectives; User-friendly summary tables in the nutritional and pharmacology chapters; Pearls that highlight important chapter information; Appendices and study aids. Geriatric Rehabilitation: A Textbook for the Physical Therapist Assistant answers the call for a text that focuses on the management of geriatric patients across the spectrum of care for the PTA, from students to those practicing in geriatric populations.

Advancing Human Assessment Randy E. Bennett, Matthias von Davier, 2017-10-17 This book is open access under a CC BY-NC 2.5 license. This book describes the extensive contributions made toward the advancement of human assessment by scientists from one of the world's leading research institutions, Educational Testing Service. The book's four major sections detail research and development in measurement and statistics, education policy analysis and evaluation, scientific psychology, and validity. Many of the developments presented have become de facto standards in educational and psychological measurement, including item response theory (IRT), linking and equating, differential item functioning (DIF), and educational surveys like the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), the Progress of International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS), and the Trends in Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS). In addition to its comprehensive coverage of contributions to the theory and methodology of educational and psychological measurement and statistics, the book gives significant attention to ETS work in cognitive, personality, developmental, and social psychology, and to education policy analysis and program evaluation The chapter authors are long standing experts who provide broad coverage and thoughtful insights that build upon decades of experience in research and best practices for measurement evaluation scientific psychology and education policy analysis Opening with a chapter on the genesis of ETS and closing with a synthesis of the enormously diverse set of contributions made over its 70 year history the book is a useful resource for all interested in the improvement of human assessment Business Periodicals Index ,2007 Hodgkin Lymphoma Andreas Engert,Anas Younes,2020-03-30 This book now in its third edition examines the current treatment options for first line relapsed and refractory Hodgkin lymphoma and the appropriate management in special clinical circumstances including in the elderly pregnant women and those with nodular lymphocyte predominant disease NLPHL Careful attention is devoted to the emerging individually tailored treatment strategies including checkpoint inhibition that are especially appealing given their potential to reduce early and late treatment side effects in this generally young patient population In addition clear guidance is provided on the management of Hodgkin survivors Other topics addressed include epidemiology pathogenesis the role of the microenvironment initial clinical evaluation imaging diagnosis use of staging systems and prognostic factors The new edition of Hodgkin Lymphoma A Comprehensive Overview has been revised and updated by key opinion leaders to reflect recent progress in the field It will be of great value to hematologists oncologists and all others with an interest in Hodgkin lymphoma Handbook of Industrial and Systems Engineering Adedeji B.
