and World Literature is a forensic masterpiece of critical analysis Against World Literature Emily Apter, 2014-06-10 Against World Literature On the Politics of Untranslatability argues for a rethinking of comparative literature focusing on the problems that emerge when large scale paradigms of literary studies ignore the politics of the Untranslatable the realm of those words that are continually retranslated mistranslated transferred from language to language or especially resistant to substitution In the place of World Literature a dominant paradigm in the humanities one grounded in market driven notions of readability and universal appeal Apter proposes a plurality of world literatures oriented around philosophical concepts and geopolitical pressure points The history and theory of the language that constructs World Literature is critically examined with a special focus on Weltliteratur literary world systems narrative ecosystems language borders and checkpoints theologies of translation and planetary devolution in a book set to revolutionize the discipline of comparative literature

The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field World Literature, Transnational Cinema, and Global Media Robert Stam, 2019-02-18 With extraordinary transnational and transdisciplinary range World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media comprehensively explores the genealogies vocabularies and concepts orienting the fields within literature cinema and media studies Orchestrating a layered conversation between arts disciplines and media Stam argues for their mutual embeddedness and their shared in between territories Rather than merely adding to the existing scholarship the book builds a relational framework through the connectivities within literature cinema music and media that opens up analysis to new categories and concepts while crossing spatial temporal theoretical disciplinary and mediatic borders The book also questions an array of hierarchies literature over cinema source novel over adaptation feature film over documentary erudite over vernacular culture Western modernisms over peripheral modernisms classical over popular music written poetry over sung poetry and so forth The book is structured around the concept of the commons forming a strong thread which links various struggles against enclosures of all kinds with emphasis on natural indigenous cultural creative digital and the transdisciplinary commons World Literature Transnational Cinema and Global Media is ideal to further the theoretical discussion for those undergraduate and graduate departments in cinema studies media studies arts and art history communications journalism and new digital media programs at all levels

World Literature and Dissent Lorna Burns,Katie Muth,2019-08-08 World Literature and Dissent reconsiders the role of dissent in contemporary global literature Bringing together scholars of world and postcolonial literatures the contributors explore the aesthetics of resistance through concepts including the epistemology of ignorance the rhetoric of innocence the subversion of paying attention and the radical potential of everydayness Addressing a broad range of examples from the Maghreb to humanist Ibn Khaldun to India's Facebook poets and examining writers such as Langston Hughes Ben Okri Sara Uribe and Merle Collins this highly relevant book reframes the field of world literature in relation to dissenting politics and aesthetic It asks the urgent question how critical practice might cultivate radical thought further social justice and value human expression

World Literature as Discovery Zhang Longxi,2023-09-15 The rise of world literature is the most noticeable phenomenon in literary studies in the twenty first century However truly well known and globally circulating works are all canonical works of European or Western literature while non European and even minor European literatures remain largely unknown beyond their culture of origin World Literature as Discovery Expanding the World Literary Canon argues that world literature for our time must go beyond Eurocentrism and expand the canon to include great works from non European and minor European literatures As much of the world's literature remains untranslated and unknown the expansion will be an exciting process of discovery By discussing fundamental questions around canon circulation aesthetic values translation cosmopolitanism and the literary universal Zhang Longxi proposes a new and liberating concept of world literature that will shape world literature worthy of its name This book speaks for a more inclusive idea of world literature and shows students and scholars alike that all the literary traditions particularly non European traditions will be able to make important contributions and expand the canon of world literature

World Literature in Theory David Damrosch,2014-01-28 World Literature in Theory provides a definitive exploration of the pressing questions facing those studying world literature today

Coverage is split into four parts which examine the origins and seminal formulations of world literature world literature in the age of globalization contemporary debates on world literature and localized versions of world literature Contains more than 30 important theoretical essays by the most influential scholars including Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Hugo Meltzl Edward Said Franco Moretti Jorge Luis Borges and Gayatri Spivak Includes substantive introductions to each essay as well as an annotated bibliography for further reading Allows students to understand articulate and debate the most important issues in this rapidly changing field of study

In the Shadow of World Literature Michael Allan, 2016-04-05 We have grown accustomed to understanding world literature as a collection of national or linguistic traditions bound together in the universality of storytelling Michael Allan challenges this way of thinking and argues instead that the disciplinary framework of world literature far from serving as the neutral meeting ground of national literary traditions levels differences between scripture poetry and prose and fashions textual forms into a particular pedagogical aesthetic and ethical practice In the Shadow of World Literature examines the shift from Qur'anic schooling to secular education in colonial Egypt and shows how an emergent literary discipline transforms the act of reading itself The various chapters draw from debates in literary theory and anthropology to consider sites of reception that complicate the secular religious divide from the discovery of the Rosetta stone and translations of the Qur'an to debates about Charles Darwin in the modern Arabic novel Through subtle analysis of competing interpretative frames Allan reveals the ethical capacities and sensibilities literary reading requires the conceptions of textuality and critique it institutionalizes and the forms of subjectivity it authorizes A brilliant and original exploration of what it means to be literate in the modern world this book is a unique meditation on the reading practices that define the contours of world literature

Another Marx Marcello Musto, 2018-05-03 Following the break up of the Soviet Union Marx was regarded as a thinker doomed to oblivion about whom everything had already been said and written However the international economic crisis of 2008 favoured a return to his analysis of capitalism and recently published volumes of the Marx Engels Gesamtausgabe MEGA2 have provided researchers with new texts that underline the gulf between Marx's critical theory and the dogmatism of many twentieth century Marxisms This work reconstructs with great textual and historical rigour but in a form accessible to those encountering Marx for the first time a number of little noted or often misunderstood stages in his intellectual biography The book is divided into three parts The first Intellectual Influences and Early Writings investigates the formation of the young Marx and the composition of his Parisian manuscripts of 1844 The second The Critique of Political Economy focuses on the genesis of Marx's magnum opus beginning with his studies of political economy in the early 1850s and following his labours through to all the preparatory manuscripts for Capital The third Political Militancy presents an insightful history of the International Working Men's Association and of the role that Marx played in that organization The volume offers a close and innovative examination of Marx's ideas on post Hegelian philosophy alienated labour the materialist conception of history research methods the theory of surplus value working class self emancipation political organization and revolutionary theory From this emerges another Marx a thinker very different from the one depicted by so many of his critics and ostensible disciples

A Contemporary History of Marx's Capital Paolo Favilli, 2025-09-03 Paolo Favilli provides both students and scholars with an original reading of themes and issues found in Karl Marx's Das Kapital and its connections with present day challenges By way of continuous cross referencing between present and past Favilli demonstrates claims that the scientific status of Das Kapital advanced by countless texts since its original publication are themselves deeply imbued by the spirit of the times If in 1963 Jean Paul Sartre could write that Marxism was the unsurpassable philosophical horizon of our times what could make an undergraduate student today consider such a claim plausible Informed by the latest research on Marxist theory and decades teaching the Philosophy of History Favilli employs a didactic approach stimulating student engagement and learning opportunities in the classroom This approach allows for a better understanding of relationship between the present and the multiple temporalities that characterise and periodise the contemporary era What follows is a critique of the contemporary academy for its hangover of post 1989 nuovismo cult of novelty and inability to make the proper distinctions between Marxism as party state the works of Karl Marx and Marxism as an object of history This led to the spectacle where after 1989 those who had spent most of their careers as Marxist hued scholars not only abandoned this identity but also spurned any recognition that Marx and Marxism were worthwhile objects of inquiry This book was first published in Italian as A proposito de Il capitale Il lungo presente e I miei studenti Corso di storia contemporanea Milan FrancoAngeli 2021 This English translation includes a new foreword by the author

Philosophy as World Literature Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2020-11-26 What does it mean to consider philosophy as a species of not just literature but world literature The authors in this collection explore philosophy through the lens of the worlding of literature that is how philosophy is connected and reconnected through global literary networks that cross borders mix stories and speak in translation and dialect Historically much of the world's most influential philosophy from Plato's dialogues and Augustine's confessions to Nietzsche's aphorisms and Sartre's plays was a form of literature as well as by extension a form of world literature Philosophy as World Literature offers a variety of accounts of how the worlding of literature problematizes the national categorizing of philosophy and brings new meanings and challenges to the discussion of intersections between philosophy and literature

Recoding World Literature B. Venkat Mani, 2016-12-01 Winner 2018 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association Winner 2018 German Studies Association DAAD Book Prize in Germanistik and Cultural Studies From the current vantage point of the transformation of books and libraries B Venkat Mani presents a historical account of world literature By locating translation publication and circulation along routes of bibliomigrancy the physical and virtual movement of books Mani narrates how world literature is coded and recoded as literary works find new homes on faraway bookshelves Mani argues that the proliferation of world literature in a society is the function of a nation's relationship with print culture a Faustian pact with books Moving from early Orientalist collections to the Nazi magazine Weltliteratur to the European Digital Library Mani reveals the political foundations for a history of world literature that is at once a philosophical ideal a process of exchange a mode of reading and a system of classification Shifting current scholarship's focus from the academic to the general reader from the university to the public sphere Recoding World Literature argues that world literature is culturally determined historically conditioned and politically charged

The Critical Situation Robert T. Tally Jr, 2023-03-14 The Critical Situation Vexed Perspectives in Postmodern Literary Studies comprises a selection of essays that register the situatedness of critical theory and practice amid various intellectual institutional and cultural contexts This book offers examples of situated criticism which in turn are concerned with the ways in which literary and cultural criticism are and have been situated in relation to a variety of ideological and institutional structures including those of world literature American studies spatial literary studies cultural critique globalization and postmodernity These structures influence the ways that criticism is practiced and due recognition of their continuing effects is crucial to the success of any meaningful critical practice in the twenty first century

A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D'haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe's concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics

The Struggle for Development and Democracy: A General Theory Alessandro Olsaretti, 2023-03-13 In The Struggle for Development and Democracy Alessandro Olsaretti argues that we need significantly new theories of development and democracy to answer the problem posed by neoliberalism and the populist backlash namely uneven development and divisive politics heightened by the 9 11 attacks This volume proposes a general theory of development and democracy as part of a unified theory of power emphasizing that development needs markets civil society and the state and also the proper networks and interactions amongst markets civil society and the state Imperialism undermines these interactions and turns countries into providers of cheap land or labour This book begins to sketch the mechanisms at work and to answer one question how did imperialist elites build their power All royalties from sales of this volume will go to GiveWell.org in honour of Alessandro Olsaretti's memory Postcolonial Literatures in English Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2019-04-27 The term postcolonial literatures in English designates English language literatures from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania as well as the literatures of diasporic communities who have moved from those regions to the global north This volume introduces the central themes of postcolonial literary studies and delineates how these themes are reflected and elaborated in exemplary literary works by postcolonial authors from around the world It also offers succinct definitions of key terms like Orientalism hybridity Indigeneity or writing back Global Elements in Chinese Literature Sihe Chen, 2022-11-28 How has modern Chinese literature emerged from the collision of domestic social upheaval foreign inspiration and sparks of creative genius during the past century Sihe Chen explores this question from a global perspective analysing how Chinese authors assimilated Western literary movements to create new forms of expression adapted to a society in rapid transformation The author then examines these global influences in the works of selected contemporary Chinese novelists and poets He shows that the problems these writers confront are common to all peoples and that Chinese literature expresses not only the story of China but also that of humanity
