Living Mistakes Mothers Who Consented To Adoption:

Living Mistakes Kate Inglis, 1984-01-01 Misconceptions Anne Lorene Chambers, 2007-01-01 In 1921 despite the passing of legislation intended to ease the consequences of illegitimacy for children Children of Unmarried Parents Act reformers in Ontario made no effort to improve the status of unwed mothers Furthermore the reforms that were passed served as models for legislation in other provinces and even in some American states institutionalizing in essence the prejudices evident throughout Until now historians have not sufficiently studied these measures resulting in the marginalization of unwed mothers as historical subjects In Misconceptions Lori Chambers seeks to redress this oversight By way of analysis and careful critique Chambers shows that the solutions to unwed pregnancy promoted in the reforms of 1921 were themselves based upon misconceptions The book also explores the experiences of unwed mothers who were subjected to the legislation of the time thus shedding an invaluable light on these formerly ignored subjects Ultimately Misconceptions argues that child welfare measures which simultaneously seek to rescue children and punish errant women will not and cannot succeed in alleviating child or maternal poverty A Question of Adoption Anne Else, 2023-02-27 A Question of Adoption gives a richly detailed immensely readable account of the ideology and practice of closed stranger adoption in New Zealand from pregnancy through to the final adoption order and its aftermath Anne Else's scrupulous moving narrative explores social and moral attitudes towards unmarried mothers unwanted children and childless couples during the 1950s and 1960s She shows how the resulting system took shape how it worked or failed to work and its lifelong effects on everyone involved then sets out how and why change began to occur This new e book edition written with Maria Haenga Collins includes seven ground breaking new chapters providing a comprehensive account of creating and transferring children through the related processes of adoption state care donor conception and surrogacy It details how so many M ori children were and still are cut off from their wh nau and whakapapa through adoption and state care both stemming from racist colonial ideology and how the Adoption Act 1955 came to be seen as glaringly at odds with contemporary concepts of children's rights and best interests It examines New Zealand's complex history of using third parties to create children through reproductive technology and the lengthy unresolved debates over regulation The final chapter looks at local and global risks now facing human reproduction connection and reproductive justice MOTHERS WHO CONSENTED TO ADOPTION KATE.
