Living On The Ground:

Life without a Ground: A Praxis of Being-in-the-World Daniil Koloskov, 2024-07-18 This book argues for the pragmatist thesis of the primacy of praxis on a phenomenological basis Demonstrating the relevance of phenomenology it provides a systematic overview of the contemporary pragmatic landscape taking into account not only a family of neo pragmatic approaches but also the current pragmatic readings of phenomenology This volume offers an innovative formulation of the primacy of practice thesis based on the genetic reformulation of Heidegger's notions of disclosure Dasein and average intelligibility Das Man Investigating the dynamic interrelation among those notions the author arrives at the phenomenological conception of forms of life or average background practices and argues that a form of life is not a pragmatic condition of meaningfulness but an outcome of the dynamic process of meaning formation This text concludes that the formation of meaning has no overarching origin but sources from the bundle of disparate practical spaces and is anarchic in nature It appeals to students and researchers working in phenomenology and philosophical anthropology

Life on the Ground Floor Dr. James Maskalyk, 2018-08-28 Masterfully written and artfully structured Life on the Ground Floor is a celebrated humanitarian doctor's unique perspective on sickness health and what it is to be alive Deeply personal in its scope doctor and activist James Maskalyk author of the highly acclaimed Six Months in Sudan draws upon his experience treating patients in the world's emergency rooms From Toronto to Addis Ababa Cambodia to Bolivia he discovers that although the cultures resources and medical challenges of each hospital may differ they are linked indelibly by the ground floor the location of their emergency rooms Here on the ground floor is where Dr Maskalyk witnesses the story of human aliveness our mourning and laughter tragedies and hopes the frailty of being and the resilience of the human spirit And it's here too that he is swept into the story confronting his fears and doubts and questioning what it is to be a doctor

Balcony View, Living at Ground Zero After 9/11 Julia Frey, 2021-08-06 Very quietly Ron said You know I think the Towers are going to go Maybe we'd better get out of here We suddenly realized that if either of the Towers fell at a certain angle our building was directly in the line of fall Above the raging flames the perpendicular steel I beams were beginning to bulge out softening in the heat Again his unnaturally quiet voice I can't stay here If the Towers fall on us I'll die of fright

BALCONY VIEW a 9/11 Diary Julia Frey's account begins on September 11 2001 as the couple decide that despite her husband's illness they must somehow flee They abandon his wheelchair he is too frail to climb on a boat Later that day covered with ashes they struggle home through a neighborhood pitched into destruction and chaos to look out his study window at their new view the stage set for Dante's Inferno The domino effect of one burning collapsing building setting fire to the next one makes it clear that their own building could still go The electricity was out Ron could never go down 26 flights on his rear end We were trapped in the sky That's when Julia decides to write it all down if only for the people who will find their bodies Describing the first night in the ruins being evacuated then returning weeks later to live at Ground Zero she discovers that their world has totally changed yet finally not changed at all Our previous problems didn't magically disappear They were just waiting for us to come back in the door This powerful narrative of double coping with Ron's progressing disability and with the after effects of 9/11 describes a situation the manuals don't cover caregiving in a disaster Julia Frey's intense wryly humorous you are there style buoys up the diary and moves it swiftly along catching us in a gripping touching brave tender funny story of falling towers a failing husband and a floundering m-nage trois Nothing happens in a vacuum she says weaving in the leitmotif of a long term love affair Unflinchingly she faces the ruins out the window and her own disturbing ambivalence as she sacrifices her creative and professional life to become a full time caregiver Ron is no angel either He's a self centered willful novelist who after convincing her to take a lover now wants her to give him up What makes him think he can turn us off and on like televisions she wonders Ron's own writing creates an important counterpoint to Julia's voice as she weaves into her diary quotations from his posthumous novel Last Fall FC2 2005 In a poignant Coda another tale comes to light the almost supernatural coincidences between Ron's last short story and a series of events that occur after Ron dies There is even a happy ending Now twenty years later Julia's experience is no longer an extraordinary occurrence This historical diary is important not only to historians sociologists and psychologists helping patients recover from PTSD but above all to those who find themselves unexpectedly plunged into similar catastrophic situations becoming caregivers during a major emergency The international Covid 19 pandemic and regional climate change disasters like wildfires tornadoes hurricanes repeated Gulf Coast flooding and the 2021 Texas freezes have left many unprepared people to deal with a very ill family member without electricity gas or clean water Julia's dilemma unfortunately is no longer rare Many people will find it comforting to know that even unheroic people manage to get through such times Book Review An intimate memoir of love and loss in the shadow of 9/11 Engaging and candid an insightful look at how one woman copes with personal and national trauma Kirkus Indie The Living Landscape Rick Darke, Douglas W. what ethnography has taught them about philosophy Ethnographies of the mundane and the everyday raise fundamental issues that the contributors grapple with in both their lives and their thinking With directness and honesty they relate particular philosophers to matters such as how to respond to the suffering of the other how concepts arise in the give and take of everyday life and how to be attuned to the world through the senses Their essays challenge the idea that philosophy is solely the province of professional philosophers and suggest that certain modalities of being in the world might be construed as ways of doing philosophy Contributors Jo o Biehl Steven C Caton Vincent Crapanzano Veena Das Didier Fassin Michael M J Fischer Ghassan Hage Clara Han Michael Jackson Arthur Kleinman Michael Puett Bhrigupati Singh Transactions and Proceedings of the New Zealand Institute New Zealand Institute (Wellington, N.Z.),1915 The proceedings or notices of the member institutes of the society form part of the section Proceedings in each volume lists of members are included in v 1 41 43 60 64 Country Life ,1918 Delimitations John Sallis,2022-05-24 Since Hegel philosophers have declared repeatedly that metaphysics is at an end a pronouncement that has sparked much contemporary philosophical debate What exactly does the end or closure of metaphysics mean and what are the implications of this view John Sallis characterizes the end of metaphysics as a limit or horizon both enclosing metaphysical thought and opening the field of thinking beyond it He elaborates five areas in which the boundaries of thinking are extended imagination as an opening power the radicalizing of phenomenology s injunction to attend to the things themselves Heidegger s shift of thinking toward an opening or clearing archaic closure through a return to Plato and Heraclitus and the nonidentity that takes place in the act of delimitation This last question is developed in relation to Husserl s project of a pure phenomenology to the debate between hermeneutics and deconstruction and to the secluding of ground announced in Schelling s thought RELIGION, CULTURE AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT -Volume II Roberto Blancarte Pimentel, Robert Charles Elliot,Robert Holton ,2010-12-18 Religion Culture and Sustainable Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences And Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Religion Culture and Sustainable Development with contributions from distinguished experts in the field discusses matters of great relevance to our world such as Religion values Culture and Sustainable Development These three volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Building from the Ground Up Barrett Williams,ChatGPT,2024-07-08 Building from the Ground Up Your Essential Guide to Crafting the Perfect Rural Oasis Ever dreamt of leaving behind the hustle and bustle of city life to create your own idyllic rural retreat Building from the Ground Up is your comprehensive roadmap to turning that vision into reality Dive deep into the heart of rural living with this essential guide that covers everything you need to know from choosing the perfect plot of land to planning long term maintenance Begin your journey with an introduction to visualizing your dream oasis and setting realistic goals Building from
