Living Spaces The Architecture Of Fred Hollingsworth:

Living Spaces Fred Thornton Hollingsworth, Greg L. Bellerby, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 2005 Includes architectural drawings and plans of Fred Thornton Hollingsworth Dreamers and Designers Francis Mansbridge, 2018-10-27 West Vancouver is a community defined by its geography bordered on three sides by the ocean backed by mountainous wilderness and threaded by creeks and ravines This setting gives the region a distinct identity attracting people from all over the world with the prospect of stunning scenery and unparalleled opportunities for outdoor activity but also defines how the community has developed As West Vancouver transitioned from a beachfront cottage community to a region filled with houses that only the affluent can afford its growth has been characterized by ongoing tension between efforts to conserve its natural beauty and the drive to open it up to eager would be West Vancouverites In recent decades the Squamish Nation has also become a major player in shaping the future direction of the area In Dreamers and Designers Francis Mansbridge traces the history of West Vancouver examining how its approach to land use has shaped the region and illustrating the consequences of this fight including the marginalization of its less affluent citizens The text is enlivened by accounts of the major personalities involved in the shaping of West Vancouver and sidebars featuring the voices of West Vancouverites throughout the ages With archival and contemporary photographs that provide a visual account of the changing landscape Dreamers and Designers paints a vivid picture of how West Vancouver's unique setting has defined the dynamic coastal community and the lives of those who reside there Canada Michelangelo Sabatino, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 2016-11-15 Canada is a country of massive size of diverse geographical features and an equally diverse population all features that are magnificently reflected in its architecture In this book Rhodri Windsor Liscombe and Michelangelo Sabatino offer a richly informative history of Canadian architecture that celebrates and explores the country's many contributions to the spread of architectural modernity in the Americas A distinct Canadian design attitude coalesced during the twentieth century one informed by a liberal hybrid and pragmatic mindset intent less upon the dogma of architectural language and more on thinking about the formation of inclusive spaces and places Taking a fresh perspective on design production they map the unfolding of architectural modernity across the country from the completion of the transcontinental railway in the late 1880s through to the present Along the way they discuss architecture within the broader contexts of political industrial and sociocultural evolution the urban suburban expansion and new building technologies Examining the works of architects and firms such as ARCOP Eric Arthur Ernest Cormier Brigitte Shim and Howard Sutcliffe this book brings Canadian architecture chronologically and thematically to life Where Mountains Meet the Sea Daniel Francis, 2016-07-01 Where Mountains Meet the Sea commemorates the 125th anniversary of the District of North Vancouver's incorporation as a municipality Combining hundreds of illustrations with the personal accounts of residents and a lively text the book presents the story of North Vancouver in all its colour and complexity Instead of a conventional chronological narrative Where Mountains Meet the Sea

divides the story of North Vancouver's development into three major parts 1 the origins of the community its First Nations residents and the development of its waterfront 2 the political and cultural evolution of the community and 3 the development of the mountain resorts and the creation of the many parks which characterize the North Shore From the District's auspicious beginnings with the sawmill at Moodyville dominating the industry of Burrard Inlet through the postwar population boom that saw the municipality evolve from a suburb of Vancouver into a bustling community in its own right to the District's rich legacy of outdoor recreation the text residents anecdotes and photographs create a vivid portrait of the development of a thriving community Each section of the book is richly illustrated in full colour with biographies eyewitness memories artifacts from the collection of the North Vancouver Museum and Archives historic photographs maps and charts
