Living With The Dead:

The Living and the Dead William Lloyd Warner, 1959 Zombie Theory Sarah Juliet Lauro, 2017-10-15

Zombies first shuffled across movie screens in 1932 in the low budget Hollywood film White Zombie and were reimagined as undead flesh eaters in George A Romero's The Night of the Living Dead almost four decades later. Today zombies are omnipresent in global popular culture from video games and top rated cable shows in the United States to comic books and other visual art forms to low budget films from Cuba and the Philippines. The zombie's ability to embody a variety of cultural anxieties ecological disaster social and economic collapse political extremism has ensured its continued relevance and legibility and has precipitated an unprecedented deluge of international scholarship. Zombie studies manifested across academic disciplines in the humanities but also beyond spreading into sociology economics computer science mathematics and even epidemiology. Zombie Theory collects the best interdisciplinary zombie scholarship from around the world. Essays portray the zombie not as a singular cultural figure or myth but show how the undead represent larger issues the belief in an afterlife fears of contagion and technology the effect of capitalism and commodification racial exclusion and oppression dehumanization. As presented here zombies are not simple metaphors rather they emerge as a critical mode for theoretical work. With its diverse disciplinary and methodological approaches Zombie Theory thinks through what the walking undead reveal about our relationships to the world and to each other.

Suddenly, the Sight of War Hannan Hever, 2016-02-24

Suddenly the Sight of War is a genealogy of Hebrew poetry written in pre state Israel between the beginning of World War II and the War of Independence in 1948. In it renowned literary scholar Hannan Hever sheds light on how the views and poetic practices of poets changed as they became aware of the extreme violence in Europe toward the Jews. In dealing with the difficult topics of the Shoah Natan Alterman's 1944 publication of The Poems of the Ten Plagues proved pivotal. His work inspired the next generation of poets like Haim Guri as well as detractors like Amir Gilboa. Suddenly the Sight of War also explores the relations between the poetry of the struggle for national independence and the genre of war reportage uniquely prevalent at the time. Hever concludes his genealogy with a focus on the feminine reaction to the War of Independence showing how women writers such as Lea Goldberg and Yocheved Bat Miryam subverted war poetry at the end of the 1940s Through the work of these remarkable poets we learn how a culture transcended seemingly unspeakable violence

New Israeli Horror Olga Gershenson, 2023-11-10 Before 2010 there were no Israeli horror films Then distinctly Israeli serial killers zombies vampires and ghosts invaded local screens The next decade saw a blossoming of the genre by young Israeli filmmakers New Israeli Horror is the first book to tell their story Through in depth analysis engaging storytelling and interviews with the filmmakers Olga Gershenson explores their films from inception to reception She shows how these films challenge traditional representations of Israel and its people while also appealing to audiences around the world Gershenson introduces an innovative conceptual framework of adaptation which explains how filmmakers adapt global genre tropes to local reality It illuminates the ways in which Israeli horror borrows and diverges from its international models New Israeli Horror offers an exciting and original contribution to our understanding of both Israeli cinema and the horror genre A companion website to this book is available at <https://blogs.umass.edu/newisraelihorror> <https://blogs.umass.edu/newisraelihorror> Book trailer <https://youtu.be/oVJsD0QCORw> <https://youtu.be/oVJsD0QCORw> Realms of the Living Dead Curtiss FH and HA, 2022-08-20 A Brief Description of Life after Death Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Espectros Alberto Ribas-Casasayas, Amanda L. Petersen, 2015-12-24 Espectros is a compilation of original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen s detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph s ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present

Fear Jan Plamper, Benjamin Lazier, 2012-12-30 This volume provides a cross disciplinary examination of fear that most unruly of our emotions by offering a broad survey of the psychological biological and philosophical basis of fear in historical and contemporary contexts The contributors leading figures in clinical psychology neuroscience the social sciences and the humanities consider categories of intentionality temporality admixture spectacle and politics in evaluating conceptions of fear Individual chapters treat manifestations of fear in the mass panic of the stock market crash of 1929 as spectacle in warfare and in horror films and as a political tool to justify security measures in the wake of terrorist acts They also describe the biological and evolutionary roots of fear fear as innate versus learned behavior in both humans and animals and conceptions of human passions and their self mastery from late antiquity to the early modern era Additionally the contributors examine theories of intentional and non intentional reactivity the process of fear memory coding and contemporary psychology s emphasis on anxiety disorders Overall the authors point to fear as a dense and variable web of responses to external and internal stimuli Our thinking about these reactions is just as complex In response this volume opens a dialogue between science and the humanities to afford a more complete view of an emotion that has shaped human behavior since time immemorial

Theories of Performance Elizabeth Bell, 2008-02-11 Theories of Performance invites students to explore the possibilities of performance for creating knowing and staking claims to the world Each chapter surveys explains and illustrates classic modern and postmodern theories that answer the questions What is performance Why do people perform and How does performance constitute our social and political worlds The chapters feature performance as the entry point for understanding texts drama culture social roles identity resistance and technologies

Handmaid Caroline N. Mbonu, 2010-09-01 A project of women s advancement in society and church life engages a multi disciplinary and interdisciplinary approach in its quest for social transformation In recent decades governments particularly in Africa have employed various political economic and other social modi operandi in their attempt to advance women s participation more fully in society The discussions on these pages seek to contribute to the women s discourse with insights from the theology and culture more specifically from name designation The expression what is in a name falls flat on its face in most African cultures as well as the cultures that produced the Bible In these traditions a name is not merely a convenient collocation of sounds by which a person could be identified Rather a name represents a story and can express something of the essence of that which is named The power inherent in the way names are constructed and interpreted both in terms of the Handmaid in the New Testament and more directly in the Igbo culture contribute to the strengthening of patriarchy Such construal potentially exclude women from full participation in social processes and in so doing deprive society as a whole of the synergy of human potential The discussion of Mary as Handmaid centers on the role of women in Catholic theology so she becomes the vehicle for examining the role of the second class citizen assigned to women in the Church then and now Drawing from textual and oral history the book reinterprets in a liberative manner female names both from Igbo tradition as well as Chinua Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah Thus the freight that a name designation carries makes imperative the exploration of its redemptive significance Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations,1952 The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave Venetria K. Patton,2013-06-20

The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave investigates the treatment of the ancestor figure in Toni Cade Bambara s The Salt Eaters Paule Marshall s Praisesong for the Widow Phyllis Alesia Perry s Stigmata and A Sunday in June Toni Morrison s Beloved Tananarive Due s The Between and Julie Dash s film Daughters of the Dust in order to understand how they draw on African cosmology and the interrelationship of ancestors elders and children to promote healing within the African American community Venetria K Patton suggests that the experience of slavery with its concomitant view of black women as natally dead has impacted African American women writers emphasis on elders and ancestors as they seek means to counteract notions of black women as somehow disconnected from the progeny of their wombs This misperception is in part addressed via a rich kinship system which includes the living and the dead Patton notes an uncanny connection between depictions of elder ancestor and child figures in these texts and Kongo cosmology These references suggest that these works are examples of Africanisms or African retentions which continue to impact African American culture Effects of Acid Deposition on the Forests of Europe and North America George H. Tomlinson, II,1990-04-30 The objective of this book is to outline the serious dangers to the soil and forest as a result of continuing emissions of acid producing gases thus pointing to the urgent need of their reduction This volume reviews relevant information dealing with changes due to acidification of the soil and with the physiological processes of the tree involved in nutrient uptake transfer and utilization as well as with the nature and degree of damage that has occurred Written in a comprehensive format it discusses the importance of viable forests the vital role of nutrients in the structure and physiology of the tree and the relevance of prior dieback episodes This is a valuable resource for those interested in forestry environmental science and the pulp and paper industry E [series Circulars]. United States. Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Give Us This Day Charles Erlandson,2011-08 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Rather than writing a short devotional about a particular verse from a passage Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer Matthew is the first volume of an eight volume series that will provide daily devotionals for every passage in the New Testament Roots Quest Jackie Hogan,2019-01-15

America is in the midst of a genealogy boom In the last thirty years the number of Americans who said they were very interested in family history jumped from 29% to 87% Online genealogy sites like Ancestry com went from being a small genealogical research website into a NASDAQ listed corporation with more than two million subscribers In Roots Quest sociologist Jackie Hogan digs into this genealogy boom to ask why we are so interested in our family history She goes beyond simple demographics retiring baby boomers with more time on their hands to show that the surging popularity of genealogy is in part a response to some of the large scale social changes transforming our lives such as the increasingly virtual nature of social life and the sense of rootlessness these transformations provoke Roots Quest explores the way our increasingly rootless society fuels the quest for authenticity for deep history and for an elemental sense of belonging for roots
