Living In The Lightning A Cancer Journal:

Living in the Lightning Natalie S. Robins, 1999 November 27 1995 Late this afternoon I was diagnosed with cancer I learned that I had a form of non Hodgkin s lymphoma called malt for mucous associated lymphoid tissue My oncologist J Gregory Mears M D said that mine was not a bad story because my tumors were indolent slow growing Not a bad story Doesn t just about everyone know that non Hodgkin s Lymphoma is incurable I have incurable cancer So begins Natalie Robin s journal first serialized in Self magazine now compiled and expanded in Living in the Lightning Robins writes frankly with grace and realism of her personal journey of learning to live with cancer Her candid observations reactions and emotions throughout her diagnosis and treatment hit home as she asks questions all of us might when faced with such appalling news How should I tell my mother Will my husband remarry after I die What should I wear to chemotherapy What would happen if I jumped off the table during radiation treatment Can I ever forget I have cancer Robins s warm and sincerely uplifting portrait of quiet courage will give encouragement to the millions of people with cancer and the millions more who love them

The Inner Life of the Dying Person Allan Kellehear, 2014-06-03 This unique book recounts the experience of facing one s death solely from the dying person s point of view rather than from the perspective of caregivers survivors or rescuers Such unmediated access challenges assumptions about the emotional and spiritual dimensions of dying showing readers that along with suffering loss anger sadness and fear we can also feel courage love hope reminiscence transcendence transformation and even happiness as we die A work that is at once psychological sociological and philosophical this book brings together testimonies of those dying from terminal illness old age sudden injury or trauma acts of war and the consequences of natural disasters and terrorism It also includes statements from individuals who are on death row in death camps or planning suicide Each form of dying addressed highlights an important set of emotions and narratives that often eclipses stereotypical renderings of dying and reflects the numerous contexts in which this journey can occur outside of hospitals nursing homes and hospices Chapters focus on common emotional themes linked to dying expanding and challenging them through first person accounts and analyses of relevant academic and clinical literature in psycho oncology palliative care gerontology military history anthropology sociology cultural and religious studies poetry and fiction The result is an all encompassing investigation into an experience that will eventually include us all and is more surprising and profound than anyone can imagine

The Untold Journey Natalie Robins, 2017-05-16 A biography of a famed 20th century Jewish New York author and literary and social critic who struggled in the shadow of her husband Diana Trilling s life with Columbia University professor and literary critic Lionel Trilling was filled with secrets struggles and betrayals and she endured what she called her own private hell as she fought to reconcile competing duties and impulses at home and at work She was a feminist yet she insisted that women s liberation created unnecessary friction with men asserting that her career ambitions should be on equal footing with caring for her child and supporting her husband She fearlessly expressed sensitive controversial and moral views and fought publicly with Lillian Hellman among other celebrated writers and intellectuals over politics Diana Trilling was an anticommunist liberal a position often misunderstood especially by her literary and university friends And finally she was among the New Journalists who transformed writing and reporting in the 1960s making her nonfiction as imaginative in style and scope as a novel The first biographer to mine Diana Trilling's extensive archives Natalie Robins tells a previously undisclosed history of an essential member of New York City culture at a time of dynamic change and intellectual relevance Meticulously researched and documented the biography is a detailed foray into the lives of a generation of writers and into the mind of literary critic writer and intellectual Diana Trilling Ms Robins does a solid job of rehabilitating a significant literary and cultural figure of the 20th century a woman who spent much of her career in her husband's shadow Kirkus Reviews Copeland's Cure Natalie Robins, 2009-07-22 Today one out of every three Americans uses some form of alternative medicine either along with their conventional standard traditional medications or in place of them One of the most controversial as well as one of the most popular alternatives is homeopathy a wholly Western invention brought to America from Germany in 1827 nearly forty years before the discovery that germs cause disease Homeopathy is a therapy that uses minute doses of natural substances minerals such as mercury or phosphorus various plants mushrooms or bark and insect shellfish and other animal products such as Oscilloccinum These remedies mimic the symptoms of the sick person and are said to bring about relief by entering the body's vital force Many homeopaths believe that the greater the dilution the greater the medical benefit even though often not a single molecule of the original substance remains in the solution In Copeland's Cure Natalie Robins tells the fascinating story of homeopathy in this country how it came to be accepted because of the gentleness of its approach Nathaniel Hawthorne and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow were outspoken advocates as were Louisa May Alcott Harriet Beecher Stowe and Daniel Webster We find out about the unusual war between alternative and conventional medicine that began in 1847 after the AMA banned homeopaths from membership even though their medical training was identical to that of doctors practicing traditional medicine We learn how homeopaths were increasingly considered not to be real doctors and how real doctors risked expulsion from the AMA if they even consulted with a homeopath At the center of Copeland's Cure is Royal Samuel Copeland the now forgotten maverick senator from New York who served from 1923 to 1938 Copeland was a student of both conventional and homeopathic medicine an eye surgeon who became president of the American Institute of Homeopathy dean of the New York Homeopathic Medical College and health commissioner of New York City from 1918 to 1923 he instituted unique approaches to the deadly flu pandemic We see how Copeland straddled the worlds of politics he befriended Calvin Coolidge Herbert Hoover and Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt among others and medicine as senator he helped get rid of medical diploma mills His crowning achievement was to give homeopathy lasting legitimacy by including all its remedies in the Federal Food Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938 Finally the author brings the story of clashing medical beliefs into the present and describes the role of homeopathy today and how some of its practitioners are now adhering to the strictest standards of scientific research controlled randomized double blind clinical studies
