Hansen,2012-11-12 Within the Yarra River catchment area nestles the valley of Steels Creek a small shallow basin in the lee of Kinglake plateau and the Great Dividing Range The escarpment walls of the range drop in a series of ridges to the valley and form the south eastern boundary of the Kinglake National Park The gentle undulations that flow out from the valley stretch into the productive and picturesque landscape of Victoria s famous wine growing district the Yarra Valley Late on the afternoon of 7 February 2009 the day that came to be known as Black Saturday the Kinglake plateau carried a massive conflagration down the fringing ranges into the Steels Creek community Ten people perished and 67 dwellings were razed in the firestorm In the wake of the fires the devastated residents of the valley began the long task of grieving repairing rebuilding or moving on while redefining themselves and their community In Living with Fire historians Tom Griffiths and Christine Hansen trace both the history of fire in the region and the human history of the Steels Creek valley in a series of essays which examine the relationship between people and place These essays are interspersed with four interludes compiled from material produced by the community In the immediate aftermath of the fire many people sought to express their grief shock sadness and relief in artwork Some painted or wrote poetry while others collected the burnt remains of past treasures from which they made new objects These expressions supplemented by historical archives and the essays they stand beside offer a sensory and holistic window into the community s contemporary and historical experiences A deeply moving book Living with Fire brings to life the stories of one community s experience with fire offering a way to understand the past and in doing so prepare for the future Living with Fire ,2006 Much of Colorado is considered a high hazard fire environment and possesses all the ingredients necessary to support large intense and uncontrollable wildfires Our ability to live more safely in this fire environment greatly depends upon our use of pre fire activities These are steps taken before a wildfire occurs which improve the survivability of people and homes

Living with Fire, 2001 Environment and Ecology in the Mediterranean Region Recep Efe, Shahina Ghazanfar, Munir Ozturk, 2012-03-15 The Mediterranean Basin with its mountainous shores high biodiversity and spectacular scenery is located at the intersection of Africa and Eurasia Through the 8000 years of human development in this area there have been tremendous changes in its history and biogeography Approximately 300 million people live here today Although the evergreen maquis vineyards olive plantations and natural woodlands cover the lands all over the basin it is facing severe destruction of habitats due to deforestation intensive grazing fires and in particular a severe coastal degradation due to infrastructure development which is changing the landscape Both the historical heritage and geography of the land is facing a great threat due to urbanisation and fragmentation Time has come for its inhabitants to weigh their impact on its ecogeography in order to save the biodiversity as well as the history of the basin This book synthesises the knowledge from different disciplines so as to increase awareness among the humans in the basin

Inflamed Anne E. Belden, Paul Gullixson, Lauren A. Spates, 2023-10-31 WINNER OF THE 2023 IRE BOOK AWARD WINNER OF THE NATIONAL INDIE EXCELLENCE AWARD FOR REGIONAL NONFICTION FINALIST OF THE NATIONAL INDIE EXCELLENCE AWARD FOR AGING AND CAREGIVING NOMINEE OF THE NORTHERN CALIFORNIA BOOK AWARD The dramatic story of hundreds of senior citizens left in the path of a ferocious firestorm and what the quest for accountability reveals about the increasing risks to our most vulnerable population A harrowing saga that pits corporate pusillanimity against dogged courage under the most difficult circumstances in Belden and Gullixson s gripping espos There s cowardice in this dramatic narrative but at heart it s about ordinary people displaying extraordinary grace under extreme pressure all conveyed in intense atmospheric prose The result is a moving re creation of a nightmarish disaster that tested the character of all those in its path Kirkus starred review a powerful work of investigative journalism about a particularly vulnerable segment of the population Alongside an engrossing account of the emergency as it unfolded in Sonoma County Belden and Gullixson provide a definitive account of management s woefully inadequate response at the two sister facilities Their findings are a lesson to other care facilities here s what not to do San Francisco Chronicle Just after midnight on October 9 2017 as one of the nation s deadliest and most destructive firestorms swept over California s Wine Country hundreds of elderly residents from two posh senior living facilities were caught in its path The frailest were blind in wheelchairs or diagnosed with dementia and their community quickly transformed from a palatial complex that pledged to care for them to one that threatened to entomb them The rescue of the final 105 seniors left behind on an inflamed hillside depended not on employees but strangers whose lives intersected in a riveting tale of terror and heroism Headlines blamed caregivers for abandonment and neglect but the truth proved far more complex leading to a battle for accountability that

stretched from the courtroom to the state legislature and ultimately to the ballot box Inflamed Abandonment Heroism and Outrage in Wine Country s Deadliest Firestorm is the gripping and emotional narrative detailing what happened to these seniors employees and rescuers before during and after the Tubbs Fire decimated portions of Santa Rosa including Oakmont Senior Living Villa Capri and part of Varenna at Fountaingrove Anne Belden and Paul Gullixson are professional journalists and Sonoma County residents who spent three years recording each phase of the disaster in agonizing detail from the botched evacuation and its excruciating aftermath to the investigations lawsuits and breakdowns that followed They tell this harrowing story with a veracity and compassion only achieved by experienced reporters with local roots Their narrative revisits the horrors of 2017 but also asks the reader to look to the future and consider how their community s most vulnerable will fare as ten thousand Baby Boomers retire each day the for profit assisted living industry rapidly expands and the climate becomes more volatile If this travesty can happen at high end senior living complexes it can happen anywhere

The Pyrocene Stephen J. Pyne, 2022-08-02 A provocative rethinking of how humans and fire have evolved together over time and our responsibility to reorient this relationship before it s too late The Pyrocene tells the story of what happened when a fire wielding species humanity met an especially fire receptive time in Earth s history Since terrestrial life first appeared flames have flourished Over the past two million years however one genus gained the ability to manipulate fire swiftly remaking both itself and eventually the world We developed small guts and big heads by cooking food we climbed the food chain by cooking landscapes and now we have become a geologic force by cooking the planet Some fire uses have been direct fire applied to convert living landscapes into hunting grounds forage fields farms and pastures Others have been indirect through pyrotechnologies that expanded humanity s reach beyond flame s grasp Still preindustrial and Indigenous societies largely operated within broad ecological constraints that determined how and when living landscapes could be burned These ancient relationships between humans and fire broke down when people began to burn fossil biomass lithic landscapes and humanity s firepower became unbounded Fire catalyzed climate change globalized the impacts into a new geologic epoch The Pleistocene yielded to the Pyrocene Around fires across millennia we have told stories that explained the world and negotiated our place within it The Pyrocene continues that tradition describing how we have remade the Earth and how we might recover our responsibilities as keepers of the planetary flame Living with Fire , 2004*
