Bernstein, 1992 Aesthetic alienation may be described as the paradoxical relationship whereby art and truth have come to be divorced from one another while nonetheless remaining entwined J M Bernstein not only finds the separation of art and truth problematic but also contends that we continue to experience art as sensuous and particular thus complicating and challenging the cultural self understanding of modernity Bernstein focuses on the work of four key philosophers Kant Heidegger Derrida and Adorno and provides powerful new interpretations of their views Bernstein shows how each of the three post Kantian aesthetics its concepts of judgment genius and the sublime to construct a philosophical language that can criticize and displace the categorical assumption of modernity He also examines in detail their responses to questions concerning the relations among art philosophy and politics in modern societies

Fate and Fortune in European Thought, ca. 1400-1650 Ovanes Akopyan, 2021-04-26 If the universe were conceived to fulfill a certain divine plan or to manifest God s will and glory what would the place of an individual be within this plan What is more if from the very beginning of its existence and through divine providence it were predestined to be driven toward a certain end how could people adjust their individual lives to the incognizable universal design and react to the obscure future fraught with both luck and failure These questions which have occupied humanity for centuries formed a remarkable element of early modern European thought This collection of essays presents new insights into what shaped and constituted reflections on fate and fortune between roughly 1400 and 1650 both in word and image This volume argues that these ideas were emblematic of a more fundamental argument about the self society and the universe and shows that their influence was more widespread geographically and thematically than hitherto assumed Contributors Damiano Acciarino Ovanes Akopyan Elisabeth Blum Paul Richard Blum Jo Coture Guido Giglioni Dalia Judovitz Sophie Raux Orlando Reade and John Sellars

UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary Sarah Brouillette, 2019-09-10 A case study of one of the most important global institutions of cultural policy formation UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary demonstrates the relationship between such policymaking and transformations in the economy Focusing on UNESCO's use of books Sarah Brouillette identifies three phases in the agency's history and explores the literary and cultural programming of each In the immediate postwar period healthy economies made possible the funding of an infrastructure in support of a liberal cosmopolitanism and the spread of capitalist democracy In the decolonizing 1960s and 70s illiteracy and lack of access to literature were lamented as a book hunger in the developing world and reading was touted as a universal humanizing value to argue for a more balanced communications industry and copyright regime Most recently literature has become instrumental in city and nation branding that drive tourism and the heritage industry Today the agency largely treats high literature as a commercially self sustaining product for wealthy aging publics and fundamental policy reform to address the uneven relations that characterize global intellectual property creation is off the table UNESCO's literary programming is in this way highly suggestive A trajectory that might appear to be one of triumphant success literary tourism and festival programming can be quite lucrative for some people is also under a different light a story of decline

Fate, Glory, and Love in Early Modern Gallery Decoration Margaretha Rossholm Lagerlof, 2017-07-05 Analysing the decorative programmes of the most opulent European palaces of the time Margaretha Rossholm Lagerl f investigates how meaning was conveyed through display and visual effects She explores the visual meaning inherent in the scheme of spatial relations in effects of scale perspective lighting figures positions and postures and in relations among image types The analysis concerns the interrelations of various kinds of images in the ensembles the relations between images and physical site and the address to the beholder Lagerl f considers the visual impact of the imagery in conjunction with readable or symbolically coded meanings thus the study does not merely subject these decorations to formalist aesthetic principles She shows the visual meaning generally to sustain the verbal or readable messages but often in subtle ways extending or elaborating the meaning Occasionally the visual meaning comes forth as an undercurrent or complication deviating from the proclaimed and symbolic meaning Fate Glory and Love in Early Modern Gallery Decoration contributes to the body of scholarship on visual rhetoric and on how images act out their messages The Fate of Eloquence in the Age of Hume Adam Potkay,1994 Potkay explains the sense of urgency that the concept of eloquence evoked among eighteenth century British readers for whom it recalled Demosthenes exhorting Athenian citizens to oppose tyranny Revived by Hume and many other writers the concept of eloquence resonated deeply for an audience who perceived its own political community as being in danger of disintegration Potkay also shows how beginning in the realm of literature the fashion of polite style began to eclipse that of political eloquence An ethos suitable both to the family circle and to a public sphere that included women politeness entailed a sublimation of passions a feminine modesty as opposed to masculine display and a style that sought rather to placate or stabilize than to influence the course of events The Fate of Fortune in the Early Middle Ages Jerold C. Frakes,1988

The Bibliotheca Corvina. The Fate, Mission and Destiny of a Library István Monok,2023 In 2022 the question what is the need for a library is becoming increasingly frequent Many of those who believe that humanity is developing are particularly confused by the kilometers of books that have been accumulated Not knowing that the digital library is also a library and not knowing that we still have a long way to go before the written heritage of humanity becomes part of the numerical world Even then humanity will not develop but suffice it to say that technology does If we look at the library of the Hungarian King Matthias Hunyadi 1443 1490 the Bibliotheca Corvina we can follow its history along similar lines Why and how the collection was created which in the opinion of the political leaders of the Hungarian Kingdom not necessarily more cultured than nowadays was meant to be pro decore Regni i e for the pride of the country The arrival of Beatrix of Aragon 1457 1508 and her entourage to Buda 1476 accelerated the book collection process In Europe between 1470 and 1520 Western Christianity existed in a shared world of values Within the Christian Church as a monk named Martin Luther 1473 1546 did the texts of the early church fathers and of the saints of personal religiosity were published analysed and interpreted while secular humanists did the same with the ancient corpus of texts and the textual memories that have been preserved from the early church fathers Furthermore they collected sources with people like Cosimo de Medici il Vecchio 1389 1464 who had the

Bibliotheca Graeca and Bibliotheca Latina chambers set up in the convent of San Marco in Florence and with people like Matthias Corvinus who did the same in Buda

The Fate of the Dead in Early Third Century North African Christianity

Eliezer Gonzalez, 2014-02-24

The ideology and imagery in the Passion of Perpetua are mediated heavily by traditional Graeco Roman culture in particular by traditional notions of the afterlife and of the ascent of the soul This context for understanding the Passion of Perpetua aligns well with the available material evidence and with the writings of Tertullian with whose ideology the text of Perpetua is in an implicit polemical dialogue Eliezer Gonzalez analyzes how the Passion of Perpetua provides us with early literary evidence of an environment in which the Graeco Roman and Christian cults of the dead including the cults of the martyrs and saints appear to be very much aligned He also shows that the text of the Passion of Perpetua and the writings of Tertullian provide insights into an early stage in the polemic between these two conceptualisations of the afterlife of the righteous
