Local Remedies In International Law:

Local Remedies in International Law Chittharanjan Felix Amerasinghe, 2001      International Law Malcolm N. Shaw, 2003-09-25 This fifth edition of Malcolm Shaw's bestselling textbook on international law provides a clear authoritative and comprehensive introduction to the subject fully revised and updated to Spring 2003 Basically preserving the structure which made the previous edition so successful a new chapter on Inter state Courts and Tribunals considers the role of the International Court of Justice and the International Tribunal on the Law of the Sea and there is a new chapter on international humanitarian law Also examined are arbitration tribunals and the role of international institutions such as the WTO in resolving conflicts The prosecution of individuals for violations of international law is examined Additional coverage of events in Kosovo and Iraq analyses the questions of humanitarian intervention and the role of the UN Written in a clear and accessible style setting the subject firmly in the context of world politics and the economic and cultural influences affecting it this book remains a highly readable and invaluable resource for students and practitioners alike The scope of the text makes this essential reading for students of international law international relations and the political sciences The book is also valuable to professionals and governmental and international civil servants      The Application of the Rule of Exhaustion of Local Remedies in International Law Antônio Augusto Cançado Trindade, 1983 This publication focuses on the relationship between general international law and the specific legal remedies established by individual treaties      Local Remedies in International Law Chittharanjan Felix Amerasinghe, 1990 By the respondent State      Recueil Des Cours, 1987, II Académie de Droit International, 1988-05-01 Cases      The Application of the Rule of Exhaustion of Local Remedies in International Law A. A. Cançado Trindade, 1983      The International Law of Investment Claims Zachary Douglas, 2009-06-11 The International Law of Investment Claims considers the distinct principles governing the prosecution of a claim in investment treaty arbitration The principles are codified as 54 rules of general application on the juridical foundations of investment treaty arbitration the jurisdiction of the tribunal the admissibility of claims and the laws applicable to different aspects of the investment dispute The commentary to each proposed rule contains a critical analysis of the investment treaty jurisprudence and makes extensive reference to the decisions of other international courts and tribunals as well as to the relevant experience of municipal legal orders Solutions are elaborated in respect of the most intractable problems that have arisen in the cases including the effect of an exclusive jurisdiction clause in an investment agreement with the host state reliance on the MFN clause in relation to jurisdictional provisions and the legitimate scope of derivative claims by shareholders      The Settlement of Disputes in International Law John Greenwood Collier, Vaughan Lowe, 2000 In the second part of the book the emerging principles of procedural law applied in these tribunals are discussed Jacket      The Access of Individuals to International Justice Antônio Augusto Cançado Trindade, 2011-08-25 This is a domain that has undergone a remarkable development in recent years It is submitted that the right of access to justice belongs today to the domain of jus cogens Without it there is no legal system at all The protection of the human person in the most adverse circumstances has evolved amongst considerations of ordre public Such recent evolution has been contributing to the gradual expansion of the material content of jus cogens

International Law David Patariaia, 2021-11-29 International Law Text Cases and Materials provides not only an essential introduction to the core concepts and foundational principles of international law but also a detailed overview of each established area in which international law operates Featuring cases materials and illustrative figures throughout to enhance the level of context and detail provided the book covers everything a student of international law requires Topics include the law of treaties international organisations the international protection of human rights responsibility in international law jurisdiction diplomatic and consular law territory in international law the law of the sea international air and space law international economic law international environmental law and international humanitarian law This comprehensive textbook will be essential reading not only for any course on international law but also as a starting point for those wishing to grasp the context of a particular area of international law before exploring further

The International Law on Foreign Investment M. Sornarajah, 2010-05-06 Given recent seismic upheavals in the world's money markets an updated edition of an authoritative reliable textbook on the international law of foreign investment has rarely been so timely Sornarajah's classic text surveys how international law has developed to protect foreign investments by multinational actors and to control any misconduct on their part It analyses treaty based methods examining the effectiveness of bilateral and regional investment treaties It also considers the reverse flow of investments from emerging industrialising powers such as China and Brazil and explores the retreat from market oriented economics to regulatory controls By offering thought provoking analysis of not only the law but related developments in economics and political sciences Sornarajah gives immediacy and relevance to the discipline This book is required reading for all postgraduate and undergraduate international law students specialising in the law of foreign investments
