Porter,Wendy J. Porter,2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us     Essays on Kant Henry E. Allison, 2012-06-28 This volume presents 17 essays by one of the world's leading scholars on Kant Henry E. Allison explores the nature of transcendental idealism freedom of the will and the concept of the purposiveness of nature He places Kant's views in their historical context and explores their contemporary relevance to present day philosophers     Some

Turns of Thought in Modern Philosophy Harry Kraus, 1967     Santayana the Philosopher Daniel Moreno, 2015-03-06 Regarding Santayana it has been claimed that he lacks a system while contradicting himself in outrageous ways An attentive analysis of his complete oeuvre however reveals something else entirely It is not easy to classify a thinker as a Platonic materialist an ironic nihilist a spiritual atheist and a conservative without political commitment but if one respects his own language one discerns an astonishing little known Santayana whose philosophical leitmotif consists in 1 detecting the numerous false steps logical and moral supplied by the imagination when it confuses things with the names that designate them or the world with the feelings that it provokes in the human animal these errors assume diverse faces pantheism moralism egotism subjectivism transcendentalism Platonism Puritanism and utopianism 2 avoiding these illusions in such a way as to keep the spiritual door open as a form of life to be lived out in an honest fashion 3 recognizing the natural origin of these temptations and asking oneself what moves humans to succumb imperceptibly to these mistakes at times tragic at others comical and what precautions one can take to remain cognizant of the deceitful leaps that can hijack one's life and 4 proposing as an alternative the radical distinction between essence and existence which leads him to distinguish four realms of being the realm of essence the realm of matter the realm of truth and the realm of spirit Essence as logical identity matter as contingent existence truth as frozen history and spirit as the flames that part from contingency and approximate the eternal An attempt has been made in this book to expand on and clarify these questions     Intention and Identity John Finnis, 2011-04-07 Intention and Identity presents John Finnis's accounts of personal existence group identity and common good and the moral significance of personal intention Joining conceptual analysis with ethical problems surrounding the beginning and end of life the papers show the power of a neglected aspect of Finnis's natural law theory     Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume II Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-19 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us
