author has limited himself as much as possible to a discussion of their activities at The Hague There is an almost complete absence of newspaper criticism on the Haagsche Schouwburg throughout the first three fourths of the Nineteenth Century but this lack would be far more serious if the greater part of the period at least from about 1830 to 1876 had not been one of theatrical and dramatic poverty We have enough sources to know that the performances and plays were rarely better than mediocre The little newspaper criticism available is usually of such an adulatory nature that it can hardly be called helpful
