Five Folk-Songs David Willcocks, 1975 Journal of the Folk-Song Society Folk-Song Society (Great Britain), 1922
Contains music Vaughan Williams Eric Saylor, 2022 In this volume author Eric Saylor revisits the life and work of famed British musician Ralph Vaughan Williams with particular attention to the relationship between his work and his life The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular, 1914 Charles Faulkner Bryan Carolyn Livingston, 2003 Livingston discusses selected examples of his music in detail BOOK JACKET The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular, 1921

Johannes Brahms Johannes Brahms, 1997 This book is the first comprehensive collection of the letters of Johannes Brahms ever to appear in English Over 550 are included virtually all uncut and there are over a dozen published here for the first time in any language Although he corresponded throughout his life with some of the great performers composers musicologists writers scientists and artists of the day and although thousands of his letters have survived English readers have until now had scant opportunity to meet Brahms in person through his words and in his own voice The letters in this volume range from 1848 to just before his death They include most of Brahms's letters to Robert Schumann over a hundred letters to Clara Schumann and the complete Brahms Wagner correspondence They are joined by a running commentary to form an absorbing narrative documented with scholarly care provided with comprehensive notes but written for the general music lover the result is a lively biography The work is generously illustrated and contains several detailed appendices and an index Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Brahms Karl Geiringer, Irene Geiringer, 2024-11-01 Originally published in 1936 as a second edition in 1948 and as an enlarged and third edition in 1982 Karl Geiringer's biography of Brahms is generally regarded as one of the finest studies of the composer ever published in any language It is based on the body of material in the archives of the Viennese Society of Friends for which Karl Geiringer was curator from 1930-1938 and which contains more than a thousand letters written by and to Brahms These letters exchanged with family and with his famous contemporaries reveal his loneliness grim humour loyalty painful shyness and enthusiasm for the music of Beethoven and Schubert moods that the self-effacing composer did not like to publicly display Divided into sections on Brahms's solitary scholarly existence and his fruitful composing career including examinations of rare first drafts the biography relates how crises in Brahms's personal life were translated into his music and how he often managed to ignore or suppress them The Cambridge Companion to Brahms Michael

Musgrave, 1999-05-27 This Companion gives a comprehensive view of the German composer Johannes Brahms 1833-97. Twelve specially commissioned chapters by leading scholars and musicians provide systematic coverage of the composer's life and works. Their essays represent recent research and reflect changing attitudes towards a composer whose public image has long been out of date. The first part of the book contains three chapters on Brahms's early life in Hamburg and on the middle and later years in Vienna. The central section considers the musical works in all genres while the last part of the book offers personal accounts and responses from a conductor (Roger Norrington), a composer (Hugh Wood) and an editor of Brahms's original manuscripts (Robert Pascall). The volume as a whole is an important addition to Brahms scholarship and provides indispensable information for all students and enthusiasts of Brahms's music. Fourteen bagatelles, op. 6, piano solo Béla Bartók, 1950 Music Clubs Magazine, 1933
