Five Pieces Op 3 For Piano:

Forty-five Pieces for Pianoforte Edvard Grieg, 1901 SchenkerGUIDE Thomas Pankhurst, 2008-05-07 SchenkerGUIDE is an accessible overview of Heinrich Schenker's complex but fascinating approach to the analysis of tonal music. The book has emerged out of the widely used website www.SchenkerGUIDE.com which has been offering straightforward explanations of Schenkerian analysis to undergraduate students since 2001. Divided into four parts, SchenkerGUIDE offers a step-by-step method to tackling this often difficult system of analysis. Part I is an introduction to Schenkerian analysis outlining the concepts that are involved in analysis. Part II outlines a unique and detailed working method to help students to get started on the process of analysis. Part III puts some of these ideas into practice by exploring the basics of a Schenkerian approach to form, register, motives, and dramatic structure. Part IV provides a series of exercises from the simple to the more sophisticated along with hints and tips for their completion.

Piano Duet Repertoire Cameron McGraw, 2016-05-09 Since the 1981 publication of the first edition, Cameron McGraw's Piano Duet Repertoire has been a trusted guide for duet performers. This second edition, edited and substantially expanded by Christopher and Katherine Fisher, brings the volume into the 21st century, adding over 500 new or updated composer entries and nearly 1,000 new work entries to the volume, a testament to the renewed interest in piano duet playing. Entries are arranged alphabetically by composer and include both pedagogical and concert repertoire. The annotations and the grade level indications provide piano teachers a wealth of instructional guidance. The book also contains updated appendices listing collections and duet works with voice and other instruments. This new edition features a title index and a list of composers by nationality, making it a convenient and indispensable resource.

Composers in the Classroom James Michael Floyd, 2011-02-07 Composers in the Classroom is a bio-bibliographical dictionary chronicling the careers and work of over 120 composers associated with conservatories, colleges, and universities in the United States and Puerto Rico. Scholars and students of music seeking critical information about composers who have taken on the mantle of instruction will find a wealth of detail on their subjects. Painstakingly obtained through direct correspondence with the composers themselves, Floyd includes within each entry a short biography of the composer's life and education, lists of previous positions, most prominent commissions, awards, and honors, and notable performers of the subject's work. Each entry also contains a discography of the recordings and a bibliography of writings by the composer. Researchers will find especially useful the organization of each subject's compositions by a variety of types. These include vocal, choral, assembly, dramatic, keyboard solo, instrument, handbells, chamber music, jazz ensemble, band, and wind ensemble, band, and wind ensemble with solo instruments, orchestra, orchestra with solo instruments, film, television, commercial, electro-acoustic, and multimedia arrangements, transcriptions, and editions, and reconstructions. Music scholars will find under each work not only the title and date of composition but also the date of revision, commission, and dedication information, as well as other pertinent details ranging from the names of collaborators to alternate titles under which works may circulate. Composers in
