Flames Of Glory:

Wounds of Love Frank Graziano, 2004-01-15 The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginity austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose s entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose s case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose s canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose s competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic s wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism

The Yoga Aphorisms of Patanjali Patañjali,1881 Flames of Glory Patricia Matthews,1983-12-08 The Works ... Containing the Several Parts of the Christian Life, with His Sermons and Discourses Scott,1718 The Choir ,1921 The Yoga Aphorisms of Patañjali Patañjali,1883 The Poems of Edward Taylor Edward Taylor,2014-12-01 Now considered America s foremost colonial poet Edward Taylor was virtually unknown until some of his poems were discovered in the Yale library and published in 1937 The intellectual brilliance and the emotional intensity of his poetical meditations have led critics to compare him to John Donne and George Herbert These poems are now recognized as one of the great achievements in American devotional literature

The works of ... John Scott. To which is added, a sermon preached at his funeral, by Z. Isham John Scott,1826 The Yoga Aphorisms of Patañjali with the Commentary of Bhoja Rájá and an english Translation by Rajendralala Mitra Patañjali,1883 The Works of ... John Scott. Katz,2013 This collection of primary texts introduces readers to the mystical literature of the world s great religious traditions Beginning with an introduction by Steven T Katz a leading scholar of mysticism the anthology comprises poetry prayer narrative and other writings from Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Buddhist Taoist Confucianist and Native American traditions This collection provides readers not only with the primary mystical texts from each religious tradition but with an explanation of the context of the source and tradition Comparative Mysticism shows how the great mystical traditions of the world are deeply rooted in the religious traditions from which they originated The contextual methodological approach taken throughout the anthology also addresses the critical question of what these mystical traditions at their highest level have in common Despite the prevailing view that mystical traditions throughout the world are essentially similar the presentation of the sources in this volume suggests that in fact the various traditions have distinct teachings and different metaphysical goals The writings collected in Comparative Mysticism address the most fundamental and important methodological epistemological and hermeneutical questions regarding the study and interpretation of mysticism and mystical sources across cultures This anthology will be an invaluable resource to students and scholars of mystic tradition for years to come

Hierophantic Landscapes Richard Leviton,2011-09-26 The Earth is poised to make a great disclosure Its a hierophant But whats a hierophant A person who reveals the holy light But it can also be a landscape or a planet And whats the holy light It is the structure of reality and consciousness a map of the heavenly realms the engineering blueprint of Creation Some people call this imminent disclosure the Apocalypse and run for cover But that is mistaken Apocalypse means the revelation of the divine revelation It means the end of our picture of the world as we know it The world itself will be fine even better than fine Splendid Illumined The Architect of reality lays down His cards face up and you see the whole deck Here is the truth of yourself and the Earth How will this disclosure work What we call sacred sites and holy landscapes will start revealing themselves in full to us in all their geomantic and visionary richness Thats the inner patterning of their design their arrays of Light temples and subtle palaces primed for our visionary adventures and edification The Earth needs us to have these adventures and visions because thats how we keep the planet healthy Hierophantic Landscapes visits five landscapes from Norway and England to California and Mexico providing firsthand reports on the visions and adventures of a small band of geomancers as they seek to unravel the mysteries of the Earth Maybe not such a small band because along the way we encounter angels landscape devas Nature Spirits and otherworldly mentors and revel in vistas of the ancient past of the Earth when that revelation was as fresh as a sunrise as it will soon be again

Viśvarūpa T. S. Maxwell,1988 Visvarupa is a term used in the Bhagavadgita to describe Arjuna s vision of Kṛṣṇa manifested as God This book traces through the study of selected north Indian sculptures and bronzes the various artistic attempts to achieve a plastic interpretation of that vision Maxwell draws on Sanskrit texts to recount the stylistic and iconographical history of this cosmic deity from its origins to its decline and explores relevant Saiva Brahma and Buddhist imagery

The Poetics of Ascent Naomi Janowitz,2012-02-01 This book represents the first English translation of Maaseh Merkabah which is part of a body of early Jewish mystical texts known as palace hekhalot or chariot merkabah texts Through a complex dialogue a rabbi teacher reveals to his student the techniques of ascent methods for traveling up through the heavens by means of recitation of hymns The teacher gives vivid descriptions of the heavenly realm filled with flaming chariots and a chorus of angels engaged in praising the deity The emphasis in the text is on language on the correct recitation of the words to achieve the ritual The particular focus is on the divine Name which can be employed in unusual ways The author relates the structures of the text to the linguistic ideologies The complex structures of the text begin to unfold in light of the theories about the ritual function of language The hymns include praise of the deity and voces magicae words that have no semantic meaning but draw attention to sounds of letters in God s name Since God s name is used to create the world the sounds of the name are creative but the Name cannot be spoken The hymns create a multiplicity of Name equivalents words that have the functional status of the divine Name and which can be employed in ritual Voces magicae are not so much nonsense as they are logical extensions of the linguistic theory The final chapter surveys recent theories of ritual language and then uses the conclusions from the study to refine the general issue of the relationship between the semantic meaning of words and their ritual efficacy The dialogic structure of the text permits the reader to become the next student in a chain going back to the deity by means of Moses
