Varieties of African American Religious Experience Anthony B. Pinn, 1998 Pinn's work provides a fascinating look especially at Vodoo Santeria the Nation of Islam and Black Humanists in the United States Cover The Cambridge History of African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Jerry Washington Ward, 2011-02-03 A major new history of the literary traditions oral and print of African descended peoples in the United States We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023 New Jersey in the American Revolution Barbara J. Mitnick, 2007-03-12 This remarkably comprehensive anthology brings new life to the rich and turbulent late 18th century period in New Jersey Originally conceived for the state's 225th Anniversary of the Revolution Celebration Commission Terror and Triumph Anthony B. Pinn, 2022-07-26 Given the unique history of African Americans and their diverse religious flowering in Black Christianity the Nation of Islam voodoo and others what is the heart and soul of African American religious life As a leader in both Black religious studies and theology Anthony Pinn has probed the dynamism and variety of African American religious expressions In this work based on the Edward Cadbury Lectures at the University of Birmingham England he searches out the basic structure of Black religion tracing the Black religious spirit in its many historical manifestations Pinn finds in the terrors of enslavement of Black bodies and subsequent oppressions the primal experience to which the Black religious impulse provides a perennial and cumulative response Oppressions entailed the denial of personhood and creation of an object the negro Slave auctions punishments and later lynchings created an existential dread but also evoked a quest a search for complex subjectivity or authentic personhood that still fuels Black religion today In this 20th anniversary edition of Pinn's groundbreaking work the author offers a new reflection on the argument in retrospect and invites a panel of five contemporary scholars to examine what it means for current and future scholarship Contributors include Keri Day Sylvester Johnson Anthony G Reddie Calvin Warren and Carol Wayne White

The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Hudley, Claudine Michel, 2004-05-15 Black studies emerged from the tumultuous social and civil rights movements of the 1960s and empowered African Americans to look at themselves in new ways and pass on a dignified version of Black history However it also enriched traditional disciplines in profound and significant ways Proponents of Black and ethnic studies confronted the false notion that scholarly investigations were objective and unbiased explorations of the range of human knowledge history creativity artistry and scientific discovery As they protested against hegemonic notions like universal psychology and re-evaluated canonical texts in literature a new model of academic inquiry evolved one committed to serving a range of populations that critiqued traditional politics culture and social affairs and worked with activist energy for the transformation of the existing social order With an all star cast of contributors The Black Studies Reader takes on the history and future of this multi-faceted academic field Topics include Black feminism cultural politics Black activism lesbian and gay issues African American literature and film education and religion This authoritative collection takes a critical look at the current state of Black studies and speculates on where it may go from here

Spiritual Merchants Carolyn Morrow Long, 2001 They can be found along the side streets of many American cities herb or candle shops catering to practitioners of Voodoo hoodoo Santería and similar beliefs Here one can purchase ritual items and raw materials for the fabrication of traditional charms plus a variety of soaps powders and aromatic goods known in the trade as spiritual products For those seeking health or success love or protection these potions offer the power of the saints and the authority of the African gods In Spiritual Merchants Carolyn Morrow Long provides an inside look at the followers of African-based belief systems and the retailers and manufacturers who supply them Traveling from New Orleans to New York from Charleston to Los Angeles she takes readers on a tour of these shops examines the origins of the products and profiles the merchants who sell them Long describes the principles by which charms are thought to operate how ingredients are chosen and the uses to which they are put She then explores the commodification of traditional charms and the evolution of the spiritual products industry from small scale mail order doctors and hoodoo drugstores to major manufacturers who market their products worldwide She also offers an eye-opening look at how merchants who are not members of the culture entered the business through the manufacture of other goods such as toiletries incense and pharmaceuticals Her narrative includes previously unpublished information on legendary Voodoo queens and hoodoo workers as well as a case study of John the Conqueror root and its metamorphosis from spirit embodying charm to commercial spiritual product No other book deals in such detail with both the history and current practices of African-based belief systems in the United States and the evolution of the spiritual products industry For students of folklore or anyone intrigued by the world of charms and candle shops Spiritual Merchants examines the confluence of African and European religion in the Americas and provides a colorful introduction to a vibrant aspect of contemporary culture The Author Carolyn Morrow Long is a preservation specialist and conservator at the the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of American History Grime, Glitter, and Glass Nikki A. Greene,2024-08-30 In Grime Glitter and Glass Nikki A Greene examines how contemporary Black visual artists use sonic elements to refigure the formal and philosophical developments of Black art and culture Focusing on the multimedia art of Ren e Stout Radcliffe Bailey and Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons Greene traces the intersection of the visual s sonic possibilities with the Black body s physical representational and metaphorical use in art She employs her concept of visual aesthetic musicality to interpret Black visual art by examining the musical genres of jazz and rap along with the often overlooked innovations of funk and rumba within art historiography From Bailey s use of multilayered surfaces of glitter mud and recycled materials to meditate on Sun Ra s Afrofuturism to Stout s life sized cast of her own body that recalls funk musician Betty Davis to Campos Pons s performative and sculptural references to sugar that resonate with the legacy of Celia Cruz Greene outlines how these artists use mediums such as molded glass sculptures viscous wet plaster and dazzling manikin heads to enhance the manifestations of Black identity By foregrounding the sonic elements of their work Greene demonstrates that these artists use sound to make themselves legible recognizable and audible Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson,2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art the long anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked Completely revised retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition with all other material being new inclusions Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America Europe and Australasia juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches lesbian and queer theory and postmodernism to education and aesthetics Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland,Robert E. Weems Jr.,2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Black
