Carnation Joseph Murphy, 2000-09-01 The story is a fast paced human drama High school is a time of innocence a time for fun when adolescents establish a set of values that will last a lifetime In 1957 teens were carousing all across the country as the 1950s were in full roar The Bronx New York was no different Relive the adventures of the in crowd at St Helenas Catholic high school as they learn the importance of friendship and the meaning of love On a lark four high school seniors celebrate an 18th birthday party in the school cafeteria The only problems were that the school was closed for the night and they brought along a keg of beer for the party The nuns living three floors above hear the commotion and think a rape is in process and phone the police causing all Hell to break loose The influence of the church and school seemed limitless Most of the clergy served as a maturing authority to guide their students along the straight and narrow path However one rouge administrator had his own interpretation of the Lords missive From this Brothers prospective it was the principle behind the punishment that mattered Responsible adults would be developed out of irresponsible boys His actions and excessive punishments aimed at breaking down a select few pranksters would only serve as a rallying point to unify the student body and faculty to support the targets of his vengeance The Circus Is in Town Lisa Doris Alexander, Joel Nathan

Roger Pielke,2016-09-13 Roger Pielke reveals how sports stars break the rules in their search for a competitive edge Both entertaining and thought provoking THE EDGE not only visits the battlefields in the war against cheating and corruption but also explores ways to ensure that the spirit of sport can survive in today s high tech highly professional world Drawing on controversies straight out of the headlines Pielke looks at doping match fixing fake amateurism and other ways of breaking the rules But are those rules and the values they reflect hopelessly outdated Wonderfully readable and scrupulously researched THE EDGE blends science and journalism to produce an unforgettable account of sport in crisis Cinema under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung,2024-11-15 Cinema under National Reconstruction calls for a revisionist understanding of state film censorship during successive Cold War military regimes in South Korea 1961 1988 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive s digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Hye Seung Chung makes the case that while political oppression repression existed inside and outside the film industry during this period film censorship was not simply a tool for authoritarian dictatorship Through such case studies as Yu Hyun mok s The Stray Bullet 1961 Ha Kil jong s The March of the Fools 1975 and Yi Chang ho s Declaration of Fools 1983 the author defines censorship as a dialogical process of cultural negotiations wherein the state the film industry and the public fight out a battle over the definitions and functions of national cinema In the context of Cold War Korea one cannot fully understand or construct film history without reassessing censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the new narrative or sentiment of the nation on the big screen
