Justice for Marlys John S. Munday Munday, 2006-02 Marlys Wohlenhaus was an animated energetic eighteen year old girl Then one afternoon everything changed She should have been safe working at the town restaurant She should have been safe in her own home She should still be alive today But in May 1979 Marlys became the victim in every parent s most horrific nightmare At once a gripping story and an in depth look at the grief of losing a child Justice for Marlys relates the true account of a serial killer Joseph Ture Jr who slipped past the law again and again during a three year long crime spree It was Ture who brutally murdered Marlys Wohlenhaus in her own home John S Munday the husband of Marlys s mother reconstructs the murder and the seventeen year investigation that led to the capture and conviction of Ture allowing the reader to explore the horror obsession dedication and finally the peace that he and his wife experienced in the search for and eventual conviction of her daughter s killer Justice for Marlys generates suspense and sympathy as Munday recounts how Marlys s case was solved through the efforts of the victim s tenacious family supportive news media and persistent investigators Munday gives readers a terrifying sense of the unimaginable grief and despair in the hearts of those who lose a child yet he also shares his intensely personal exploration of the resilience and power within the human spirit John S Munday is an intellectual property attorney who lives with his wife Fran in Isanti County Minnesota He is also the author of Surviving the Death of a Child a contributing editor for Grief Digest and a member of the board of directors of the Other Side Magazine

Reclaiming The Woods A Memoir of Healing John S. Munday, 2022-06-10 This is a love story It is a journey through horrendous grief traveling through unbelievable shock to a destination of giving sharing love in the way it is supposed to be universal When I read Marlys in Heaven some time ago my heart was deeply touched This book is what was done with those memories How does our culture see love Romantic and certainly this was a huge part of recovery Love is vast I m reminded of my high school motto Amor Vincit Omnia Love conquers all When I read on I realized that these two amazing people took that pain and together with their faith did so much to bring love to the less fortunate They didn t just accept the churches teachings they examined who would touch their hearts and souls to do so much for Marlys s memory It is that love that sustains them to this day Overcoming is not the same as getting over Simply that beloved daughter will always remain the Grand Canyon of their hearts as they continue on their spiritual path It seems to me they have planted beautiful flowers in that canyon in memory of the lovely Marlys In their case there is a strong practical aspect The reality is that people are suffering all over the world Fran and John have done so much to alleviate that condition I am writing the effect this book had on me Nothing I say will do it justice It is a must read for all Not only does it highlight the huge risks they had to take the decisions they made the disappointment setbacks joys It is a testament to Marlys who turned grief into intense love and commitment I am reminded of a tapestry that hangs on my office door from the Dalai Lama This is my simple religion There is no need for temples No need for complicated philosophies My brain and my heart are my temples My philosophy is kindness This is how I see Fran and John They have taken what was the unthinkable and made it into a vibrant memorial to the beautiful Marlys This is the sentence that summed it all up for me When driving along the Saint Croix River Fran said I miss Marlys but I have my memories I need to live with what I have now Just keep driving So that s what they did and are still doing driving on Yvonne Kaye PhD MSC www.yvonnekayewisdom.com Hate is the Sin John S.

Munday,2010-11-01 Arguments based in doctrine and scripture over the inclusion of homosexual people within Christian congregations and sacraments have done little to persuade the faithful on either side of this debate Hate is the Sin Putting Faces on the Debate over Human Sexuality approaches this divisive subject through portraits of the faith of gay and lesbian persons presents both sides of the controversy revealing how preformed opinions shape widely divergent interpretations of biblical and theological issues Included are the true stories of Mary Albing serving as a pastor while in a lesbian relationship Jay Wiesner whose congregation defied the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by ordaining and installing him in an Extraordinary Candidacy Project ceremony David Glesne who sought to heal relationships with gays and lesbians and yet deny them ordination and cohabitation and other accounts of the ways that many congregations have struggled to welcome homosexual people and to realize the Christian message within their own churches Hate is the Sin Putting Faces on the Debate over Human Sexuality is an insightful and detailed account of this contemporary debate and required reading for any person hoping to understand Christianity and the spiritual lives of contemporary Christian people Stories of Transformative Justice Ruth Morris,2000 Can justice be healing Can crime victims find a new peace through transformative processes that include victims offenders and community in creative solutions that enable all to grow We can turn irritation into iridescence find ways to take the hard blows of life and use the very power of our pain to grow from the experience and create new hope beyond crime or other trauma Forgiveness is an untapped force in our revenge oriented culture These stories show that forgiveness is not condoning or forgetting or failing to set limits Forgiveness is recognizing and acknowledging all that was wrong but refusing to be destroyed by it and refusing to be drawn into a cycle of hatred and bitterness We can change our criminal justice system to include transformative methods We can change our world to one with greater social and economic justice For readers who yearn for realistic hope in these troubled times this is a must read

Searching for Justice Fred Kaufman, Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 2005-01-01 The Honourable Fred Kaufman has been a distinguished figure in Canadian law for a half century Born into a middle class Jewish family in mid 1920s Vienna Kaufman escaped to England on the eve of the Second World War In 1940 he was interned as an enemy alien and sent to Canada Released in 1942 Kaufman stayed in Canada where he went on to university and law school in Montreal

Kaufman was called to the Bar of Quebec in 1955 and practiced criminal law for eighteen years taking part in many of the famous cases of that period. In 1960 he secured the release of a young Pierre Elliott Trudeau from prison and in 1973 Trudeau returned the favour by personally informing Kaufman of his appointment to the Quebec Court of Appeal where he served for eighteen years including one as Acting Chief Justice of Quebec. Since his retirement in 1991 Kaufman has led numerous commissions and inquiries most notably the investigation into the wrongful conviction of Guy Paul Morin and the two year reassessment of the Steven Truscott case. Searching for Justice is Kaufman's remarkable story in his own words.
