smuggler who killed the policeman's parents and raped and killed his fifteen year old sister. The policeman shot the smuggler in the stomach then took him into the desert to tie his wrists and ankles to stakes and leave him to be eaten alive by wild animals. On David's first visit with the policeman he asks him if he has any regrets for what he did to the smuggler. The policeman says: "Not really. In fact I now wish I'd also skinned the son of a bitch alive." Supreme Court Appellate

Division-First Department , History as Art, Art as History Dipti Desai, Jessica Hamlin, Rachel Mattson, 2009-10-16
History as Art: Art as History pioneers methods for using contemporary works of art in the social studies and art classroom to enhance an understanding of visual culture and history. The fully illustrated interdisciplinary teaching toolkit provides an invaluable pedagogical resource complete with theoretical background and practical suggestions for teaching U.S. history topics through close readings of both primary sources and provocative works of contemporary art. History as Art: Art as History is an experientially grounded, practically minded pedagogical investigation meant to push teachers and students to think critically without sacrificing their ability to succeed in a standards-driven educational climate. Amid the educational debate surrounding rigid, unimaginative tests, classroom scripts, and bureaucratic mandates, this innovative book insists on an alternate set of educational priorities that promotes engagement with creative and critical thinking. Features include: A thought-provoking series of framing essays and interviews with contemporary artists address the pivotal questions that arise when one attempts to think about history and contemporary visual art together. An 8-page full-color insert of contemporary art plus over 50 black and white illustrations throughout. A Teaching Toolkit covering major themes in U.S. history provides an archive of suggested primary documents plus discussion suggestions and activities for putting theory into practice. Teaching activities keyed to the social studies and art curricula and teaching standards. Resources include annotated bibliographies for further study and lists of arts and media organizations. This sophisticated yet accessible textbook is a must-read resource for any teacher looking to draw upon visual and historical texts in their teaching and to develop innovative curriculum and meaningful student engagement. Race and the Greening of Atlanta Christopher C. Sellers, 2023-08-15
Race and the Greening of Atlanta turns an environmental lens on Atlanta s ascent to thriving capital of the Sunbelt over the twentieth century Uniquely wide ranging in scale from the city s variegated neighborhoods up to its place in regional and national political economies this book reinterprets the fall of Jim Crow as a democratization born of two metropolitan movements a well known one for civil rights and a lesser known one on behalf of the environment Arising out of Atlanta s Black and white middle classes respectively both movements owed much to New Deal capitalism s undermining of concentrated wealth and power if not racial segregation in the Jim Crow South Placing these two movements on the same historical page Christopher C Sellers spotlights those environmental inequities ideals and provocations that catalyzed their divergent political projects He then follows the intermittent sometimes vital alliances they struck as civil rights activists tackled poverty as a new environmental state arose and as Black politicians began winning elections Into the 1980s as a wealth concentrating style of capitalism returned to the city and Atlanta became a national poster child for sprawl the seedbeds spread both for a national environmental justice movement and for an influential new style of antistatism Sellers contends that this new conservatism sweeping the South with an antienvironmentalism and budding white nationalism that echoed the region s Jim Crow past once again challenged the democracy Atlantans had achieved

The Dead Are Arising: The Life of Malcolm X Les Payne, Tamara Payne, 2020-10-20 An epic award winning biography of Malcolm X that draws on hundreds of hours of personal interviews and rewrites much of the known narrative Les Payne the renowned Pulitzer Prize winning investigative journalist embarked in 1990 on a nearly thirty year long quest to create an unprecedented portrait of Malcolm X one that would separate fact from fiction The result is this historic National Book Award winning biography which interweaves previously unknown details of Malcolm X s life from harrowing Depression era vignettes to a moment by moment retelling of the 1965 assassination into an extraordinary account that contextualizes Malcolm X s life against the wider currents of American history Bookended by essays from Tamara Payne Payne s daughter and primary researcher who heroically completed the biography after her father's death in 2018 The Dead Are Arising affirms the centrality of Malcolm X to the African American freedom struggle

Liberating Histories Claire Norton, Mark Donnelly, 2018-07-11 Liberating Histories makes an original scholarly contribution to contemporary debates surrounding the cultural and political relevance of historical practices Arguing against the idea that specifically historical readings of the past are necessary or are compelled by the force of past events themselves this book instead focuses on other forms of past talk and how they function in politically empowering ways against social injustices Challenging the authority and constraints of academic history over the past this book explores various forms of past talk including art films activism memory nostalgia and archives Across seven clear chapters Claire Norton and Mark Donnelly show how activists and campaigners have used forms of past talk to unsettle common sense thinking about political and social problems how journalists artists curators filmmakers and performers have referenced the past in their practices of advocacy and how grassroots archivists help to circulate materials that challenge the power of authorised institutional archives to determine what gets to count as a demonstrable feature of the past and whose voices are part of the historical record Written in a lucid accessible manner and combining insightful critical analysis and philosophical argument with clear consideration of how different forms of past talk influence the narration of pasts in a variety of socio political contexts Liberating Histories is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in historiography and the ethical and political dimensions of the historical discipline

The Wrath to Come Sarah Churchwell, 2022-07-07 The history America never wanted you to read The narrative took my breath away Philippe Sands An extraordinarily and shockingly powerful read Peter Frankopan One of the must reads of the year Suzannah Lipscomb Brilliant and provocative Gavin Esler Sarah Churchwell examines one of the most enduringly popular stories of all time Gone with the Wind to help explain the divisions ripping the United States apart today Separating fact from fiction she shows how histories of mythmaking have informed America's racial and gender politics the controversies over Confederate statues the resurgence of white nationalism the Black Lives Matter movement the enduring power of the American Dream and the violence of Trumpism Gone with the Wind was an instant bestseller when it was published in 1936 its film version became the most successful Hollywood film of all time Today the story's racism is again a subject of controversy but it was just as controversial in the 1930s foreshadowing today's debates over race and American fascism In The Wrath to Come Sarah Churchwell charts an extraordinary journey through 160 years of American denialism From the Lost Cause to the romances behind the Ku Klux Klan from the invention of the ideal slave plantation to the erasure of interwar fascism Churchwell shows what happens when we do violence to history as collective denial turns fictions into lies and lies into a vicious reality

Just Results Ralph D. Ellis, 1998 In Just Results Ralph E Ellis provides an authoritative solution to one of the major problems in the field of public policy Until now analysts and planners have had no practical or accurate means of incorporating qualitative social concerns into the traditional quantitative formulas used in policymaking By introducing a justice factor a quantitative measure for social values Ellis opens the door for more balanced policy decisions Using concrete real world examples Ellis shows how policy analysts can better account for the use value or practical measurable utility of universally agreed upon social benefits such as life health safety and environmental preservation when making cost benefit analyses In this way policymakers and by extension society as a whole can avoid making unjust tradeoffs between important social values and comparatively frivolous economic benefits Drawing on philosophical works on justice from Kant through John Rawls this book is informed by a theoretical defense of distributive justice that emphasizes diminishing marginal utility thus favoring the poor Just Results is a stimulating and highly applicable book that will be of great interest to philosophers political scientists policy analysts and planners
