Justification By Faith:

The Doctrine of Justification by Faith John Owen, 2016-09-28 A puritan approach to justification Owen explores the early church and other historical thinking about the topic of justification Then he approaches the topic of faith and how importantly that plays in our being justified Lastly he expounds on the Lord Jesus righteousness as the reason that we can stand justified

Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-06-10 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance

Justification by Faith Gerhard O. Forde, 2012-04-11 Justification by faith alone labels the motor that energizes the Reformation The dynamic behind the language can still mean renewal for theology and church today but only if that legal metaphor is not left to stand alone Gerhard Forde calls for a recovery of Paul's equally vital metaphor of death resurrection which speaks of our dying to the old and being raised to new life in Christ Justification he contends is death and rising and where these complementary metaphors are allowed to interpret one another the Gospel can once again explode with all its original power This fresh appropriation of the confessional witness contributes not only to an enhanced understanding of Reformation teachings but also to an ecumenical dialogue that is zeroing in more closely on the catholic provenance and current vitality of the Augsburg Confession

Justification by Faith Nate Pickowicz, 2018-11-07 The battle of the Protestant Reformation was waged over this primary question How does a sinful person get right with a just God At the heart of it the Reformers contended that sinners are justified declared righteous by God through faith alone in Jesus Christ While Martin Luther is often credited with re-discovering the doctrine of justification it was Calvin who more fully explored the depths of this doctrine giving it a thorough treatment in his magisterial work Institutes of the Christian Religion In this volume Nate Pickowicz has selected out and edited Calvin's treatment on justification the marrow of Reformation doctrine Of Justification by Faith and Works William Law,1762 The Doctrine of Justification by Faith Through the Imputation of the Righteousness of Christ, Explained, Confirmed, & Vindicated John Owen,1677 Challenging the Traditional Interpretations of Justification by Faith, Part 1 John A. Campbell,Tony H. Espinosa,Mitchell J. Kennard,Joel I. Oladele,John-Paul Petrash,Kerry S. Robichaux,2022-01-01 This volume is the first of a two part work that evaluates the teaching of justification by faith from the early church to modern times in light of the Scriptures and the ministry of Watchman Nee and Witness Lee Part 1 begins with a thorough presentation of the evaluative standard by which the authors will measure the teachings of the various Christian traditions Then following a historical overview of justification by faith in the major traditions they proceed to give a detailed assessment of the doctrine as taught in the patristic era in the medieval era and by Martin Luther at the inception of the Protestant Reformation The volume aims to point out the shortcomings and contributions of the first 1 500 years of the church s teaching on justification by faith and to offer a fresh understanding of this foundational truth of the Christian faith No Other Gospel Josh Moody,2011-01-05 As fallen human beings we are quick to deviate from the true gospel for as Pastor Josh Moody writes we tend toward human gospels Believers must constantly battle to maintain the purity and simplicity of the gospel Paul was acutely aware of this as he wrote his letter to the Galatians He was writing to an established church experienced believers who had started to slip in their gospel witness Moody finds in Galatians particular relevance and parallels to many churches today Stemming from a series of sermons delivered to his church he examines thirty one reasons Paul gives for this gospel Moody writes this book with a pastor s heart addressing important topics such as The Gospel Not Moralism and The Use of Gospel Freedom Paul s message is foundational to the Christian faith and thoughtful readers will benefit from Moody s exposition Faith Alone---The Doctrine of Justification Thomas R. Schreiner,2015-09-15 Renowned biblical scholar Thomas Schreiner looks at the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine of justification and offers an updated defense of this pillar of Reformed theology Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola fide Schreiner Summarizes the history of the doctrine looking at the early church and the writings of several of the Reformers Walks readers through an examination of the key biblical texts in the Old and New Testament that support the Reformed understanding of justification Discusses whether justification is transformative or forensic and introduces readers to some of the contemporary challenges to the Reformation teaching of sola fide with particular attention to the new perspective on Paul Five hundred years after the Reformation the doctrine of justification by faith alone still needs to be understood and proclaimed In Faith Alone you will learn how the rallying cry of sola fide is rooted in the Scriptures and how to understand this doctrine in a fresh way THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches Faith Alone R. C. Sproul, 1999-02-01 A leading theologian explains the biblical doctrine of justification by faith alone and urges fellow evangelicals to embrace this classic Protestant teaching Justification by Faith Alone Jonathan Edwards, 2014-04-08 This work is the substance of two of Edwards' earliest printed lectures in 1738 Edwards was endeavoring to respond to encroaching Arminianism in his Northampton congregation as well as an abiding antinomianism in the colonies since the days of Anne Hutchinson This classic book demonstrates Edwards' lucid reasoning and solid Reformed and Biblical approach to the crucial issue of salvation Edwards follows Scripture showing that Christ is the center of the Gospel and the doctrine of justification the centerpiece of evangelism Edwards covers the intricacies of how believers are made righteous only through Christ's merits and that this justifying righteousness is equally imputed to all elect believers This is accomplished by the condition of faith as an instrument He demonstrates clearly the unscriptural nature of Arminianism and Antinomianism both being destructive to the true Gospel of Christ Edwards says Christians should strive after an increase of knowledge and no one should content themselves without some clear and distinct understanding in this point But we should believe in the general according to the clear and abundant revelations of God's word that it is none of our own excellency virtue or righteousness that is the ground of our being received from a state of condemnation into a state of acceptance in God's sight but only Jesus Christ and his righteousness and worthiness received by faith This I think to be of great importance This is not a scan or facsimile has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions Of Justification by Faith and Works; a dialogue between a Methodist and a Churchman William LAW (Author of "A Serious Call, " etc.), 1760

The Doctrine of Justification by Faith, Through the Imputation of the Righteousness of Christ John 1616-1683 Owen, 2023-07-18 In this seminal work of Christian theology John Owen explores the concept of justification through faith in Jesus Christ Drawing on scripture church history and philosophical arguments Owen provides a compelling defense of this essential doctrine of the Christian faith This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Right With God D. A. Carson, 2002-09-10 Right with God is a study of what the Bible has to say about justification along with reflections as to how this teaching ought to work out in a variety of contexts around the world In addition to the essays on particular parts of the Bible Paul Matthew Luke Acts John James the book includes an essay assessing recent thought on justification and another attempting to put together a synthesis of biblical perspectives on this important theme One chapter relates justification and personal Christian living another weighs the relationship between justification and social justice yet another evaluates the treatment of justification in Roman Catholicism and in various interfaith dialogues For some readers however the most innovative chapters will be those discussing the relevance of the Christian doctrine of justification by faith in Hindu Islamic and Buddhist contexts The contributors have been drawn from evangelical communities around the world Justification by Faith John MacArthur,1985 DOCTRINE OF JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH THROUGH THE IMPUTATION OF THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF CHRIST...
