Schomer, W. H. McLeod, 1987-01-01      The Bijak of Kabir, 2002 Kabir was an extraordinary oral poet whose works have been recited by millions throughout north India for half a millennium. Thousands of poems are attributed to Kabir but only a few written collections have survived over the centuries      Kabir and His Followers Frank Ernest Keay, 1995-01-01      Kabir Legends and Ananta-Das's Kabir Parachai Professor Centre of Asian and African Studies David N. Lorenzen, David N. Lorenzen, Ananta-das, Anantad?sa Vai??ava, 1991-01-01 This book represents the first systematic collection and analysis of the principal legends about Kabir Das, a fifteenth century poet saint. It focuses on the ways in which the legends embody and reflect the often changing social and religious needs of those who created and listened to them. Particular attention is paid to the earliest known collection of legends, Ananta das's Kabir Parachai. This book makes available for the first time an English translation of this text with detailed notes on its variant readings as well as a corrected Hindi edition based on a comparison of over a dozen manuscripts. The various historical synchronisms between Kabir and his leading contemporaries including Ramananda and King Virasimhadev Baghel are reevaluated and a solution is proposed to the longstanding debate about Kabir's dates      The Kabir-Panth and Social Protest David Neal Lorenzen, 19??      Songs of Kabir Saint Kabir, 2023-09-16 The poet Kabir, a selection from whose songs is here for the first time offered to English readers, is one of the most interesting personalities in the history of Indian mysticism. Born in or near Benares of Mohammedan parents and probably about the year 1440, he became in early life a disciple of the celebrated Hindu ascetic Ramananda. Ramananda had brought to Northern India the religious revival which Ramanuja, the great twelfth century reformer of Brahmanism, had initiated in the South. This revival was in part a reaction against the increasing formalism of the orthodox cult, in part an assertion of the demands of the heart as against the intense intellectualism of the Vedanta philosophy, the exaggerated monism which that philosophy proclaimed. It took in Ramanuja's preaching the form of an ardent personal devotion to the God Vishnu as representing the personal aspect of the Divine Nature, that mystical religion of love which everywhere makes its appearance at a certain level of spiritual culture and which creeds and philosophies are powerless to kill      The Kabir Panth and Politics D.N.
