Wu Han, Historian Mary G. Mazur, 1955-01-01 This biography spotlights the life of a key Chinese intellectual Wu Han well known in China as a major twentieth century historian and democratic political figure World attention was drawn to Wu in the mid 1960s as the first of Mao Zedong's targets in the Cultural Revolution The biography locates Wu in the rapid changes in the social and political environment of his times from the early years of the twentieth century until his death in prison in 1969 With Wu Han's life as the focus the narrative deals with the momentous changes in Chinese society and government during the last century Mazur bases the biographical account on extensive interviewing in China and penetrates a great deal deeper than the conventional conception of the shift from Nationalist to Communist regimes in the PRC The complex life of Wu Han is of interest to specialist and non specialist readers alike both because of the broad relevance of the historical and political issues he and those around him confronted in the context of the times in China and because of the direct narrative biographical style revealing the conflicts and depth in the human situation Mazur relates Wu Han's life to the momentous changes and conflicts surging through Chinese society with special emphasis on the complex role intellectuals have played during the course of change

Samuel Johnston,Xin Chen,2020-01-29 The Mekong River is a vital and valuable resource with huge development potential for the six states through which it flows Given the significant asymmetry of power between those states however there is a real risk that some might utilise it to the detriment of others Without a sense of regional belonging it is difficult to imagine that these states and their constituent communities will take regional imperatives to heart participate in joint regulatory frameworks or adopt behaviours for upstream downstream and lateral cooperation over the appropriation and use of their shared resources How effectively has closer interdependence of the Mekong countries accommodated the development of a political social cultural space conducive to the growth of a regional we ness among not only political elites but also the general public The contributors to this volume approach this question from a range of directions including the impacts of tourism regional development programmes the Mekong Power Grid and Sino US rivalry This edited volume presents valuable insights for scholars of international relations Asian studies development studies environment studies policy studies and human geography

Language Typology Alice Caffarel,J. R. Martin,Christian M. I. M. Matthiessen,2004 This book is intended as a systemic functional contribution to language typology both for those who would like to understand and describe particular languages against the background of generalizations about a wide range of languages and also for those who would like to develop typological accounts that are based on and embody descriptions of the systems of particular languages rather than isolated constructions The book is a unique contribution in at least two respects On the one hand it is the first book based on systemic functional theory that is specifically concerned with language typology On the other hand the book combines the particular with the general in the description of languages it presents comparable sketches of particular languages while at the same time identifying generalizations based on the languages described here as well as on other languages The volume explores eight languages covering seven language families French German Pitjantjatjara Tagalog Telugu Vietnamese Chinese and Japanese Maritime Guide ,1998 Gendered Memories Xian Wang,2025-02-04 Gendered Memories An Imaginary Museum for Ding Ling and Chinese Female Revolutionary Martyrs takes readers on a journey through the lives and legacies of Chinese female revolutionary martyrs revealing how their sacrifices have been remembered commemorated and manipulated throughout history This innovative book blends historical narratives with personal narratives creating an imaginary museum where the stories of these women are brought to life Author Xian Wang employs this imaginary museum to create a conceptual space mirroring an actual museum that juxtaposes historical narratives with counter memories of Chinese female revolutionaries such as the prominent writer Ding Ling Exploring Ding s experiences with martyrdom and the commemoration of female revolutionary martyrs associated with her the book provides a compelling argument that female revolutionary martyrdom reinforces rather than rejects the traditional concept of female chastity martyrdom Narratives that challenge established gender norms particularly those surrounding female chastity have often been silenced or overlooked in the collective memory of these female revolutionary martyrs By delving into these counter memories Wang provides fresh insights into gendered violence memories and politics in modern Chinese literature and culture From Beijing to Port Moresby Virginia Domingues,David Wu,2014-01-02 Essays in this volume focus on Singapore Papua New Guinea Taiwan Japan Thailand and the People s Republic of China as sites rife with discursive complexity From small to large young to old former colony to former colonial power these six examples do well to represent situated voices and cultural values meted out in a larger global space Chinese Physics Letters ,2007 The Party's Interests Come First Joseph Torigian,2025-06-03 China s leader Xi Jinping is one of the most powerful individuals in the world and one of the least understood Much can be learned however about both Xi Jinping and the nature of the party he leads from the memory and legacy of his father the revolutionary Xi Zhongxun 1913 2002 The elder Xi served the Chinese Communist Party CCP for more than seven decades He worked at the right hand of prominent leaders Zhou Enlai and Hu Yaobang He helped build the Communist base area that saved Mao Zedong in 1935 and he initiated the Special Economic Zones that launched China into the reform era after Mao s death He led the Party s United Front efforts toward Tibetans Uyghurs and Taiwanese And though in 1989 he initially sought to avoid violence he ultimately supported the Party s crackdown on the Tiananmen protesters The Party's Interests Come First is the first biography of Xi Zhongxun written in English This biography is at once a sweeping story of the Chinese revolution and the first several decades of the People s Republic of China and a deeply personal story about making sense of one s own identity within a larger political context

Drawing on an array of new documents interviews diaries and periodicals Joseph Torigian vividly tells the life story of Xi Zhongxun a man who spent his entire life struggling to balance his own feelings with the Party s demands Through the eyes of Xi Jinping s father Torigian reveals the extraordinary organizational ideological and coercive power of the CCP and the terrible cost in human suffering that comes with it Timurid Art and Culture Lisa Golombek, Maria Subtelny, 2023-12-28 The nineteen papers collected in this volume were delivered at a symposium held in Toronto November 1989 in order to discuss the art and culture of Timurid times The papers cover the last decades of the fourteenth century and the whole of the fifteenth in an area of western Asia extending roughly from the Euphrates to the Hindu Kush and to the Altai Among the subjects covered were Discourses of an Imaginary Arts Council in Fifteenth Century Iran The Persian Court between Palace and Tent From Timur to Abbas I Turkmen Princes and Religious Dignitaries A Sketch in Group Profiles Craftsmen and Guild Life in Samarkand The Baburnama and the Tarikh i Rashidi Their Mutual Relationship Geometric Design in Timurid Turkmen Architectural Practice Thoughts on a Recently Discovered Scroll and Its Late Gothic Parallels and Repetition of Compositions in Manuscripts The Khamsa of Nizami in Leningrad World Journal of Psychosynthesis ,1980 The Treatment of Modern Western Medical Diseases with Chinese Medicine Bob Flaws, Philippe Sionneau, 2001 This book is a textbook and clinical manual on the treatment of modern Western medical diseases with Chinese medicine By modern Western medical diseases we mean all the disease categories of Western medicine excluding gynecology and pediatrics By Chinese medicine we mean standard contemporary professional Chinese medicine as taught at the two dozen provincial Chinese medical colleges in the People s Republic of China The two main therapeutic modalities used in the practice of this style of Chinese medicine are acupuncture moxibustion and the internal administration of multi ingredient Chinese medicinal formulas Treatment plans for each disease discussed herein are given for each of these two main modalities China Nagel Publishers, 1979 Many Faces of Mulian Rostislav Berezkin, 2017-12-01 The story of Mulian rescuing his mother s soul from hell has evolved as a narrative over several centuries in China especially in the baojuan precious scrolls genre This genre a prosimetric narrative in vernacular language first appeared around the fourteenth century and endures as a living tradition In exploring the evolution of the Mulian story Rostislav Berezkin illuminates changes in the literary and religious characteristics of the genre He also examines material from other forms of Chinese literature and from modern performances of baojuan tracing their transformation from tools of Buddhist proselytizing to sectarian propaganda to folk ritualized storytelling Ultimately he reveals the special features of baojuan as a type of performance literature that had its foundations in multiple literary traditions Traditional Chinese Medicines Jiaju Zhou, G. W. A.
