Kakadu Reflections:

Kakadu Reflections, 2007 Somewhere near Eden Brian Robinson, 2013-03-08 A journey through life from early childhood in England to happy retirement in beautiful Nova Scotia Canada this memoir traces a man's milestones through interesting years It spans World War II the rapid and constant whirl of the emerging world of technology an experience with the Cuban Missile Crisis and many travels in which his growing spirituality emerged Encounters with death and cancers are recalled together with the knowledge gained to cope with these and other adversities It is a journey to be shared and may well help in discovering your own story Christian Worship in Reformed Churches Past and Present Lukas Vischer, 2003 Worship renewal is now on the agenda of many Reformed churches as the need for adaptation and new approaches is acutely felt all over How can the church faithfully worship God in the midst of rapidly changing situations How can it constructively relate to widely differing cultural contexts What is its place in the wider ecumenical scene In preparing a sweeping survey of Reformed worship across time and place this volume provides some help to those engaged with vital questions like these Written by theologians and liturgical scholars from a wide range of churches and countries these chapters explore the history of Reformed worship on every continent from the sixteenth century to the present Surveying the most significant developments in the growth of Reformed worship the book identifies the major ingredients that make the Reformed worship tradition distinctive and highlights those aspects of Reformed worship that are particularly relevant to present efforts at renewal Indeed an important component of this book is the inclusion of A Common Reflection on Christian Worship in Reformed Churches Today the result of a major consultation in January 2001 at the International Reformed Center John Knox Revealing the rich variety of forms and diversity of perspectives that have made and do make up Reformed worship worldwide this volume will be a valuable resource for church and worship leaders both in and outside the Reformed family Contributors Horace T Allen Jr Emily R Brink Livingstone Buama Coenraad Burger Bruno Brki Gerson Correia de Lacerda Alan D Falconer Kasonga wa Kasonga Baranite T Kirata Elsie Anne McKee Seong Won Park Ester Pudjo Widiasih Alan P F Sell Joseph D Small Bryan D Spinks Leonora Tubbs Tisdale Lukas Vischer Isaiah Wahome Muita Geraldine Wheeler Marsha M Wilfong John D Witvliet Kakadu Reflections Bruce David Prewer, Ian Morris, 1988 Mainly photographs of Kakadu National Park including rock art sites with brief general introduction and captions Broom Harold Loeb, 1922 An international magazine of the arts Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books, 1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You'll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe Histories of Australian Rock Art Research Jo McDonald, 2022-09-06 Australia has one of the largest inventories of rock art in the world with pictographs and petroglyphs found almost anywhere that has suitable rock surfaces in rock shelters and caves on boulders and rock platforms First Nations people have been marking these places with figurative imagery abstract designs stencils and prints for tens of thousands of years often engaging with earlier rock markings The art reflects and expresses changing experiences within landscapes over time spirituality history law and lore as well as relationships between individuals and groups of people plants animals land and Ancestral Beings that are said to have created the world including some rock art Since the late 1700s people arriving in Australia have been fascinated with the rock art they encountered with detailed studies commencing in the late 1800s Through the 1900s an impressive body of research on Australian rock art was undertaken with dedicated academic study using archaeological methods employed since the late 1940s Since then Australian rock art has been researched from various perspectives including that of Traditional Owners custodians and other community members Through the 1900s there was also growing interest in Australian rock art from researchers across the globe leading many to visit or migrate to Australia to undertake rock art research In this volume the varied histories of Australian rock art research from different parts of the country are explored not only in terms of key researchers developments and changes over time but also the crucial role of First Nations people themselves in investigations of this key component of their living heritage

Ludwig Leichhardt's Ghosts Andrew Wright Hurley, 2018 A fascinating cultural studies account of the afterlife of Leichhardt revealing both German entanglement in British colonialism in Australia and in a broader sense what happens when we maintain an open stance to the ghosts of the past Heritage at the Interface Glenn Hooper, 2018-01-09 Provides innovative and exciting insights into heritage identity meaning and belonging from a global perspective A welcome addition to the growing heritage literature Dallen J Timothy author of Cultural Heritage and Tourism An Introduction A critical collection of international heritage case studies that represents a wide range of issues and exemplifies its complexities and contradictions vividly A V Seaton coeditor of Slavery Contested Heritage and Thanatourism Bringing together high profile cultural heritage sites from around the world this volume shows how the term heritage has been used or understood by different groups of people over time For some heritage describes a celebration of a particular culture and history or a sense of identity ownership and belonging However for others it is frequently connected with social privilege and exclusion made all the more complicated due to its relationship with the tourism industry These case studies are taken from America Britain Ireland France Germany Austria India China and the Caribbean The varied approaches to heritage range from the Nazi regime's vision of German national history to the present day push to recover Native American culture from outdated Hollywood portrayals The contributors argue that heritage has a central yet sometimes problematic purpose creating divisions contesting identities and constructing narratives of history that may not be seen as accurate by all Exploring the benefits of cultural inheritance this volume also acknowledges the ways that heritage operates in places with clashing viewpoints about what exactly that heritage represents The essays argue that although heritage and tourism may help to alleviate poverty and create opportunity they can also become a burden by compromising cultures and landscapes Featuring a tribute to Sir Gregory Ashworth whose influential work drew attention to the contested meanings of heritage this volume illuminates a fascinating international debate A Companion to Environmental Philosophy Dale Jamieson,2008-04-15 A Companion to Environmental Philosophy is a pioneering work in the burgeoning field of environmental philosophy This ground breaking volume contains thirty six original articles exemplifying the rich diversity of scholarship in this field Contains thirty six original articles written by international scholars Traces the roots of environmental philosophy through the exploration of cultural traditions from around the world Brings environmental philosophy into conversation with other fields and disciplines such as literature economics ecology and law Discusses environmental problems that stimulate current debates Against the Grain Lyn Jacobs,2001 This is the first comprehensive critical study of Beverley Farmer s poetry prose and criticism in UQP s long running Studies in Australian Literature series Jacobs studies Farmer s work in relation to the dynamic changes in writing and reception that have occurred during Farmer s writing life Malay Words and Malay Things Waruno Mahdi,2007 The book traces the development of German acquaintance with the Malayan world and language as reflected in publications up to 1700 Beginning with a perusal of earliest cartographic renderings and a recapitulation of economic and political circumstances of German involvement in European Far Eastern trade after 1500 the volume proceeds to systematically inspect 16th and 17th century German travellers memoirs and translations of foreign sources Relevant text passages are quoted in the original with English gloss Citations of renderings of Malay items are accompanied by transliterations in modern spelling Ultimate and intermediate sources and the routes by which various items reached the German public are followed as well as virtual networks of information Etymologies of numerous real or assumed Malayisms are elaborately reinspected and corrected where necessary The development in usage of the acquired Malayisms after 1700 reconstructed from entries in dictionaries and encyclopaedias and through direct quotation from German literature is shown to reflect fluctuations in public attention towards features from exotic regions Modern Archaeology and Its Reflection in the Value System of Contemporary Culture Boris Deunert,1996 This book asks the question How can archaeologists work closely together with Aboriginal people and in a way that can mutually benefit both parties involved concerning the research outcome for the scientist and giving Aborigines a proven base for the prehistory they are aiming to identify with but are not willing to explore in detail themselves The author seeks answers to this and related questions through a two pronged research approach via interviews with and actively evolving questionnaires completed by contemporary Aboriginal participants and through archaeological research into stone technology These investigational tools and their interaction exemplify the dilemma modern science has to face when working in a field where not only the exchange of knowledge between two diverse cultures is being questioned but also cultural assimilation in both directions Into The Never-Never Brian Johnston,2016-10-18 After a long sojourn in China Brian Johnston arrived in Cairns to join his sister on a campervan trip across the top end Into the Never Never is a beautifully written and often hilarious account of their adventures in the remote outback and on to the coast and the cities in search of the Australia they knew only from tourist brochures and soap operas The book is suffused with Johnston s growing affection for the country and its people It is also shadowed by an acute awareness of Australia s underlying cultural tensions From warts and all accounts of casual racism in the outback to unabashed delight in Sydney s Mardi Gras Into the Never Never presents Australia s burgeoning cultural diversity in microcosm In his second traveller s tale Brian Johnston s dry wit and wonderful descriptive powers are once again in evidence Whether bogged on a beach in Broome sightseeing in Canberra with a Laotian friend or speaking with the traditional owners on a cliff top in Kakadu he never loses his keen sense of the absurd and his sensitivity to the nuances of everyday encounters

Art Centre Architecture Kate Goodwin,2024-06-03 This book examines the architecture of Aboriginal art centres in the Northern Territory Art centres emerged in Australia in the 1970s alongside Aboriginal self determination and the rise of the Indigenous art market Primarily located in remote communities and towns their economic and social value has been widely acknowledged Together with supporting artists and facilitating the production and sale of art works they provide an invaluable safe space for community to come together and to practice Culture Art centres occupy existing adapted or purpose designed buildings often developed over time with varying degrees of architect involvement While each art centre is specific to Country and community they share commonalities in their activities facilities and architectural strategies This study provides a contextual introduction to art centres and remote communities in the Northern Territory It documents and analyses the architecture of twelve centres across diverse regions from the Tiwi Islands and the tropical Top End to the Central Desert The study identifies some of the key factors impacting building outcomes and pinpoints ideas that can inform discussions between architects community and funding bodies As well as the architectural profession it is intended as an informative document for those involved in art centres and anyone interested in these unique hybrid entities

Culture, Ecology and Economy of Fire Management in North Australian Savannas Jeremy Russell-Smith,Peter Whitehead,Peter Cooke,2009-10-26 This engaging volume explores the management of fire in one of the world s most flammable landscapes Australia s tropical savannas where on average 18% of the landscape is burned annually Impacts have been particularly severe in the Arnhem Land Plateau a centre of plant and animal diversity on Indigenous land Culture Ecology and Economy of Fire Management in North Australian Savannas documents a remarkable collaboration between Arnhem Land s traditional landowners and the scientific community to arrest a potentially catastrophic fire driven decline in the natural and cultural assets of the region not by excluding fire but by using it better through restoration of Indigenous control over burning This multi disciplinary treatment encompasses the history of fire use in the savannas the post settlement changes that altered fire patterns the personal histories of a small number of people who lived most of their lives on the plateau and critically their deep knowledge of fire and how to apply it to care for country Uniquely it shows how such knowledge and commitment can be deployed in conjunction with rigorous formal scientific analysis advanced technology new cross cultural institutions and the emerging carbon economy to build partnerships for controlling fire at scales that were until this demonstration thought beyond effective intervention

The Imagination of Plants Matthew Hall, 2019-07-01

Plants have a remarkable mythology dating back thousands of years From the ancient Greeks to contemporary Indigenous cultures human beings have told colorful and enriching stories that have presented plants as sensitive communicative and intelligent This book explores the myriad of plant tales from around the world and the groundbreaking ideas that underpin them Amid the key themes of sentience and kinship it connects the anemone to the meaning of human life tree hugging to the sacred basil of India and plant intelligence with the Finnish epic The Kalevala Bringing together commentary original source material and colorful illustrations Matthew Hall challenges our perspective on these myths the plants they feature and the human beings that narrate them
