Post-Pop Cinema Jesse Fox Mayshark, 2007-05-30 Starting in the early 1990s artists such as Quentin Tarantino David Foster Wallace and Kurt Cobain contributed to a swelling cultural tide of pop postmodernism that swept through music film literature and fashion In cinema in particular some of the arts most fundamental aspects stories characters and genres for instance assumed such a trite and trivialized appearance that only rarely could they take their places on the screen without provoking an inward smirk or a wink from the audience Out of this highly self conscious and world weary environment however a new group of filmmakers began to develop as the decade wore on with a new set of styles and sensibilities to match In Post Pop Cinema author Jesse Fox Mayshark takes us on a film by film tour of the works of these filmmakers including Wes and P T Anderson Sofia Coppola Richard Linklater Alexander Payne and David O Russell and seeks to reveal how a common pool of styles collaborators and personal connections helps them to confront the unifying problem of meaning in American film Wes Anderson's Bottle Rocket 1996 and Paul Thomas Anderson's Boogie Nights 1997 were ultimately about their characters lives even though their characters often dealt with highly contrived environments and situations And soon after Wes Anderson scored his first success others like David O Russell Flirting With Disaster Three Kings the screenwriter Charlie Kaufman who collaborated with Spike Jonze on such projects as Being John Malkovich and Adaptation Alexander Payne Election Sideways Richard Kelly Donnie Darko and Sofia Coppola Lost in Translation began to tread their own paths over this same ground Although these men and women represent a wide range of styles and subject matter all their films revolve in different ways around the difficulty of establishing and maintaining connections This theme of connection also runs deeper than the films made the directors share actors Mark Wahlberg Bill Murray Ben Stiller Jason Schwartzman collaborators the musician Jon Brion and sometimes even personal connections Spike Jonze starred in Russell's Three Kings and was married to Coppola Together these filmmakers form a loose and distinctly American school of filmmaking one informed by postmodernism but not in thrall to it and one that every year becomes more important to the world of cinema both within and beyond the United States

Reframing Todd Haynes Theresa L. Geller, Julia Leyda, 2022-02-07 For three decades award winning independent filmmaker Todd Haynes who emerged in the early 1990s as a foundational figure in New Queer Cinema has gained critical recognition for his outsider perspective Today Haynes is widely known for bringing women's stories to the screen Analyzing Haynes's films including Safe 1995 Velvet Goldmine 1998 Far from Heaven 2002 and Carol 2015 as well as his unauthorized Karen Carpenter biopic Superstar 1987 and the television miniseries Mildred Pierce 2011 the contributors to Reframing Todd Haynes reassess his work in light of his long standing feminist commitments and his exceptional career as a director of women's films They present multiple perspectives on Haynes's film and television work and on his role as an artist activist who draws on academic theorizations of gender and cinema The volume illustrates the influence of feminist theory on Haynes's aesthetic vision most evident in his persistent interest in the political and formal possibilities afforded by the genre of the woman's film The contributors contend that no consideration of Haynes's work can afford to ignore the crucial place of feminism within it Contributors Danielle Bouchard Nick Davis Jigna Desai Mary R Desjardins Patrick Flanery Theresa L Geller Rebecca M Gordon Jess Issacharoff Lynne Joyrich Bridget Kies Julia Leyda David E Maynard Noah A Tsika Patricia White Sharon Willis

Reel Food Anne L. Bower, 2012-08-06 Reel Food is the first book devoted to food as a vibrant and evocative element of film featuring original essays by major food studies scholars among them Carole Counihan and Michael Ashkenazi This collection reads various films through their uses of food from major food films like Babette's Feast and Big Night to less obvious choices including The Godfather trilogy and The Matrix The contributors draw attention to the various ways in which food is employed to make meaning in film In some cases such as Soul Food and Tortilla Soup for example food is used to represent racial and ethnic identities In other cases such as Chocolat and LikeWater for Chocolate food plays a role in gender and sexual politics And of course there is also discussion of the centrality of popcorn to the movie going experience This book is a feast for scholars foodies and cinema buffs It will be of major interest to anyone working in popular culture film studies and food studies at both the undergraduate and graduate level
